Educational Policy Unionist Party November:

The Educational Policy of the Unionist Party Richard Claverhouse Jebb,1901 New State Formations in Education Policy Laura Engel,2009-01-01 New State Formations in Education Policy Reflections from Spain explores globalization shifting state spaces and education in relation to a diverse set of processes including democratization decentralization and Europeanization The book offers a unique perspective on education policy formation in the modern nation state in which education policy makers have to take into account and negotiate not only pressures related to devolution and regionalization but also policy ideas emanating from the developing European agenda and notions circulating within the global space In this way education policy concepts are not only formed in relation to national regional dynamics but are influenced more broadly by a complex set of supranational and global considerations While the book focuses on Spain this study reflects the growing influence of globalization on national systems of education The book therefore will be of interest to those engaged in studies of globalization and education and those with an interest in the contemporary political cultural and educational context of Europe Education Policy Making in England and Wales Neil Daglish,2013-12-19 The lack of educational provision for the majority towards the end of the 19th century attracted the attention of education policy makers who wished to remedy the situation This overview draws on unpublished sources to describe and analyse the crucible years for 20th century English education Bailey's index to 'The Times'. Nancy Bailey,1901 The Conservative Party and the Destruction of Selective Education in Post-War Britain Piers Legh,2023-01-26 The book tells the untold story of the Conservative Party's involvement in terms of stance and policy in the destruction of selective state education from 1945 up to the present day Close consideration is paid to their attitudes and prejudices towards education both in power and in opposition Legh examines the Party's responses to the pressure for comprehensive schooling and egalitarianism from the Labour Party and the British left In doing so Legh defies current historiography to demonstrate that the Party were not passive actors in the advancement of comprehensive schooling The lively narrative is moved along by the author's critical examination of the Education Ministers throughout this period Florence Horsbrugh and David Eccles serving under Churchill and Eden and also Quintin Hogg and Geoffrey Lloyd under Macmillan as well as Edward Boyle and Margaret Thatcher under Edward Heath Legh's detailed research utilises a range of government documents personal papers parliamentary debates and newspapers to provide this crucial re assessment of the Conservative Party and selective education and in doing so questions over simplistic generalisations about wholesale support for selective education policy It reveals instead questioning compromises and disagreements within the Party and its political and ideological allies The result is a stimulating revival of existing scholarship which will be of interest to scholars of British education and politics The Educational Policy of the Unionist Party; An Address Given to the United Club on November 13, 19 Sir Jebb Richard Claverhouse,2016-05-16 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge

Palmers' Index to the Times Newspaper ,1901 Education Policy and Power-Sharing in Post-Conflict Societies Giuditta Fontana,2016-08-24 This book explores the nexus between education and politics in Lebanon Northern Ireland and Macedonia drawing from an extensive body of original evidence and literature on power sharing and post conflict education in these post conflict societies as well as the repercussions that emerged from the end of civil war This book demonstrates that education policy affects the resilience of political settlements by helping reproduce and reinforce the mutually exclusive religious ethnic and national communities that participated in conflict and now share political power Using curricula for subjects such as history citizenship education and languages and structures like the existence of state funded separate or common schools Fontana shows that power sharing constrains the scope for specific education reforms and offers some suggestions for effective ones to aid political stability and reconciliation after civil wars The Annual Index to The Times ,1912 Ideas, Institutions, and the Politics of Schools in Postwar Britain and Germany Gregory Baldi,2022-05-16 This book addresses one the most contentious issues of postwar Western Europe namely the organization of the primary and secondary stages of schooling in state education systems In examining the politics of continuity and change in postwar schooling in Britain and the Federal Republic Germany Gregory Baldi seeks to contribute to more general understandings of education s place in the welfare state the development of social institutions and the relationship between material and ideational factors in shaping political outcomes over time National Union Gleanings ,1894 The Annual Index to the Times ,1968 Pamphlets and Leaflets of the Liberal Publication Dept Liberal Publication Department (Great Britain),1926 The Liberal Magazine ,1909 Joseph Chamberlain and the Tariff Reform Campaign Julian Amery,1969-06-18 Pre-service Teacher Education Policy Development Jian Li,2023-08-31 This book examines the pre service teacher education policy development of seven countries including the USA the UK Japan Canada Singapore Australia and Russia This book reviews the history of pre service teacher education policies in those countries and discusses relative case studies on pre service teacher training practices It also identifies problems in current pre service teacher education in those countries and proposes potential countermeasures to resolve those issues This book serves as a useful reference for various stakeholders in the teacher education field The British Consumer Co-operative Movement and Film, 1890s-1960s Alan Burton,2005-09-03 This volume provides a new study on the Co operative Movement s engagement with film for educational cultural and publicity purposes It provides insights into the political and commercial use of cinema in the 20th century and significantly extends our understanding of the achievements of workers cinema in Britain

Education Policy and the Political Right Grant Rodwell,2021-12-28 This work attempts a comparative description and analysis focusing on the US the UK and Australia on the topic of the Right educational policy and schooling It adopts as its underlying theme the burning fuse in tracing the topic back to Joseph de Maistre a Rightist who fled revolutionary France to seek safety in the company of Tsar Alexander I s Russian Empire Here he had much to say about school education not for all but rather the deserving social elite During the past three or four decades in the US the UK and Australia the Right has been remarkably successful in amassing political power And in doing so the right of politics in these countries has reshaped school educational policy and practice a necessary step in securing the future of the Right as a political force Moreover even during the years the Right has been on the opposition benches in these countries such has been the strength of their political force that governments of the Left have acquiesced to much of their school educational policy A pioneering effort this book asserts that to understand school educational policy in the third decade of the 21st century we need to comprehend the politics of the Right This book will be of interest to researchers and postgraduate students interested in Education Studies Theory and Policy and International and Comparative Education Truth, Denial and Transition Cheryl Lawther,2018-10-08 Truth Denial and Transition Northern Ireland and the Contested Past makes a unique and timely contribution to the transitional justice field In contrast to the focus on truth and those societies where truth recovery has been central to dealing with the aftermath of human rights violations comparatively little scholarly attention has been paid to those jurisdictions whose transition from violent conflict has been marked by the absence or rejection of a formal truth process This book draws upon the case study of Northern Ireland where despite a lengthy debate the question of establishing a formal truth recovery process remains hotly contested The strongest and most vocal opposition has been from unionist political elites loyalist ex combatants and members of the security forces Based on empirical research their opposition is unpicked and interrogated at length throughout this book Critically exploring notions of national imagination and blamelessness the politics of victimhood and the tension between traditions of sacrifice and the fear of betrayal this book is the first substantive effort to concentrate on the opponents of truth recovery rather than its advocates This book will interest those studying truth processes and transitional justice in the fields of Law Politics and Criminology Clare Market Review ,1912
