Edward Albee's The Goat, Or, Who is Sylvia? Edward Albee, 2003 In the play Martin a hugely successful architect who has just turned fifty leads an ostensibly ideal life with his loving wife and gay teenage son But when he confides to his best friend that he is also in love with a goat named Sylvia he sets in motion events that will destroy his family and leave his life in tatters BOOK JACKET Edward Albee and the Emergence of Difference and Diversity in US and World Theatre David A.

Crespy, Les Gray, 2025-09-08 This collection of essays seeks to present articles that examine the early ventures of the 1960s and 1970s in the progressive theatre of identity with a new contemporary view considering the intersection of race gender ethnicity economic class and sexual orientation In 1964 Edward Albee and his producers Richard Barr and Clinton Wilder produced Funnyhouse of a Negro by Adrienne Kennedy and Dutchman by Amiri Baraka then Leroi Jones and by 1968 had produced the seminal gay drama The Boys in the Band by Mart Crowley No other major American playwright of this period including Thornton Wilder Arthur Miller Tennessee Williams or William Inge produced the plays of their junior colleagues with a specific focus on difference and diversity For most scholars these productions and Albee's involvement in them are a somewhat obscure footnote in theatre history But they remain important for their early support of diverse voices Even as Albee's career was skyrocketing he and his producers had begun a producing project that sowed the seeds of diversity equity and inclusion in a decidedly anti racist decolonizing and progressive move that still resonates powerfully today While this book is not a hagiography and does not intend to paint Albee as without his own critical failings in terms of diversity in his own work and that of others this volume of theatre history dramatic literature and performance essays takes a detailed critical approach to Albee's engagement with other initiating plays productions producers theatre companies theatre artists and performances in the United States that pushed the dial toward difference and diversity in the late 1950s through the late 1970s beginning the formations of new theatres of identity across the United States This volume will be of great interest to students and scholars in theatre and performance studies The Goat, or Who is Sylvia? Edward Albee, 2021-01-14 Albee's perversely funny sendup of a standard mid life crisis drama dares to suggest that even the most flawed and confused human beings deserve compassionate understanding and the failure to proffer it is a species of bestiality far more abhorrent than the sexual kind Variety On his 50th birthday Martin a world famous architect prepares for a recorded interview by an old friend in the TV business but in the course of the conversation a secret emerges that threatens to turn celebration to tragedy Edward Albee's black comedy offers a fascinating look at the limits liberal society can be pushed to and asks the audience to question their beliefs to examine their own bigoted views and reconsider their judgement of matters that may or may not be considered socially taboo Winner of the 2002 Tony Award for Best Play The Goat or Who is Sylvia is a hugely enjoyable parable that plumbs the deepest questions of social constraints on the individual expression of love This Modern Classics edition features a new introduction by Toby Zinman Edward Albee Barbara L. Horn, 2003-12-30 This volume
