Effective Multilateralism Through The Looking Glass Of East Asia St Antony's:

Effective Multilateralism Jochen Prantl, 2013-11-06 Existing theories of cooperation assume a stable geo political order led by countries with a shared conception of the modalities of cooperation These assumptions are no longer justified Effective Multilateralism makes the case for a new approach to explaining international cooperation through the lens of East Asian

International Relations and Asia's Southern Tier Gilbert Rozman, Joseph Chinyong Liow, 2017-09-18 This book part of a series seeks to re conceptualize Asian geographies rather than a static East Asia core this volume analyzes Asia's southern fringe as symbolized in the trading group ASEAN and its role in Asia's evolving international relations The contributors include many leading experts in the field ensuring that this book will be the go to text for students scholars and civil society decision makers exploring Asia's contemporary political spectrum in real time

Constitutionalism and the Politics of Accommodation in Multinational Democracies Jaime Llach, 2014-09-25 This collection argues that although constitutionalism has traditionally been the primary mechanism for facilitating the mutual accommodation of sub state and state national societies in plurinational states

Cross-Taiwan Strait Relations in an Era of Technological Change Paul Irwin Crookes, J. Knoerich, 2015-05-26 This book explores how technological change is influencing the dynamics of relations between mainland China and Taiwan Using the latest research it examines the acceleration of technology led and how it shapes three key dimensions of the cross Strait relationship the overarching security context the economic context and the cultural context

The Policy-Making Process and Social Learning in Russia Marina Khmelnitskaya, 2016-04-29 Centering its study around three explanatory variables actors institutions and ideas this book argues that Russia's hybrid institutional environment reduces the competition of policy ideas both at the stage of policy elaboration by the community of state and non state policy experts and also at the stage of policy adoption by parliament

Governing the North American Arctic Dawn Alexandra Berry, Nigel Bowles, Halbert Jones, 2016-04-08 Though it has been home for centuries to indigenous peoples who have mastered its conditions the Arctic has historically proven to be a difficult region for governments to administer Extreme temperatures vast distances and widely dispersed patterns of settlement have made it impossible for bureaucracies based in far off capitals to erect and maintain the kind of infrastructure and institutions that they have built elsewhere As climate change transforms the polar regions this book seeks to explore how the challenges of governance are developing and being met in Alaska the Canadian Far North and Greenland while also drawing upon lessons from the region's past Though the experience of each of these jurisdictions is unique their place within democratic federal systems and the prominence within each of them of issues relating to the rights of indigenous peoples situates them as part of an identifiably North American Arctic Today as this volume shows their institutions are evolving to address contemporary issues of security environmental protection indigenous rights and economic development

France and the Politics of European Economic and Monetary Union V. Caton, 2015-05-26 Why did France with its strong sense of national identity want to give up the Franc for the Euro This book by a former British diplomat in Paris draws on new archive evidence to explore France's drive for European Economic and Monetary Union and how unresolved Franco German tensions over its design led to crisis

Balkan Legacies of the Great War Othon Anastasakis, David Madden, Elizabeth Roberts, 2016-04-29 This is a rich yet succinct account of an underexplored story the consequences of the Great War for the region which ignited it It offers a fascinating tapestry the collapse of Empires the birth of Turkey and Yugoslavia Greece as both victor and loser Bulgaria's humiliating defeat bitter memories forced migrations territorial implications and collective national amnesias The legacies live on The contributions in this volume significantly enhance the debate about how the Great War is remembered in South East Europe and why it still evokes such strong emotions and reactions more than a century after its beginnings Sudan and South Sudan B. Malwal, 2014-12-08 The Republic of Sudan's former Culture Minister and a leading architect in the movement to gain independence for South Sudan Bona Malwal provides a factual and personal account of the break up of Sudan He explores its troubled history post colonialism and offers a frank account of the many challenges that both nations face in the coming years Economic and Policy Foundations for Growth in South East Europe A. Bennett, R.

Kincaid, P. Sanfey, M. Watson, 2015-10-29 This volume argues that a renewed commitment to sound macroeconomic policies and structural reforms is needed for countries in South East Europe or the Balkans achieve to sustainable prosperity along with enhanced support from the international community New fiscal and financial architecture has valuable lessons for policymakers in SEE Secular Institutions, Islam and Education Policy P. Mattei, A. Aguilar, 2016-10-18 Amidst claims of threats to national identities in an era of increasing diversity should we be worried about the upsurge in religious animosity in the United States as well as Europe This book explores how French society is divided along conflicts about religion increasingly visible in public schools and shows the effect that this has had St. Antony's Series Richard Clogg, 19??

Multiregionalism and Multilateralism Sebastian Bersick, W. A. L. Stokhof, Paul Velde van der, Benedikt Seemann, 2006 The sovereign power of the nation state has been steadily eroding for decades under the pressure of multilateral organizations such as the United Nations and multiregional organizations such as the European Union The increasing prominence of non governmental organizations such as Greenpeace and Human Rights Watch in times of crisis has also contributed since the problems such groups address often extend beyond national borders and are thus difficult for national governments to manage alone Multiregionalism and Multilateralism investigates these forces as they factor into political and economic relations between Asia and Europe East Asian Multilateralism , Challenges to Effective Multilateralism

Bates Gill, 2009-05 The contrast between Europe's and Asia's experiences with regional integration and institution building raises numerous questions about the changing nature of economic integration and multilateral cooperation in the 21st century Similarities in these trends raise questions about the value of comparing the experiences of Asia and Europe To date little serious discussion and research about such a comparison has occurred and dialogue between Asian and EU experts has been equally elusive The intention of this conference was to fill the gap in the literature catalyze a more sustained dialogue and generate policy relevant recommendations for U S policymakers U.S.-East Asia Relations: A Strategy for Multilateral Engagement Asia Society Policy Institute,2022 U.S- East Asia Relations Asia Society. Task Force on Multilateral Engagement in U.S.-East Asia Relations,2011 Asia's New Multilateralism Michael J. Green,Bates Gill,2009-02-25

Traditionally stability in Asia has relied on America s bilateral alliances with Japan Australia and the Republic of Korea Yet in recent years emergent and more active multilateral forums such as the Six Party Talks on North Korea and the East Asia Summit have taken precedence engendering both cooperation and competition while reflecting the local concerns of the region Some are concerned that this process is moving toward less inclusive bloc based talking shops and that the future direction and success of these arrangements along with their implications for global and regional security and prosperity remain unclear The fifteen contributors to this volume all leading scholars in the field provide national perspectives on regional institutional architecture and their functional challenges They illuminate areas of cooperation that will move the region toward substantive collaboration convergence of norms and strengthened domestic institutions They also highlight the degree to which institution building in Asia a region composed of liberal democracies authoritarian regimes and anachronistic dictatorships has become an arena for competition among major powers and conflicting norms and assess the future shape of Asian security architecture Middle Powers in Asia Pacific Multilateralism Sarah Teo,2022-11-25 Drawing on insights from differentiation theory this book examines the participation of middle powers in multilateralism Taking Australia Indonesia and South Korea as examples the book examines these countries roles in regional organizations and particularly during the creation of the Asia Pacific Economic Cooperation APEC and East Asia Summit Through its analysis the book argues that middle powers pursue dilution of major power stratificatory forces as well as functionally differentiated roles for themselves in multilateral diplomacy The book sets out a valuable new framework to explain and understand the behaviour of middle powers in multilateralism Power, Identity and Multilateralism David H. Capie,2002
