Whole School Approaches to Sustainability Arjen E.J. Wals, Birgitte Bjønness, Astrid Sinnes, Ingrid Eikeland, 2024-06-22 In response to urgent global sustainability challenges Education for Sustainable Development ESD and Global Citizenship Education have been prioritized in the United Nations Agenda 2030 under SDG 4 7 There is a growing awareness that treating concepts such as global citizenship sustainable development climate urgency and health and well being as separate subjects or topics to be added to a curriculum is ineffective as they are highly interconnected Additionally this approach is problematic as schools already have an overcrowded curriculum This edited volume brings together a range of scholars and reflective practitioners from across the globe who are investigating and enacting a whole school approach WSA in education for sustainability While the WSA and related approaches such as those advocated by EcoSchools are becoming more popular there is a lack of understanding of their underlying principles and the different manifestations in diverging socio cultural contexts at different educational levels This collection of chapters provides a deeper understanding of the WSA while also addressing its effectiveness possibilities for upscaling professional development needs for WSA practitioners interlinkages with more conventional curriculum requirements expectations of students and parents and more This is an open access book IJER Vol 2-N3 International Journal of Educational Reform,1993-07-01 The mission of the International Journal of Educational Reform IJER is to keep readers up to date with worldwide developments in education reform by providing scholarly information and practical analysis from recognized international authorities As the only peer reviewed scholarly publication that combines authors voices without regard for the political affiliations perspectives or research methodologies IJER provides readers with a balanced view of all sides of the political and educational mainstream To this end IJER includes but is not limited to inquiry based and opinion pieces on developments in such areas as policy administration curriculum instruction law and research IJER should thus be of interest to professional educators with decision making roles and policymakers at all levels turn since it provides a broad based conversation between and among policymakers practitioners and academicians about reform goals objectives and methods for success throughout the world Readers can call on IJER to learn from an international group of reform implementers by discovering what they can do that has actually worked IJER can also help readers to understand the pitfalls of current reforms in order to avoid making similar mistakes Finally it is the mission of IJER to help readers to learn about key issues in school reform from movers and shakers who help to study and shape the power base directing educational reform in the U S and the world [Mark.
