Developing an institutional framework for supporting supervisors of research students: A practical guide

,2012 This booklet describes the outcomes of a unique inter institutional project undertaken in Ireland between 2008 and 2012 to develop a common framework for the support of supervisors of postgraduate research students The experiences of the seven institutions who ultimately participated in the project are summarized in the form of a series of commentaries on approaches to such training and a description of the primary elements of the final framework itself It is intended that this information may be of use to any institutions interested in developing their own supports for research supervisors and ultimately will be of benefit to the supervisors themselves and of course their students Back cover Transforming

Assessment in Education Stephen Roderick Dobson,Fuad Arif Fudiyartanto,2023-05-05 This book transforms our current understanding of assessment practice in different educational settings and cultures Drawing upon the resources of language games and critical realism the authors argue for an innovative engagement with the philosophical theoretical and practical foundations of assessment What is the connection between learning motivation and assessment Is assessment for learning a motorway or a blind alley for improved learning outcomes How can creativity be assessed through the eyes of the connoisseur How can assessment cultures be understood as forms of life and language games Do new forms of society transform our assessment practices A critical appreciation of the work of Royce Sadler is offered for assessment specialists
