Unexpected Links Between Egyptian and Babylonian Mathematics World Scientific 2005 this book is based on the author's intensive and ground breaking studies of the long history of Mesopotamian mathematics from the late 4th to the late 1st millennium BC It is argued in the book that several of the most famous Greek mathematicians appear to have been familiar with various aspects of Babylonian metric algebra a convenient name for an elaborate combination of geometry metrology and quadratic equations that is known from both Babylonian and pre Babylonian mathematical clay tablets The book's use of metric algebra diagrams in the Babylonian style where the side lengths and areas of geometric figures are explicitly indicated instead of wholly abstract lettered diagrams in the Greek style is essential for an improved understanding of many interesting propositions and constructions in Greek mathematical works The author's comparisons with Babylonian mathematics also lead to new answers to some important open questions in the history of Greek mathematics

Empire Review ,1907 "Thus Speaks Ishtar of Arbela" Robert P. Gordon, Hans Barstad, 2013-09-26 Thus Speaks Ishtar is a collection of essays about prophets and prophecy in the ancient Near East during the Neo Assyrian Period This was the time when some of Israel's greatest prophets emerged and we also have from the same general period a number of prophetic texts found on the site of the ancient Assyrian city of Nineveh The book examines the basic idea of prophecy and how this is shaped by the way we study the subject and it then presents a number of fresh insights on a range of prophetic topics These include the relationship between Israelite and other forms of prophecy in Assyria and Egypt and the relationship between what prophets said and the written forms in which their words were passed on Other topics of contemporary interest include what these prophetic texts have to say about the environment the place of intercession in Israelite and Assyrian religion and whether the message of the trailblazing Israelite prophets of the eighth century was basically about judgment and community ruin or about hope and community well being Amnesiac
