Egypte Geschenk Van De Nijl:

Egypte, geschenk van de Nijl R. A. Lunsingh Scheurleer, 1992      Het oude Egypte, 2012      The Christian Epigraphy of Egypt and Nubia Jacques van der Vliet, 2018-04-20 Collected Studies CS1070 The present book collects 31 articles that Jacques van der Vliet a leading scholar in the field of Coptic Studies Leiden University Radboud University Nijmegen has published since 1999 on Christian inscriptions from Egypt and Nubia These inscriptions are dated between the third fourth and the fourteenth centuries and are often written in Coptic and or Greek once in Latin and sometimes partly in Arabic Syriac or Old Nubian They include inscriptions on tomb stones walls of religious buildings tools vessels furniture amulets and even texts on luxury garments Whereas earlier scholars in the field of Coptic Studies often focused on either Coptic or Greek Van der Vliet argues that inscriptions in different languages that appear in the same space or on the same kind of objects should be examined together In addition he aims to combine the information from documentary texts archaeological remains and inscriptions in order to reconstruct the economic social and religious life of monastic or civil communities He practiced this methodology in his studies on the Fayum Wadi al Natrun Sohag Western Thebes and the region of Aswan and Northern Nubia which are all included in this book      Egypte (groene Gids Editie 2), 2007      The Tomb of Three Foreign Wives of Tuthmosis III Christine Lilyquist, 2003 This book results from a collaborative effort to reconstruct the 15th century BC tomb of three foreign wives of Tuthmosis III discovered and robbed by villagers near Luxor in 1916 A general account was published by Herbert Winlock in 1948 The Treasure of Three Egyptian Princesses New York The Metropolitan Museum of Art The present volume differs substantially in the type and extent of documentation provided and in interpretation Verification is provided of tomb provenance for a number of objects for example while other objects previously thought to have come from the tomb are now considered forgeries The text explores and documents the location of the tomb in the southwest valleys at Thebes field work conducted by The Metropolitan Museum of Art at the site in 1988 art market finds alleged to have come from the tomb and the names of the foreign wives and the life they might have led

The Egyptian God Tutu Olaf E. Kaper, 2003 Tutu Tithoes was a popular god in the Ptolemaic and Roman periods of Egyptian history with his origins in the earlier Egyptian religious tradition The god provided protection against demons and his appearance as a striding sphinx was often combined with symbols of his power and visual references to demons and other divinities The god Tutu demonstrates the continuing vitality of the pharaonic religion under the pressure of foreign cultures and ideas This monograph provides the first comprehensive study of the god Tutu It is based upon a collection of attestations largely unpublished which derive from monuments in various parts of Egypt and from museum collections all over the world Moreover the results of recent archaeological field work in Shenhur and in the temple of Tutu in the Dakhla Oasis have been included in full The catalogue of monuments is accompanied by an analysis of the god Tutu his iconography and his place in the Egyptian religion      Royal Bronze Statuary from Ancient Egypt Marsha Hill, 2004 Egyptian bronze statuary has proven particularly intractable to chronological investigations This study exploits clues offered by bronze royal statuettes to make identifications or stylistic assignments A fuller understanding of the artistic milieu and role of small royal bronze statuary results Wooden Statues of the Old Kingdom Julia Harvey, 2021-10-11 About 240 wooden statues survive from the Old Kingdom c 2575-2134 BC The statues that can be dated by external criteria have been gathered together into a chronological catalogue and their features studied to establish dating criteria The criteria are then applied to the remaining statues enabling many of them to be assigned dates within individual reigns of the Old Kingdom De Egyptische verzameling van Baron van Westreenen F. J. E. Boddens Hosang, Rijksmuseum Meermanno-Westreenianum, 1989 Egypte W. Pleyte, 1891 A History of World Egyptology Andrew Bednarski, Aidan Dodson, Salima Ikram, 2021-05-27 A History of World Egyptology is a ground breaking reference work that traces the study of ancient Egypt over the past 150 years Global in purview it enlarges our understanding of how and why people have looked and continue to look into humankind's distant past through the lens of the enduring allure of ancient Egypt Written by an international team of scholars the volume investigates how territories around the world have engaged with and have been inspired by ancient Egypt and its study and how that engagement has evolved over time Chapters present a specific territory from different perspectives including institutional and national while examining a range of transnational links as well The volume thus touches on multiple strands of scholarship embracing not only Egyptology but also social history the history of science and reception studies It will appeal to amateurs and professionals with an interest in the histories of Egypt archaeology and science The Coffin of Heqata Harco Willems, 1996 The coffin published in this book represents a type that had some popularity in southern Upper Egypt in the early Middle Kingdom but which despite its extraordinary decoration had not attracted attention so far The most striking feature of the decoration is that the object friezes the pictorial rendering of ritual implements usually found on coffin interiors of the period also include complete ritual scenes some of which are attested only here Apart from this the decoration includes an extensive selection of the religious texts known as the Coffin Texts The author first studies the archaeological context and dating of the coffin and attempts a reconstruction of the construction procedures from his technical description of the monument The detailed account of the decoration in the rest of the book interprets the ritual iconography and offers fresh translations and interpretations of the Coffin Texts A methodological innovation is that he regards the scenes and texts not as individual decoration elements but as components of an integral composition The background of this composition is argued to be a view of life in the hereafter in which the deceased is involved in an unending cycle of ritual action which reflects the funerary rituals that were actually performed on earth On the one hand these netherworldly rituals aim at bringing the deceased to new life by mummification on the other the newly regenerated deceased partakes in embalming rituals for gods representing his dead father Osiris or Atum These gods in their turn effectuate the deceased's regeneration The entire process results in a cycle of resuscitation in which the afterlife of the deceased and of the father gods are interdependent The sociological bias of this interpretation with its emphasis on kinship relations differs significantly from earlier attempts to explain Egyptian funerary religion     The Art and Architecture of Ancient Egypt William Stevenson Smith, William Kelly Simpson, 1998-01-01 A survey of Egyptian art and architecture is enhanced by revised text an updated bibliography and over four hundred illustrations     Zinsontleding ... van Dale, 1875
