Egyptian Palaces And Villas Pashas Khedives And Kings:

Egyptian Palaces and Villas Shirley Johnston, Sharīf Sunbul, 2006-05 Egypt's romantic allure does not end with the age of the pharaohs. This lavishly illustrated book offers a look inside the opulent estates of the pashas, khedives and great ladies of 19th century Egypt and the princes and kings of the early 20th century. Here in all its cosmopolitan splendor is the world of unparalleled prosperity that attracted adventurers the world over from the Belle époque through the Roaring Twenties. From publisher description Influence and Resistance in Post-Independence Egyptian Architecture Marwa M.

El-Ashmouni, Ashraf M. Salama, 2022-07-22 This book is an effort towards an in-depth understanding of the architectural discourse in Egypt developed over more than eight decades. It offers a distinctive theoretical interpretation of the forces shaping the kaleidoscopic shifts in Egyptian architecture through the analysis of the micro space of architectural representation of twentieth-century Egyptian architecture. Predicated on historical contextualization, theoretical integration and global conceptualization, Edward Said's analytical method of contrapuntal reading and the spatial discourse analysis posited by C. Greig Crysler are lucidly assimilated to generate insights into various voices within the architectural discourse in Egypt. The analysis and critique of two important professional magazines, al Imarah (1939–1959) and Alam al Bena (1980–2000) which shaped the collective psyche of both the academic and professional communities in Egypt and the wider region, coupled with the exploration of two other short-lived magazines, M imaryah (1982–1989) and Medina (1998–2002) and other less influential professional magazines, discloses the structure of attitude and reference or the exclusions and inclusions that defined the boundaries of the space of the discourse. Influence and Resistance in Post-Independence Egyptian Architecture paves the way to genuinely debate a yet-to-mature twenty-first-century architectural discourse in Egypt. This book is a key resource for architects, architectural historians and critical theorists and will appeal to academics and to both graduate and advanced undergraduate students in architectural history and theory and Middle East and Global South studies. Journeys Erased by Time: The Rediscovered Footprints of Travellers in Egypt and the Near East Neil Cooke, 2019-06-27

Early travellers in Egypt and the Near East made great contributions to our historical and geographical knowledge and gave us a better understanding of the different peoples' languages and religions of the region. Travellers in this volume are a mixture of rich and poor, bravely adventuring into the unknown, not knowing if they would ever return home. American Travelers on the Nile Andrew Oliver, 2015-01-01 The Treaty of Ghent signed in 1814 ending the War of 1812 allowed Americans once again to travel abroad. Medical students went to Paris, artists to Rome, academics to Göttingen and tourists to all European capitals. More intrepid Americans ventured to Athens, to Constantinople and even to Egypt. Beginning with two eighteenth-century travelers, this book then turns to the 25-year period after 1815 that saw young men from East Coast cities among them graduates of Harvard, Yale and Columbia traveling to the lands of the Bible and of the Greek and Latin authors they had first known as teenagers. Naval officers off ships of the Mediterranean squadron visited Cairo to see the pyramids. Two groups went on business one importing steam powered rice and cotton mills from New York the other exporting giraffes from the Kalahari Desert for wild animal shows in New York Drawing on unpublished letters and diaries together with previously neglected newspaper accounts as well as a handful of published accounts this book offers a new look at the early American experience in Egypt and the eastern Mediterranean world More than thirty illustrations complement the stories told by the travelers themselves

The Dreams Naguib Mahfouz, 2011-10-05 In his final years Egyptian Nobel Laureate Naguib Mahfouz distilled his storyteller's art to its most essential level Written with the compression and power of dreams these poetic vignettes originally collected in two books The Dreams and Dreams of Departure here combined in one volume for the first time These stories telescope epic tales into tersely haunting miniatures A man finds his neighborhood has turned into a circus but his joy turns to anger when he cannot escape it An obscure writer finally achieves fame through the epitaph on his grave A group of friends telling jokes in an alley face the murderous revenge of an ancient Egyptian queen Figures from Mahfouz's past women he loved men who inspired him even fictional characters from his own novels float through tales dreamed by a mind too fertile ever to rest even in sleep Translated by Raymond Stock
