Dear [Mr./Mrs./Ms.] [Hiring Manager's Name],

I write this letter to show my immense interest in the position of Educational Diagnostician in (Institution Name) that is recently opened for the next academic year. My educational background, skills, and 10 + experience in the field align well with your job description, and hence I would become a perfect fit for this role. Enclosed is my resume for your reference with this letter. I understand how far not only our educational background and practical experience will help the special needs students, but rather they need more compassion, and someone passionate to help them from the bottom of their hearts, and I am one such person. I have experience working with students and their family members, and I can help the students identify their needs, and I will develop an educational plan based on their strengths and weakness. Some of my accomplishments at my previous workplace include but are not limited to –

- Working as an Educational Diagnostician for the past 6 years in (institute name), and developing intervention strategies.
- Highly skilled in the process of administering and interpreting a variety of assessments.
- I have drafted and implemented thousands of IQ tests, achievement tests, and functional behavior assessments for students based on their age and performance level.
- Highly knowledgeable in all areas of special education law, and assessment.
- Skillful in developing comprehensive assessments for identifying student learning needs and developing educational plans accordingly.
- My strong interpersonal skills allow me to collaborate with teachers, administrators, and families.
- I earned the Best Teacher Award three times for my ability to create individualized education plans for disabled students.

Apart from my above-mentioned skills, and work experience, I am blessed with the ability to problem solve quickly, and I have diagnostic and assessment experience as well. I am sure that if hired I will be a positive contribution to your school, and will ensure the best service is provided to your students. I am excited at the prospect of joining a top-notch school like yours and supporting it by serving in accomplishing its mission of providing quality education to all students. I would welcome the opportunity to discuss my qualifications and how I can add value to your educational team in an interview. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
