

EDUCOLOGY OF THE FREE

Elizabeth Steiner

EDUCOLOGY OF THE FREE is the publication of the O'Connor Lectures on Education presented at Colgate University during the spring of 1979. In these lectures, through social liberalism, the conception of liberal education evolves from the cultivation of the intellects of Free Men for their enjoyment and the cultivation of the words of Slaves for their transformation of the world through revolution to the cultivation of the social intelligence of human beings for their freedom. Thus, from the thesis, educology of the oppressor, and the antithesis, educology of the oppressed, emerges the synthesis, educology of the free. Since the synthesis which is freedom-for evolves from freedom-from through knowledge, knowledge is explicated, and so the logic for the discipline of educology emerges.

Educology of the Free Elizabeth Steiner,1981-01-01 Life-Practice Educology Lan Ye,2020-03-23 In Life Practice Educology A Contemporary Chinese Theory of Education Ye Lan presents the theory of a contemporary Chinese school of Educology It consists of two main parts The first part proposes a fully formulated view on Life Practice School of Educology and expounds on current thinking in China that denies the independence of educology as a discipline The second part explains both inherited and new understandings of the Life Practice School of Educology covering Chinese traditional culture and the current debate It further refines the Chinese understanding of Education jiaoyu as teaching the knowledge of nature and society and cultivating a self consciousness towards life Intersections Across Disciplines Brad Hokanson,Marisa Exter,Amy Grincewicz,Matthew Schmidt,Andrew A. Tawfik,2020-12-15 This volume is the result of the annual Summer research symposium sponsored by the Association for Educational Communications and Technology AECT The twenty two chapters in this volume seek to examine how learning and the design of instruction is interdisciplinary and connective in terms of research and practice The book is generally divided into three areas Theory Research and Application This framework shaped the authors interactions discussions and the informal context of the symposium Writings are included on multiple levels including research and practice on learning across disciplines including instructional design and how design thinking is inherently interdisciplinary How learning is designed for general audiences or for purposely integrated educational experiences has also been examined Educational Technology Beyond Content Brad Hokanson,Gregory Clinton,Andrew A. Tawfik,Amy Grincewicz,Matthew Schmidt,2020-04-09 This book is the outcome of a research symposium sponsored by the Association for Educational Communications and Technology AECT Consisting of twenty four chapters including an introduction and conclusion it argues that informational content should not be the main element of education and that to provide more for learners it is necessary to go beyond content and address other skills and capabilities It also discusses the false premise that learning is complete when the information is known not when learners seek more their own directions answers and ideas The authors assert that the ability to synthesize solve problems and generate ideas is not based on specific content although education often focuses solely on teaching content Further they state that content can be separated from the learning process and that instructional design and educational technology must be about the skills habits and beliefs to be learned Kinesis ,1987 Philosophy of Education Philosophy of Education Society (U.S.). Meeting,1980 Motivation Science Myint Swe Khine,2024-12-06 This volume explores human machine collaboration and provides machine generated auto summaries of emerging research trends in motivation science Each chapter presents summaries of pre defined themes and includes an editor written introduction It covers various topics from classic theories such as Maslow s hierarchy of needs to cutting edge research in neuroscience and cultural influences on motivation The book offers valuable insights into what makes us tick and how to harness motivation to improve our lives The book is organized into six chapters covering interrelated topics such as the motivation science emotion based motivation educational motivation self regulated learning motivation and technology and motivation and neuroscience The auto summaries have been generated by a recursive clustering algorithm via the Dimensions Auto summarizer by Digital Science The editor of this book selected which SN content should be auto summarized and decided its order of appearance Please note that these are extractive auto summaries consisting of original sentences but are not representative of the original paper since we do not show the full length of the publication Please note that only published SN content is represented here and that machine generated books are still at an experimental stage Curriculum and Teaching ,1989 Toward a Grammar of Curriculum Practice Edmund C. Short,2023-07-01 Curriculum planning can be conceptualized in various ways and curriculum planners necessarily must adopt a particular approach in order to facilitate their thinking and decision making However the history of curriculum planning suggests that existing conceptualizations are sometimes confusing imprecise or not as helpful as they might be There is a need for a new conceptualization that overcomes the limitations of these earlier conceptions Through conceptual analysis and concept development the author presents curriculum planning as a form of educational practice distinct from other practices such as teaching administration and policy making Short s grammar of curriculum practice describes a set of key concepts and the meaningful relationships among them that define the essential elements of curriculum and of curriculum planning Toward Lawfulness in Schooling Dolores Silva,1994 This book is an examination of the relationship between program development and policy making for schooling Works about John

Mungazi,1999-05-30 A study of the clash of two traditions British liberalism and African nationalism and an examination of how Michael Blundell in Kenya and Garfield Todd in Zimbabwe used their liberal backgrounds to further the future of their adopted countries despite threats and detention Both Blundell and Todd believed that political leaders had a responsibility to serve the needs of the people as a condition of national development By the time each came to power European colonization had had a profoundly negative effect on the lives of Africans Blundell and Todd sought to correct this by putting their positive views of Africans into practice While colonial governments designed strategies for controlling Africans to serve political and economic interests at home in Europe Africans themselves established their own effective strategy not only to ensure their survival in the colonial setting but also to initiate a process for the restoration of their sense of self Michael Blundell and Garfield Todd with their liberal beliefs served as excellent allies in this period of a rising African consciousness Using sources
