Rethinking the Meaning of Place Professor Lineu Castello, 2012-11-28 The spread of newly invented places such as theme parks shopping malls and revamped historic areas necessitates a redefinition of the concept of place from an architectural perspective In this interdisciplinary work these invented places are categorized according to the different phenomenological experiences they are able to provide The book explores how such cloning spaces use placemaking and placemarketing in attempt to replicate the characteristics found in urban spaces traditionally viewed as successful and how these places can affect society's environmental perception A range of international empirical studies illustrates how such invented places can be perceived as legitimate urban spaces and contribute towards the quality of life in today's cities Feasting and Polis Institutions

Floris van den Eijnde, Josine Blok, Rolf Strootman, 2018-05-07 Feasting and commensality formed the backbone of social life in the polis the most characteristic and enduring form of political organization in the ancient Greek world Exploring a wide array of commensal practices Feasting and Polis Institutions reveals how feasts defined the religious and political institutions of the Greek citizen state Taking the reader from the Early Iron Age to the Imperial Period this volume launches an essential inquiry into Greek power relations Focusing on the myriad of patronage roles at the feast and making use of a wide variety of methodologies and primary sources including archaeology epigraphy and literature Feasting and Polis Institutions argues that in ancient Greece political interaction could never be complete until it was consummated in a festive context Health Behavior
