An introduction to Modern Arabic Literature from the beginning of the nineteenth century to the present. Egypt's Culture Wars Samia Mehrez, 2008-04

This ground-breaking work presents original research on cultural politics and battles in Egypt at the turn of the twenty-first century. It deconstructs the boundaries between high and low culture, drawing on conceptual tools in cultural studies, translation studies, and gender studies to analyze debates in the fields of literature, cinema, mass media, and the plastic arts. Anchored in the Egyptian historical and social contexts and inspired by the influential work of Pierre Bourdieu, it rigorously places these debates and battles within the larger framework of a set of questions about the relationship between the cultural and political fields in Egypt.

Bildungsroman and the Arab Novel Maria Elena Paniconi, 2022-09-30

Through a close reading of a corpus of novels featuring young protagonists in their path toward adulthood, the book shows how Bildungsroman impacted the formation of the Egyptian narrative. On a larger scale, the book helps the reader to understand the key role played by the coming-of-age novel in the definition and perception of modern Arab subjectivity. Exploring the role of Bildungsroman in shaping the canonical Egyptian novel, the book discusses the case of Zaynab by Muhammad Husayn Haykal (1913) as an example of early Arab Bildungsroman narrative. It focuses on Latifa Zayyat's masterpiece The Open Door and the novels of the 1990s Generation, offering a gender-based analysis of the Egyptian Bildungsroman. It provides insightful readings about the function of the novel in women's renegotiation of social boundaries. The study shows how the stories of youth present universal themes such as the thwarted quest for love, the struggle for personal fulfillment, the desire to achieve a cultural modernity often felt as other than self. The book is a journey in the Twentieth-Century Egyptian Novel seen through the lens of the transnational form of Bildungsroman. It is a key resource to students and academics interested in Arabic literature, comparative literature, and cultural studies.

Examining Hussein's actions against the backdrop of his complex relationship with the Egyptian state, the religious establishment, and
