guide to life on the high seas Transformational Groups Ed Stetzer, Eric Geiger, 2014 God declared through the Apostle Paul that the church would be a place of transformation In 2 Corinthians 5:17 we find Therefore if anyone is in Christ he is a new creation old things have passed away and look new things have come Despite this the church seems increasingly to be a place where transformation fails to occur Surveying the landscape however there are some bright spots where churches are faithfully producing transformed disciples Furthermore as shown in Scripture and supported by new research God designed such transformation to often happen in the context of smaller groups of people But what characteristics are true of churches that are making transformed disciples through group based ministry whether small groups missional communities Sunday school or some other expression of groups In Transformational Groups Ed Stetzer and Eric Geiger have created a new scorecard that will provide a map to transformational success for your church's groups ministry Using data from the largest survey of pastors and laypersons ever done on the condition of groups in the church they define a simple process to lead your groups from where they are to where God wants them to be Courage and Calling Gordon T. Smith, 2024-05-28 What is my calling How do I best live it out Will my vocation change In this third edition of his popular book Gordon Smith addresses these questions and more providing rich insight for all who long to courageously follow God's call This is your invitation to discover your calling by listening to God and becoming a coworker with him Congregations Carl Ellis Nelson, 1988-01-01 C Ellis Nelson has collaborated with and collected the works of ten leaders experienced in congregational affairs to design and produce a resource that helps ministers and lay leaders understand the dynamics of congregations The result is an engaging collection that will help pastors and church leaders invigorate their congregations Women of Color in U.S. Society Maxine Baca Zinn, Bonnie Thornton Dill, 1993-12-30 The theme of race class and gender as interlocking systems of oppression unites these original essays about the experience of women of color OCo African Americans Latinas Native Americans and Asian Americans The contributing scholars discuss the social conditions that simultaneously oppress women of color and provide sites for opposition Though diverse in their focus the essays uncover similar experiences in the classroom workplace family prison and other settings Working class women poor women and professional women alike experience subordination restricted participation in social institutions and structural placement in roles with limited opportunities How do women survive resist and cope with these oppressive structures Many articles tell how women of color draw upon resources from their culture family kin and community Others document defenses against cultural assaults by the dominant society OCo Native American mothers instilling tribal heritage in their children African American women engaging in community work and Asian American women opposing the patriarchy of their own communities and the stereotypes imposed by society at large These essays challenge some of our basic assumptions about society revealing that experiences of inequality are not only diverse but relational Show Me The Harmony Mark Worthington, 2023-08-03 All of us lead We lead our own lives We may lead our families friends and work colleagues Some of us lead large teams of people Whatever the form or scale leadership comes with great responsibilities for in leading we hold our own lives and the lives of others in our hands We can shape those lives and in turn shape the world for the better Isn't it therefore the responsibility of all leaders to guide the world towards a more harmonious way of living With eight billion unique souls on Earth many of us today feel disconnected from collectives where we might otherwise find acceptance and love We need leaders who are truly self aware authentic and integrated and who can help us expand and grow together through creativity and truth This ground breaking book attempts to stretch paradigms of leadership shining a light on the forgotten powers that will generate unprecedented levels of unity productivity and success in our lives Infinite possibilities greater harmony and wealth await us all Join the new chorus that is heralding a more natural way of leading Leading Together: How Brave, Honest Conversations can Transform Our Lives, Organizations, and Communities Steph Roy McCallum, 2022-11-09 In an exploration of conversations gone wrong well and sideways Leading Together examines what divides us and what brings us together Grounded in the belief that brave honest conversations are how we solve the challenges in our lives organizations and the public arena the book dives into stories of heartache humor connection and polarization Through lessons of conflict and challenge you will learn to grow your leadership and gain insights to talk together with others and solve the toughest challenges you face

Love and Politics Jeffery L. Nicholas, 2021-06-07 In Love and Politics Jeffery L. Nicholas argues that Eros is the final rejection of an alienated life in which humans are prevented from developing their human powers Eros in contrast is an overflowing of acting into new realities and new beauties a world in which human beings extend their powers and senses Nicholas uniquely interprets Alasdair MacIntyre's Revolutionary Aristotelianism as a response to alienation defined as the divorce of fact from value However this account cannot address alienation in the form of the oppression of women or people of color Importantly it fails to acknowledge the domination of nature that blackens the heart of alienated life Alienation must be seen as a separation of the human from nature Nicholas turns to Aristotle first to uncover the way his philosophy embodies a divorce of human from nature then to reconstruct the essential elements of Aristotle's metaphysics to defend a philosophical anthropology based on Eros Love and Politics Persistent Human Desires as a Foundation for Liberation presents a critical theory that synthesizes MacIntyre's Revolutionary Aristotelianism Frankfurt School Critical Theory and Social Reproduction Theory It will be of great interest to political theorists and philosophers The Equipping Church Sue Mallory, 2009-08-30 Picture your church as a place where the priesthood of believers finds its expression in creative and powerful ways Picture leaders and staff equipping and unleashing people to minister in ways consistent with how God designed them Think of the effectiveness vitality and contentment that come when the body of Christ nurtures itself through the healthy give and take of each member In The Equipping Church Sue Mallory describes the benefits the structure and the culture of an equipping church and shows how your congregation can become one This book is about limitless possibilities Think vision What might your church look like if its members became vital fully empowered partners in ministry How can you help them discover and release their full potential How would their roles change and yours AN EQUIPPING CHURCH IS A CHURCH WHERE pastors and leaders enable church members to share in ministry people s gifts talents and life callings are matched with areas of service ministry opportunities are recognized and developed the culture encourages the growth of a broad array of ministries a well designed system addresses needs of every kind both individual and corporate the pastor doesn t have to be all things to all people Unpacking insights and principles uncovered by Leadership Training Network over the last several years Mallory helps you customize an equipping system and culture in your church You ll proceed from preparation what you need to know to foundations what you need to change to construction what you need to do In the process Mallory takes you inside the story of her own church Brentwood Presbyterian to observe the different stages of their trial and error journey and how it has transformed their approach to doing church See how they dealt with various concerns that arose along the way and meet men and women whose lives have been changed because Brentwood took the ministry road less traveled Each chapter includes a section of Equipping Principles questions for discussion and reflection and a summary of different equipping churches from around the country With the accompanying Equipping Church Guidebook this book will be a mile marker in your church and the gateway to a more effective and biblical approach to ministry

The Gospel of Inclusion, Revised Edition Brandan J. Robertson, 2021-12-08 One of the most fiercely debated topics in modern Christianity centers on the inclusion of sexual and gender minorities into the full life of the church Dozens of scholars have stepped forward seeking to make a compelling case for LGBT inclusion based on their contextualized reading of the six traditional passages that refer to homosexuality in Scripture But these arguments alone fall short of providing a comprehensive framework for radical inclusion of LGBT people In The Gospel of Inclusion pastor and public theologian Brandan Robertson offers a compelling assessment of the biblical texts cultural context and modern social movements to suggest that the entire thrust of the Christian gospel calls the church towards the deconstruction of all oppressive systems and structures and towards the creation of a world that celebrates the full spectrum of human diversity as a reflection of God's creative intention
