Citizen Media and Public Spaces Mona Baker, Bolette B. Blaagaard, 2016-06-10 Citizen Media and Public Spaces presents a pioneering exploration of citizen media as a highly interdisciplinary domain that raises vital political social and ethical issues relating to conceptions of citizenship and state boundaries the construction of publics and social imaginaries processes of co-optation and reverse co-optation power and resistance the ethics of witnessing and solidarity and novel responses to the democratic deficit Framed by a substantial introduction by the editors the twelve contributions to the volume interrogate the concept of citizen media theoretically and empirically and offer detailed case studies that extend from the UK to Russia and Bulgaria and from China to Denmark and the liminal spaces within which a growing number of refugees now live A rich new domain of scholarship and practice emerges out of the studies presented Citizen media is shown to embrace both physical and digital interventions in public space as well as the sets of values and agendas that influence and drive the practices and discourses through which individuals and collectives position themselves within and in relation to society and participate in the creation of diverse publics This book will be of interest to students and researchers in media and communication studies particularly those studying citizen media media and society journalism and society and political communication Cover image courtesy of Ruben Hamelink China's Influence and the Center-periphery Tug of War in Hong Kong, Taiwan and Indo-Pacific Brian C. H. Fong, Jieh-min Wu, Andrew J. Nathan, 2020-12-30 Bringing together a team of cutting edge researchers based in Hong Kong Taiwan and Indo Pacific countries this book focuses on the tug of war between China's influence and forces of resistance in Hong Kong Taiwan and selected countries in its surrounding jurisdictions China's influence has met growing defiance from citizens in Hong Kong and Taiwan who fear the extinction of their valued local identities However the book shows that resistance to China's influence is a global phenomenon varying in motivation and intensity from region to region and country to country depending on the forms of China's influence and the balances of forces in each society The book also advances a concentric center periphery framework for comparing different forms of extra jurisdictional Chinese influence mechanisms ranging from economic military and diplomatic influences to united front operations This book will be of key interest to scholars and students of comparative politics international relations geopolitics Chinese politics Hong Kong China relations Taiwan and Asian politics The Law Workbook Scott Beattie, 2010 This book lays the groundwork for you to become a capable legal researcher whether you aim to work as a lawyer in legal policy or in an ancillary legal role Through active learning exercises and reflective journaling you will not only learn how to research but also be able to understand your own strengths and weaknesses to develop as a legal professional Reading this book will not automatically transform you into a researcher just as reading a cookbook will not make you into a chef instantly and reading a woodworking manual will not turn you into a carpenter You learn by doing and this manual is a tool to help you get your hands dirty This edition a successor to Legal and Justice Studies Workbook has been largely rewritten from the ground up as a response to the changing nature of research and university learning in the ten years since the first edition While some of the sub sections remain the same the overall approach has been altered to focus on reflective learning and on the nature of information We are in an exciting time for researchers as the internet has entirely reshaped the research field and continues to do so To keep up with these developments we need to ask serious questions about what information is how we evaluate it and how we apply it in the construction of research projects Communication Rights in Africa Tendai Chari, Ufuoma Akpojivi, 2023-09-01 This ground breaking volume examines enduring and emerging discourses around communication rights in Africa arguing that they should be considered an integral component of the human rights discourse in Africa Drawing on a broad range of case studies across the continent the volume considers what constitutes communication rights in Africa who should protect them against whom and how communication rights relate to broader human rights While the case studies highlight the variation in communicative rights experiences between countries they also coalesce around common tropes and practices for the implementation and expression of communication rights Deploying a variety of innovative theoretical and methodological approaches the chapters scrutinise different facets of communication rights in the context of both offline and digital communication realities The contributions provide illuminating accounts on language rights digital exclusion digital activism citizen journalism media regulation and censorship protection of intellectual property rights politics of mobile data and politicisation of social media This is the first collection to consider communication in Africa using a rights based lens The book will appeal to researchers academics communication activists and media practitioners at all levels in the fields of media studies journalism human rights political science public policy as well as general readers who are keen to know about the status of communication rights in Africa      Mapping Queerness in Times of Uncertainty Arnaud Kurze, Sarah

Sturken, Steve Thwe, 2024-11-26 This book offers a new critical perspective on emerging and alternative spaces for emancipation within lesbian gay bisexual transgender and queer LGBTQ communities It considers these across various geographic regions and in times of social political and ecological uncertainty and change The work delves into complex often invisible spaces where queer communities navigate social political and ecological upheavals Through a blend of critical theory digital mapping and rich case studies from regions like the Middle East North Africa Singapore Poland and Russia the authors illuminate the intersecting challenges of neocolonial legacies religious conservatism and political repression A must read for scholars and advocates involved with human rights and LGBTQ organisations this book provides a nuanced interdisciplinary perspective on the evolving landscapes of queer emancipation and resistance As such it will appeal to scholars and students of queer studies political sociology social inequality international relations global studies international justice development studies and the digital humanities      Chinese Diaspora Politics in Australia Abigail Young, 2025-04-21

Integrating theory on diaspora politics and the growing academic area of non state transnational repression Young charts the historical and political evolution of the Chinese diaspora and examines Australia s approach to national security policies In recent decades Chinese migration has increased exponentially in Australia For a society that has largely accepted racial homogeneity as a precursor to nationhood contemporary Chinese migrants must find unique transnational spaces where they can belong in the hostland while maintaining important connections to the homeland Young identifies the emergence of transnational social governance a form of control that is perpetrated by the contemporary patriotic Chinese migrant the xinqiao against other Chinese migrants in Australia It is a phenomenon facilitated by a feedback loop of the non welcoming Australian society and well established co ethnic spaces allowing for xinqiao to dominate Chinese diasporic communities and transfer Chinese Communist Party CCP aligned narratives Drawing upon statistical data and interview based case studies this book provides a comprehensive contextual and epistemological examination of the politics of the Chinese diaspora in Australia A valuable resource for scholars students researchers and professionals interested in the academic and popular perspectives of diaspora politics affecting Australia China relations      Defending Creative Voices Soraide,
