Community Tourism Development 3rd Edition:

Strategic Management in Tourism, 3rd Edition. CABI Tourism Texts Luiz Moutinho, Alfonso Vargas-Sanchez, 2018-02-26

This comprehensive textbook has at its core the importance of linking strategic thinking with action in the management of tourism. It provides an analytical evaluation of the most important global trends as well as an analysis of the impact of crucial environmental issues and their implications. Now in its third edition and reviewing the major factors affecting international tourism management, this well-established student resource provides an essential overview of strategic management for students and professionals in the tourism sector.

Community-Based Tourism in the Developing World Peter Wiltshier, Alan Clarke, 2019-10-16 This book analyses community-based approaches to developing and regenerating tourism destinations in the developing world, addressing this central issue in sustainable tourism practices. It reviews a variety of systems useful for analysing and understanding management issues to offer new insight into the skills and resources that are needed for implementation, ongoing monitoring and review of community-based tourism. Adopting a multidisciplinary approach, this book explores alternatives to the dominant interpretation which argues against tourism as a benefit for community development. International case studies throughout the book illustrate and vouch for tourism as a transformative force while clarifying the need to manage expectations in sustainable tourism for community development, rejuvenation and regeneration. Emphasis is placed on accruing relevant decision support material and creating services, products and management approaches that will endure and adapt as change necessitates. This will be of great interest to upper-level students, researchers and academics in the fields of tourism, impacts, sustainability, ethics and development, as well as the broader field of geography.

Community Tourism Development Cynthia C. Messer, 2010 The Routledge Handbook of Community Based Tourism Management Sandeep Kumar Walia, 2020-12-21 This Handbook offers an up-to-date and comprehensive overview of core themes and concepts in community-based tourism management. Providing interdisciplinary insights from leading international scholars, this is the first book to critically examine the current status of community-based tourism. Organised into five parts, the Handbook provides cutting-edge perspectives on issues such as Indigenous communities, tourism and the environment, sustainability and the impact of digital communities. Part 1 introduces core concepts and methodologies and distinguishes community products from other tourism and hospitality goods. Part 2 explores communities' attitudes towards tourism development and their engagement with and ownership of the process. It also delves into the role of community-based tourism under the influence of governmental policies in the economic and social development of a region. In Part 3, various management, marketing and branding initiatives are identified as a means of expanding the tourism business. Part 4 examines the negative impacts of mass tourism and its threats to culture, tradition, identity, the built environment and natural heritage. In the final and fifth part, future challenges and opportunities for community-based tourism initiatives are considered and research-based sustainable solutions are proposed. Overall, the book considers engaging local populations in tourism development as a way of building stronger and more resilient communities This Handbook fills a void in the current research and thus will appeal to scholars students and practitioners interested in tourism management tourism geography business studies development policy and practice regional development conservation and sustainability

Sustainable Tourism Policy and Planning in Africa Emmanuel Akwasi Adu-Ampong, Albert Nsom Kimbu, 2020-12-17 Sustainable Tourism Policy and Planning in Africa offers an accessible and understandable overview of the challenges of integrating sustainability into tourism policy and planning in Sub Saharan Africa and provides some interesting recommendations on how these could be overcome Tourism is currently growing faster in Sub Saharan Africa SSA and in many other developing regions compared to the rest of the world Using case examples from different segments of the tourism sector in different country contexts this volume therefore reassesses context specific tourism policies and planning mechanisms in SSA over the years It considers how the increasing focus on sustainability is reflected in different areas of the tourism sector including food security the human capacity management service delivery local communities and heritage management climate change and the influence of colonial legacies on tourism policy planning

For many SSA countries it has only been in the last two decades that the development of sustainable and achievable context specific policies and planning mechanisms has become the norm. The chapters provide examples of how different dimensions of sustainability are integrated into tourism policy and practice and examine the extent to which these are shaping the present and their implications for the future sustainability of the tourism sector. Sustainable Tourism Policy and Planning in Africa will be of great value to academics, private and third sector employees to better understand tourism in Sub-Saharan Africa. Eight of the chapters were originally published as a special issue of Tourism Planning and Development. These are now complimented with a new introductory chapter and a concluding chapter that sets out a future research agenda for sustainable tourism policy and planning.
