Afro-Asian Connections in Latin America and the Caribbean Debbie Lee-DiStefano, Luisa Marcela Ossa, 2018-11-27 Afro Asian Connections in Latin America and the Caribbean explores the connections between people of Asian and African descent in Latin America and the Caribbean Although their journeys started from different points of origin spanning two separate oceans their point of contact in this hemisphere brought them together under a hegemonic system that would treat these seemingly disparate continental ancestries as one Historically an overwhelming majority of people of African and Asian descent were brought to the Americas as sources of labor to uphold the plantation agrarian economies leading to complex relationships and interactions The contributions to this collection examine various aspects of these connections The authors bring to the forefront perspectives regarding history literature art and religion and engage how they are manifested in these Afro Asian relationships and interactions They investigate what has received little academic engagement outside the acknowledgement that there are groups who are of African and Asian descent In regard to their relationships with the dominant Europeanized center references to both groups typically only view them as singular entities What this interdisciplinary collection presents is a more cohesive approach that strives to place them at the center together and view their relationships in their historical contexts Latin America and the Transports of Opera Roberto Ignacio Díaz, 2024-01-15 Latin America and the Transports of Opera studies a series of episodes in the historical and textual convergence of a hallowed art form and a part of the world often regarded as peripheral Perhaps unexpectedly the archives of opera generate new arguments about several issues at the heart of the established discussion about Latin America the allure of European cultural models the ambivalence of exoticism the claims of nationalism and cosmopolitanism and ultimately the place of the region in the global circulation of the arts Opera's transports concern literal and imagined journeys as well as the emotions that its stories and sounds trigger as they travel back and forth between Europe the United States too and Latin America Focusing mostly on librettos and other literary forms this book analyzes Calderón de la Barca's baroque play on the myth of Venus and Adonis set to music by a Spanish composer at Lima's viceregal court Alejo Carpentier's neobaroque novella on Vivaldi's opera about Moctezuma the entanglements of opera with class gender and ethnicity throughout Cuban history music dramas about enslaved persons by Carlos Gomes and Hans Werner Henze staged in Rio de Janeiro and Copenhagen the uses of Latin American poetry and magical realism in works by John Adams and Daniel Catán and a novel by Manuel Mujica Lainez set in Buenos Aires's Teatro Colón plus a chamber opera about Victoria Ocampo with a libretto by Beatriz Sarlo Close readings of these texts underscore the import and meanings of opera in Latin American cultural history

The Chinese Trace in Cuban Literature Rogelio Rodríguez Coronel, 2024-10-30 A Chinese proverb that reminds us of this book reads The strongest and most luxuriant tree lives from what it has underneath Thus Cuban culture has nourishing sources that must be fully known in order to enjoy and understand what we are Generally the analyses of the nation's profile pay attention to the Hispanic and African components and the important role of the Chinese channel in our culture is often overlooked The Chinese Trace in Cuban Literature is without a doubt the most notable effort so far to reveal this trace in our literature from the 19th century to today and in different literary genres and discursive types as its author maintains From the creation of novel characters designed within a reproductive realism the assumption of signs typical of Chinese culture and thought for the shaping of the text the treatment of historical issues either in the evolutionary outline of a lineage or in the investigation of significant events the incursion into this problem from generic modalities or literary renovation proposals to the aesthetic feat of the transcoding of forms and meanings from Chinese to our language and culture

Neo, post, hiper, trans, ¿fin? ,2008 The Contemporary Spanish-American Novel Will H. Corral,Juan E. De Castro,Nicholas Birns,2013-09-26 The Contemporary Spanish American Novel provides an accessible introduction to an important World literature While many of the authors covered Aira Bola o Castellanos Moya V squez are gaining an increasing readership in English and are frequently taught there is sparse criticism in English beyond book reviews This book provides the guidance necessary for a more sophisticated and contextualized understanding of these authors and their works Underestimated or unfamiliar Spanish American novels and novelists are introduced through conceptually rigorous essays Sections on each writer include the author's reception in their native country Spanish America and Spain biographical history a critical examination of their work including key themes and conceptual concerns translation history scholarly reception The Contemporary Spanish American Novel offers an authoritative guide to a rich and varied novelistic tradition It covers all demographic areas including United States Latino authors in exploring the diversity of this literature and its major themes such as exile migration and gender representation Encyclopedia of Latino Culture Charles M. Tatum, 2013-11-26 This three volume encyclopedia describes and explains the variety and commonalities in Latina o culture providing comprehensive coverage of a variety of Latina o cultural forms popular culture folk culture rites of passages and many other forms of shared expression In the last decade the Latina o population has established itself as the fastest growing ethnic group within the United States and constitutes one of the largest minority groups in the nation While the different Latina o groups do have cultural commonalities there are also many differences among them This important work examines the historical regional and ethnic racial diversity within specific traditions in rich detail providing an accurate and comprehensive treatment of what constitutes the Latino experience in America The entries in this three volume set provide accessible in depth information on a wide range of topics covering cultural traditions including food art film music and literature secular and religious celebrations and religious beliefs and practices Readers will gain an appreciation for the historical regional and ethnic racial diversity within specific Latina o traditions Accompanying sidebars and spotlight biographies serve to highlight specific cultural differences and key individuals Bulletin of Latin American Research ,2003

La memoria hechizada Madeline Cámara, 2003 Esta obra que presentamos muestra el cuarto propio de la creación de una serie de escritoras pertenecientes a las letras cubanas Doce narraciones escritas desde el terreno de la libre imaginación y de la memoria creativa que nos trasmite la construcción de este espacio propio que la mujer habilita para su relación con la realidad El lugar físico donde se escribe esta literatura puede coincidir a veces con espacios marcados por el exilio político los viajes las estancias temporales en el extranjero y las islas dentro de la Isla Cuba La selección abarca un período de más de un siglo por lo que el concepto de pertenencia a un lugar obviamente cambia a lo largo de los años Las autoras aparecen cronológicamente La Condesa de Merlán 1789 Gertrudis Gómez de Avellaneda 1814 Dulce María Loynaz 1902 Lydia Cabrera 1899 Nivaira Tejera 1930 Julieta Campos 1932 Mireya Robles 1934 María Elena Llana 1936 Mayra Montero 1952 Dána Chaviano 1957 Zoe Valdés 1959 y Yanitizia Canetti 1967 Madeline Cámara es doctora en Filosofía por State University of New York y licenciada en Literatura española por la Universidad de La Habana Su área de investigación comprende los estudios de ámbito latinoamericano en especial el Caribe East Asia, Latin America, and the Decolonization of Transpacific Studies Chiara Olivieri, Jordi Serrano-Muñoz, 2022-01-03 In this collective work researchers from different disciplines reflect upon the challenges and opportunities of decolonizing transpacific studies through the lens of a few paradigmatic case studies that deal with connections between East Asia and Latin America The present book offers a productive problematization of the idea of the transpacific as a concept and a space that is not restricted to a single definition We defend that the transpacific can instead promote an understanding of agents and experiences that share many common traits that have been generally overlooked by a hegemonic interpretation of knowledge and the relationship between regions By fostering an environment that not only accepts a plurality of views but that actively looks to accommodate analogous tangential and even contradicting approaches to the study of our ideas we seek a double objective First we hope to highlight precisely the richness within the idea of the transpacific avoiding sticking to any particular conception to it while at the same time acknowledging and owning each of our points of enunciation Our second objective is part of a constant struggle in the quest towards social and epistemic justice By adopting this stance of plurality we can fight against structures of knowledge production and reproduction that willingly or unintentionally instill specific interpretations in ways that inculcate exclusivity The goal of this book is opening up and expanding the debate regarding transpacific connections examining the limits and promises of including these experiences within the conceptual paradigm of the Global South and showcasing different ways of approaching decolonial research to the study of the relationship between East Asia and Latin America
