Competition Law in the CARICOM Single Market and Economy Alina Kaczorowska-Ireland, 2014-09-15 Competition Law in the CARICOM Single Market and Economy provides a comprehensive introduction to and overview of this emerging area of law discussing both the current context and potential directions for future development The book provides an account of major topics in the law including the economics of competition law enterprise enforcement regulation and obligations of member states It traces the progression of the law from the 2006 Revised Treaty of Chaguaramas charting the main developments such as the establishment of CARICOM Competition Commission CCC and examining the emerging case law in this important and fast growing area Offering the first major exploration of Caribbean Competition law this text will be an essential resource for lawyers businesspersons and students of the law in the Caribbean The Regionalisation of Competition Law and Policy within the ASEAN Economic Community Burton Ong, 2018-03-01 This edited volume of essays examines a wide range of issues related to the regionalisation of competition policy in South East Asia where the ten member states of ASEAN have launched the ASEAN Economic Community AEC Written by a diverse group of academics practitioners and policy makers this book explore issues such as the role of competition policy in facilitating the market integration ambitions of the ASEAN member states the challenges arising from divergences in the national competition law regimes of the ASEAN member states and the absence of a supranational legal framework and the future of competition policy in light of the AEC Blueprint 2025 Given the nexus between regional competition policy and regional market integration this book will be of particular interest to lawyers economists and policymakers working in the fields of competition law and regional trade law The International Dimension of EU Competition Law and Policy Anestis S.

Papadopoulos, 2010-10-28 Modern competition law was first employed by countries over one hundred years ago in order to address issues relating to restrictions of trade at the national level Recent international economic integration has weakened the distinction between the domestic and the international in several fields of economic activity and consequently the laws which regulate such activity competition law included Several attempts to address the paradox of adopting national competition rules to address international issues have been made at the international regional and lately bilateral levels This book discusses the international dimension of EU competition law and examines the position taken by the EU in four distinct categories of international agreements which are devoted to competition or include competition provisions In particular it analyses the EU s position with regard to bilateral enforcement cooperation agreements bilateral free trade agreements plurilateral regional agreements and the long negotiations for the adoption of a multilateral competition regime Trade Policy Review ,2017

Complexity of Free Trade Agreements Khatina Nawawi (Wan.), 2010 Eastern Caribbean Currency Union, Selected Issues ,2005 West Indian Law Journal ,2005 Symposium ,2008 Caribbean Dateline ,2004 International Investment Agreements United Nations Conference on Trade and Development, 2004 This is part of a three set volume bringing together the series of papers published by UNCTAD on key issues in international investment agreements. The series seeks to help developing countries to participate as effectively as possible in international investment rule making at the bilateral regional plurilateral and multilateral levels. Each chapter deals with a specific issue. Almost all chapters address a standard set of questions for example: How is the concept issue in question defined? What are its connections with other key issues? At the same time consideration is given to the fact that it is up to States to decide which path to pursue, which framework to use and which policy to follow.

Regional Trade Agreements and the WTO Legal System Lorand Bartels, Federico Ortino, 2006. Regional Trade Agreements and the WTO Legal System introduces the economic, political underpinnings of regional trade agreements, their constitutional functions, their role as a locus for integrating trade, human rights.

Pacific Regional Order Dave Peebles, 2005. New policies are needed if the Pacific is to realise its potential as a peaceful, prosperous region where the Pacific's citizens enjoy good standards of health and education, long lives and many opportunities where Pacific economic growth is constantly improving, driven by environmentally sustainable service industries where coups, civil conflict and the dangers of failed states have been relegated to the past where the Pacific is integrated into the wider region and is an influential voice in world affairs. This timely book argues that Pacific countries including Australia need to embrace regional integration to realise this vision. The book sets out a comprehensive plan for realising a Pacific regional community dedicated to promoting sustainable development, security, human rights, the rule of law and democracy.
