Rebecca Martin, 2017-05-19 The proem to Herodotus s history of the Greek Persian wars relates the long standing conflict between Europe and Asia from the points of view of the Greeks chief antagonists the Persians and Phoenicians However humorous or fantastical these accounts may be their stories as voiced by a Greek reveal a great deal about the perceived differences between Greeks and others The conflict is framed in political not absolute terms correlative to historical events not in terms of innate qualities of the participants Becky Martin reconsiders works of art produced by or thought to be produced by Greeks and Phoenicians during the first millennium B C when they were in prolonged contact with one another Although primordial narratives that emphasize an essential quality of Greek and Phoenician identities have been critiqued for decades Martin contends that the study of ancient history has not yet effectively challenged the idea of the inevitability of the political and cultural triumph of Greece She aims to show how the methods used to study ancient history shape perceptions of it and argues that art is especially positioned to revise conventional accountings of the history of Greek Phoenician interaction Examining Athenian and Tyrian coins kouros statues and wall mosaics as well as the familiar Alexander Sarcophagus and the sculpture known as the Slipper Slapper Martin questions what constituted Greek and Phoenician art and by extension Greek and Phoenician identity Cosmic Anatomy and the Structure of the Ego William Stainton Moses, 1921 Contact

Ethics in Contact Rhetoric Jon Radwan,Dale Cyphert,Ellen W. Gorsevski,Omar Swartz,2024-12-15 Ethics in Contact Rhetoric re orients communication theory by centering touch and de centering symbolic acts Inspired by MLK s tradition of nonviolent power a contact orientation highlights the incarnate and immediate ground of communication ethics Ethical interactions are defined as bio relational dances arcing steps of nurture respect justice and too often violence Centering humanity s physical mutuality is a vital move today Communication is a thoroughly interactive art but the West s ancient instrumental tradition of rhetoric and its accompanying utilitarian ethic valorize individual agency over joint action This book re balances rhetorical theory by enabling critique of embodied relational patterns Special emphasis is placed on engaging material injustice and discerning the role of rhetoric in social transformation Critical case studies demonstrate contact rhetoric s rich heuristic and diverse applications

Unmaking Contact Royona Mitra,2025-03-05 Unmaking Contact interrogates contact understood in Global North dance discourse as a shorthand for the movement discipline of contact improvisation CI and its characteristic shifting points of weight sharing between two or more bodies through physical touch by attending to power asymmetries that are foundational to this practice By placing South Asian aesthetics bodies discourses and philosophies on touch at the heart of its interrogation through the lenses of caste ecology faith gender and sexuality author Royona Mitra argues for an intersectional intercultural and inter epistemic understanding of contact that may or may not involve touch The book shifts and expands understandings of contact in dance making through intercultural epistemologies that examine notions of touch and contact In this book the term contact signals both a shorthand for CI and a shift away from it to more expansive choreographic considerations It becomes an apparatus for dismantling power regimes it is conjured as a catalyst to examine power in social relations it appears as a fulcrum of ecological relationality it arises as critical encounters full of generative and transformative potential and finally it manifests as community

Waiting for Contact Lawrence Squeri, 2016-08-31 A cogent engaging history of humanity's most ambitious quest seeking outward for other minds David Brin author of Existence A fascinating perspective on humankind's obsession for knowing if there is anyone else out there Gerrit L Verschuur author of The Invisible Universe The Story of Radio Astronomy Squeri has written what will likely be the definitive history of the early days of SETI that includes profiles of some of its leading characters Ben Zuckerman coeditor of Extraterrestrials Where Are They An insightful history that explores the scientific foundations of the modern day search for our place in the cosmos Waiting for Contact delivers unparalleled access to the inner history of SETI and invites us to ride along on the journey to answer one of science's ultimate questions Are we alone Douglas Vakoch president METI International Waiting for Contact is a balanced account telling the tale of the search for extraterrestrial intelligence without the overpromise usually trumpeted by enthusiastic proponents and the hyperventilation so commonly added by UFO enthusiasts If you are simply interested in the history unvarnished by an agenda you'll enjoy this book Don Lincoln author of Alien Universe Extraterrestrial Life in Our Minds and in the Cosmos Imagine a network of extraterrestrials in radio contact with each other across the universe superior beings who hail from advanced civilizations quadrillions of miles away just waiting for Earth to tune in Some people believe it's only a matter of time before we discover the right station Waiting for Contact tells the story of the Search for Extraterrestrial Intelligence SETI movement which emerged in 1959 as astronomers began using radio telescopes to listen for messages from space New technological developments turned what once was speculation into science Boosted by support from Frank Drake Philip Morrison Carl Sagan and the genre of science fiction the SETI movement gained followers and continues to capture imaginations today In this one of a kind history Lawrence Squeri looks at the people reasons goals and mindsets behind SETI He shows how it started as an expression of the times a way out of Cold War angst with hope for a better world SETI's early advocates thought that with guidance from technically and ethically advanced outsiders humanity might learn how to avoid horrors like nuclear annihilation and societal collapse from overpopulation Some hoped that good news from outer space might reveal a cure for cancer or even the secret of immortality Squeri also describes the challenges SETI has faced over the years the struggle to be taken seriously by the scientific community and by NASA competition for access to radio telescopes perpetual lack of funding and opposition from influential politicians He covers the rise and fall of Soviet SETI and the few rare meetings between Soviet and American astronomers Despite many setbacks the movement pressed forward with the aid of private donations and developed outreach programs. Volunteers can now help search for new civilizations on their personal computers by joining the SETI Home project. Today SETI researchers continue to see themselves as explorers. They often identify with Columbus and just as Columbus never realized the full implications of his discovery, we cannot predict what will happen if contact is made. This book points out that if, against all expectations, the embattled SETI movement finally succeeds, the long-awaited first signal picked up by its radio antennas will usher the greatest shift in human history. A new adventure will begin. Lawrence Squeri is professor emeritus of history at East Stroudsburg University.

Key Concepts in the Study of Religions in Contact Knut Martin Stünkel, 2024-12-19 There is no religion lest there are two religions. Therefore, it is only possible to examine the history of religions by taking the crucial situations of contact into account. Contact needs concepts. Not only scholars but also participants in situations of contact are forced to conceptualize themselves and the other. Taking its point of departure from the contact-based approach to the study of religion, the present volume examines and reassesses a selection of concepts and models: attraction dynamics and stability, tradition, transcendence, immanence, senses, secret space, used to come to terms with the phenomenon of contact as the dynamizing element of the history of religions.

Extraterrestrials and the American Zeitgeist Aaron John Gulyas, 2013-05-11 Since the 1950s, men and women around the world have claimed to have had contact with human-like visitors from space. This book explores how the contactee subculture has critiqued political, social, and cultural trends in the United States, Europe, and elsewhere. Not merely quaint relics of the 1950s Atomic Age, contactees have continued their messages of transformation into the 21st century. Regardless of whether these alleged contacts took the form of physical meetings or channeled paranormal/psychic communications, or whether they actually happened at all, contactees have provided a consistently relevant source of commentary on this world and beyond.

Alien Dawn: An Investigation into the Contact Experience Colin Wilson, 2012-02-29 Alien Dawn is the most comprehensive bird's-eye view of the subject ever undertaken, and the conclusions Wilson draws are of overwhelming significance to us all. Here Wilson describes what he found as he set out to piece together this vast complex jigsaw puzzle, whose components include poltergeists, lake monsters, ancient folklore, time slips, out-of-body experiences, mystical awareness, and psychic travel to other worlds, as well as allegations of worldwide government cover-ups.

Space Travelers and the Genesis of the Human Form Joan D'Arc, 2000 Can Darwinian evolution actually prove that we are alone in the Universe? This book illustrates that Darwinian evolution is not an empirically predictable or testable scientific paradigm. Also, it shows that ancient artifacts on Mars and the Moon are evidence of Game Wardens in our own solar system. Could the Earth be a controlled DNA repository for the ongoing creation and dissemination of life forms, including humans? The author puts forth compelling evidence in this well-researched work.

Suter, 2005 Art objects and pictures of the first millennium BC Chr From the Middle East and the Eastern Mediterranean are viewed here from a perspective that sees art as a symbolic data carrier Art conveys culturally shaped statements and thereby allows conclusions to be drawn about the culture world view and religion of a people In this book it is examined in its triple function as an artifact visual medium and reflection of cultural ideas
