The Humanities Pandemic Margaret Topping, 2023-07-25 This book explores how the Humanities can play an essential services role in addressing global challenges such as the Covid pandemic In arguing for their contribution alongside that of the Health Sciences it calls for a new critical engagement honest and self reflective from Humanities scholars with the question of how to overcome a fundamental challenge facing universities globally finding a common language and set of cultural assumptions between disciplines as the basis for communication The book looks at the nature of the challenges that can beset collaboration across disciplines and indeed across sectors notably between researchers and the general public and argues for a new Translational Humanities in both the sense of an applied Humanities and a Humanities that can translate itself across disciplines and sectors Crucially too it suggests that it is not narratives such as a pandemic novel or contagion film that successfully engage with contentious debates about the challenges of Covid but rather critically distant texts and thematic contexts that typically place the self in the position of other like travel narratives This book sits at a previously unconsidered intersection between debates around interdisciplinary collaboration and communication theories of intercultural contact and encounter and the role of the Humanities in tackling global issues

Business Ethics Through Movies Wanda Teays, 2015-06-15 Business Ethics Through Movies A Case Study Approach examines a wide range of ethical dilemmas principles and moral reasoning that arise in contemporary business through a series of popular films and real world case studies Engages readers in learning about ethical theory by using movies and both national and international case studies in business as the vehicle for analysis and reflection Facilitates comprehension of ethical issues by showing how characters in films confront issues make choices and face the consequences Draws from a variety of actual cases in Business Ethics from the 1982 Tylenol poisoning and the 1989 Exxon Valdez disaster to recent examples such as the Foster Farms salmonella outbreak and the chemical spill in West Virginia Reveals the important role that ethics plays in setting the moral foundation of a business or corporation Develops critical thinking skills through applying analytical checklists to ethical dilemmas raised in films and in actual cases in Business Ethics

Mimetic Theory and Film Paolo Diego Bubbio, Chris Fleming, 2019-02-21 The interdisciplinary French American thinker Ren Girard 1923 2015 has been one of the towering figures of the humanities in the last half century The title of Ren Girard s first book offered his own thesis in summary form romantic lie and novelistic truth mensonge romantique et v rit romanesque And yet for a thinker whose career began by an engagement with literature it came as a shock to some that in La Conversion de l art Girard asserted that the novel may be an outmoded form for revealing humans to themselves However Girard never specified what if anything might take the place of the novel This collection of essays is one attempt at answering this question by offering a series of analyses of films that aims to test mimetic theory in an area in which relatively little has so far been offered Does it make any sense to talk of v rit filmique In addition Mimetic Theory and Film is a response to the widespread objection that there is no viable Girardian aesthetics One of the main questions that this collection considers is can we develop a genre specific mimetic analysis of film and are we able to develop anything approaching a Girardian aesthetic Each of the contributors addresses these questions through the analysis of a film     The Cinema of Steven Soderbergh Andrew deWaard,R. Colin Tait,2013-04-30 La 4e de couv indique The industry s only director cinematographer screenwriter producer actor editor Steven Soderbergh is contemporary Hollywood s most innovative and prolific filmmaker A Palme d or and Academy Award winner he has directed nearly thirty films including political provocations digital experiments esoteric documentaries and global blockbusters as well as atypical genre films This volume considers its slippery subject from a variety of perspectives analysing Soderbergh as an expressive auteur of art cinema as well as genre fare a politically motivated guerrilla filmmaker and Hollywood insider Preoccupied with the detective s role to investigate truth as well as the criminal s alternative value system his films tackle social justice in a corporate world Soderbergh s career demonstrates the richness of contemporary American cinema this volume gives his complex oeuvre the in depth critical analysis it deserves     The Sexual Subject Mandy Merck,2013-11-05 The Sexual Subject brings together writing on sexuality which has appeared in Screen over the past two decades It reflects the journal s continuing engagement with questions of sexuality and signification in the cinema an engagement which has had a profound influence on the development of the academic study of film and on alternative film and video practice The collection opens with Laura Mulvey s classic Visual Pleasure and Narrative Cinema with its conjunction of semiotics and psychoanalysis the critical approach which is most closely associated with Screen s rise to international prominence The reader then goes on to explore the particular questions and debates which that conjunction provoked arguments around pornography and the representation of the body questions of the representation of femininity and masculinity of the female spectator and of the social subject Many of the writings in this Reader have become indispensable texts within the study of film The purpose of the Reader is not only to make the articles available to a wider readership and to a new generation but also to pose new conjunctions making connections in one volume between debates and inquiries which spanned two crucial decades of film theory The Sexual Subject is intended not only for all those with a particular interest in film and film theory but for anyone with a serious commitment to cultural theory theories of representation and questions of sexuality and gender     The Universal Adversary Mark Neocleous,2016-02-12 The history of bourgeois modernity is a history of the Enemy This book is a radical exploration of an Enemy that has recently emerged from within security documents released by the US security state the Universal Adversary The Universal Adversary is now central to emergency planning in general and more specifically to security preparations for future attacks But an attack from who or what This book the first to appear on the topic shows how the concept of the Universal Adversary draws on several key figures in the history of ideas said to pose a threat to state power and capital accumulation Within the Universal Adversary there lies the problem not just of the terrorist but more generally of the subversive and what the emergency planning documents refer to as the disgruntled worker This reference reveals the conjoined power of the contemporary mobilisation of security and the defence of capital But it also reveals much more Taking the figure of the disgruntled worker as its starting point the book introduces some of this worker's close cousins figures often regarded not simply as a threat to security and capital but as nothing less than the Enemy of all Mankind the Zombie the Devil and the Pirate In situating these figures of enmity within debates about security and capital the book engages an extraordinary variety of issues that now comprise a contemporary politics of security From crowd control to contagion from the witch hunt to the apocalypse from pigs to intellectual property this book provides a compelling analysis of the ways in which security and capital are organized against nothing less than the Enemies of all Mankind

The Emotional Life of Postmodern Film Pansy Duncan,2015-11-19 Emotion and Postmodernism is it possible to imagine an odder couple stranger bedfellows less bad company The Emotional Life of Postmodern Film brings this unlikely pair into sustained dialogue arguing that the interdisciplinary body of scholarship currently emerging under the rubric of affect theory may be unexpectedly enriched by an encounter with the field that has become its critical other Across a series of radical re reappraisals of canonical postmodern texts from Fredric Jameson's Postmodernism to David Cronenberg's Crash Duncan shows that the same postmodern archive that has proven resistant to strongly subject based and object oriented emotions like anger and sadness proves all too congenial to a series of idiosyncratic borderline emotions from knowingness fascination and bewilderment to boredom and euphoria The analysis of these emotions in turn promises to shake up scholarly consensus on two key counts On the one hand it will restructure our sense of the place and role of emotion in a critical enterprise that has long cast it as the stodgy subjective sister of a supposedly more critically interesting and politically productive affect On the other it will transform our perception of postmodernism as a now historical aesthetic and theoretical moment teaching us to acknowledge more explicitly and to name more clearly the emotional life that energizes it Nicole Rafter Chase

Burton,2021-10-28 This book is a critical summary and exegesis of the work of Nicole Rafter who was a leading scholar of the history of biological theories of crime causation as well as a profound theorist of the role of history within criminology It introduces Rafter's key works and assesses her contributions to the fields of feminist criminology cultural criminology visual criminology and historical criminology It also explores her theorization of criminology's identity scientific status and possible futures While many books on criminological theory explain and historically contextualize theory they do not interrogate the production of theory or the epistemological assumptions behind it Drawing on the work of Nicole Rafter this book offers an accessible handbook to her extensive historical studies and to how her work demonstrated the importance of historical theory to criminological knowledge Furthermore the author brings Rafter's historical research to life and shows how it speaks to contemporary issues in criminology and punishment Written in a clear and direct style this book will appeal to students and scholars of criminological theory intellectual history sociology comparative criminology and feminist criminology

Metanarratives of Disability David Bolt,2021-05-26 This book explores multiple metanarratives of disability to introduce and investigate the critical concept of assumed authority and the normative social order from which it derives The book comprises 15 chapters developed across three parts and informed by disability studies is authored by those with research interests in the condition on which they focus as well as direct or intimate experiential knowledge When out and about many disabled people know only too well what it is to be erroneously told the error of our ways by non disabled passers by assumed authority often cloaked in helpfulness Showing that assumed authority is underpinned by a displacement of personal narratives in favour of overarching metanarratives of disability that find currency in a diverse multiplicity of cultural representations ranging from literature to film television advertising social media comics art and music this work discusses how this relates to a range of disabilities and chronic conditions including blindness autism Down syndrome diabetes cancer and HIV and AIDS Metanarratives of Disability will be of interest to all scholars and students of disability studies medical sociology medical humanities education studies cultural studies and health offers a well structured accessible collection of disability narratives that foreground disabled voices Journal of Literary and Cultural Disability
