Contemporary Art and the Digitization of Everyday Life Janet Kraynak, 2020-11-10 Digitization is the animating force of everyday life Rather than defining it as a technology or a medium Contemporary Art and the Digitization of Everyday Life argues that digitization is a socio historical process that is contributing to the erosion of democracy and an increase in political inequality specifically along racial ethnic and gender lines Taking a historical approach Janet Kraynak finds that the seeds of these developments are paradoxically related to the ideology of digital utopianism that emerged in the late 1960s with the rise of a social model of computing a set of beliefs furthered by the neo liberal tech ideology in the 1990s and the popularization of networked computing The result of this ongoing cultural worldview which dovetails with the principles of progressive artistic strategies of the past is a critical blindness in art historical discourse that ultimately compromises art s historically important role in furthering radical democratic aims

Imagining Afghanistan Alla Ivanchikova, 2019-09-15 Imagining Afghanistan examines how Afghanistan has been imagined in literary and visual texts that were published after the 9/11 attacks and the subsequent U.S. led invasion the era that propelled Afghanistan into the center of global media visibility

Through an analysis of fiction graphic novels memoirs drama and film the book demonstrates that writing and screening Afghanistan has become a conduit for understanding our shared post 9 11 condition Afghanistan serves as a lens through which contemporary cultural producers contend with the moral ambiguities of twenty first century humanitarianism interpret the legacy of the Cold War debate the role of the U S in the rise of transnational terror and grapple with the long term impact of war on both human and nonhuman ecologies Post 9 11 global Afghanistan literary production remains largely NATO centric insofar as it is marked by an uncritical investment in humanitarianism as an approach to Third World suffering and in anti communism as an unquestioned premise The book s first half exposes how persisting anti socialist biases including anti statist bias not only shaped recent literary and visual texts on Afghanistan resulting in a distorted portrayal of its tragic history but also informed these texts reception by critics In the book s second half the author examines cultural texts that challenge this limited horizon and forge alternative ways of representing traumatic histories Captured by the author through the concepts of deep time nonhuman witness and war as a multispecies ecology these new aesthetics bring readers a sophisticated portrait of Afghanistan as a rich multispecies habitat affected in dramatic ways by decades of war but not annihilated Beyond the Aesthetic and the Anti-Aesthetic James Elkins, Harper Montgomery, 2013-08-20 Each of the five volumes in the Stone Art Theory Institutes series and the seminars on which they are based brings together a range of scholars who are not always directly familiar with one another s work The outcome of each of these convergences is an extensive and unpredictable conversation on knotty and provocative issues about art This fourth volume in the series Beyond the Aesthetic and the Anti Aesthetic focuses on questions revolving around the concepts of the aesthetic the anti aesthetic and the political The book is about the fact that now almost thirty years after Hal Foster defined the anti aesthetic there is still no viable alternative to the dichotomy between aesthetics and anti or nonaesthetic art The impasse is made more difficult by the proliferation of identity politics and it is made less negotiable by the hegemony of anti aesthetics in academic discourse on art The central question of this book is whether artists and academicians are free of this choice in practice in pedagogy and in theory The contributors are Stephanie Benzaquen J M Bernstein Karen Busk Jepsen Luis Camnitzer Diarmuid Costello Joana Cunha Leal Angela Dimitrakaki Alexander Dumbadze T Brandon Evans Geng Youzhuang Boris Groys Be ta Hock Gordon Hughes Michael Kelly Grant Kester Meredith Kooi Cary Levine Sunil Manghani William Mazzarella Justin McKeown Andrew McNamara Eve Meltzer Nadja Millner Larsen Maria Filomena Molder Carrie Noland Gary Peters Aaron Richmond Lauren Ross Toni Ross Eva Sch rmann Gregory Sholette Noah Simblist Jon Simons Robert Storr Martin Sundberg Timotheus Vermeulen and Rebecca Zorach Sculptural Materiality in the Age of Conceptualism Marin R.

Sullivan, 2017-07-05 Sculptural Materiality in the Age of Conceptualism is structured around four distinct but interrelated projects initially realized in Italy between 1966 and 1972 Yayoi Kusama s Narcissus Garden Michelangelo Pistoletto s Newspaper Sphere Sfera di giornali Robert Smithson s Asphalt Rundown and Joseph Beuys s Arena These works all utilized non traditional materials collaborative patronage models and alternative modes of display to create a spatially and temporally dispersed arena of matter and action with photography serving as a connective material thread within the sculpture it reflects While created by major artists of the postwar period these particular projects have yet to receive substantive art historical analysis especially from a sculptural perspective Here they anchor a transnational narrative in which sculpture emerged as a node a center of transaction comprising multiple material phenomenon including objects images and actors When seen as entangled polymorphous entities these works suggest that the charge of sculpture in the late postwar period came from its concurrent existence as both three dimensional phenomena and photographic image in the interchanges among the materials that continue to activate and alter the constitution of sculpture within the contemporary sphere
