The Sword and the Shield Kristan Stoddart, 2014-04-29 Kristan Stoddart reveals for the first time discussions that took place between the British French and US governments for nuclear cooperation in the early to mid 1970s In doing so it sets the scene for the upgrade to Britain's Polaris force codenamed Chevaline and how this could have brought down Harold Wilson's Labour government of 1974-1976 Facing Down the Soviet Union Kristan Stoddart, 2014-10-16 Facing Down the Soviet Union reveals for the first time the historic deliberations regarding the Chevaline upgrade to Britain's Polaris force the decisions to procure the Trident C 4 and then D 5 system from the Americans in 1980 and 1982 It also details the decision to base Ground Launched Cruise Missiles in the UK in 1983 The Conservative Party and the Destruction of

Selective Education in Post-War Britain Piers Legh, 2023-01-26 The book tells the untold story of the Conservative Party's involvement in terms of stance and policy in the destruction of selective state education from 1945 up to the present day Close consideration is paid to their attitudes and prejudices towards education both in power and in opposition Legh examines the Party's responses to the pressure for comprehensive schooling and egalitarianism from the Labour Party and the British left In doing so Legh defies current historiography to demonstrate that the Party were not passive actors in the advancement of comprehensive schooling The lively narrative is moved along by the author's critical examination of the Education Ministers throughout this period Florence Horsbrugh and David Eccles serving under Churchill and Eden and also Quintin Hogg and Geoffrey Lloyd under Macmillan as well as Edward Boyle and Margaret Thatcher under Edward Heath Legh's detailed research utilises a range of government documents personal papers parliamentary debates and newspapers to provide this crucial re-assessment of the Conservative Party and selective education and in doing so questions over simplistic generalisations about wholesale support for selective education policy It reveals instead questioning compromises and disagreements within the Party and its political and ideological allies The result is a stimulating revival of existing scholarship which will be of interest to scholars of British education and politics Contemporary British Fascism N.

Gwyn Bevan,2023-10-23 If every system is perfectly designed to get the results it gets what is wrong with the design of the systems that govern Britain And how have they resulted in failures in housing privatisation outsourcing education and healthcare In How Did Britain Come to This Gwyn Bevan examines a century of varieties of systemic failures in the British state The book begins and ends by showing how systems of governance explain scandals in NHS hospitals and the failures and successes of the UK and Germany in responding to Covid 19 before and after vaccines became available The book compares geographical fault lines and inequalities in Britain with those that have developed in other European countries and argues that the causes of Britain s entrenched inequalities are consequences of shifts in systems of governance over the past century Clement Attlee s postwar government aimed to remedy the failings of the prewar minimal state while Margaret Thatcher s governments in the 1980s in turn sought to remedy the failings of Attlee s planned state by developing the marketised state which morphed into the financialised state we see today This analysis highlights the urgent need for a new political settlement of an enabling state that tackles current systemic weaknesses from market failures and over centralisation This book offers an accessible analytic account of government failures of the past century and is essential reading for anyone who wants to make an informed contribution to what an innovative capable state might look like in a post pandemic world
