Contemporary British Theatre V. Angelaki, 2015-12-25 This edited collection brings together a team of internationally prominent academics and delivers cutting edge discourse on the strongly emerging tradition of experimentation in contemporary British theatre redefining what the dramatic stands for today Each chapter of the collection focuses on influential contemporary plays and playwrights

Text and Performance in Contemporary British Theatre Catherine Love, 2023-02-27 Text and Performance in Contemporary British Theatre interrogates the paradoxical nature of theatre texts which have been understood both as separate literary objects in their own right and as material for performance Drawing on analysis of contemporary practitioners who are working creatively with text the book re examines the relationship between text and performance within the specific context of British theatre The chapters discuss a wide range of theatre makers creating work in the UK from the 1990s onwards from playwrights like Tim Crouch and Jasmine Lee Jones to companies including Action Hero and RashDash In doing so the book addresses issues such as theatrical authorship artistic intention and the apparent incompleteness of plays as both written and performed phenomena Text and Performance in Contemporary British Theatre also explores the implications of changing technologies of page and stage analysing the impact of recent developments in theatre making editing and publishing on the status of the theatre text Written for scholars students and practitioners alike Text and Performance in Contemporary British Theatre provides an original perspective on one of the most enduring problems to occupy theatre practice and scholarship

Staging Interspaces in Contemporary British Theatre Vicky Angelaki, 2024-06-03 This open access book considers how relationships to place and spatial ecologies more broadly are becoming redefined in light of intersecting climate health identity and care crises Through an interdisciplinary intersectional discourse it investigates how spaces of liminality frame contemporary human conditions in their interactional modes with both human and non human ecologies The interspace grounds the discussion indicating states of flux and transience where the in between is the defining characteristic This open access monograph then takes up the new complexity in one's relationships to their surrounding spaces through a rigorous discussion of texts and performance contexts in cutting edge contemporary British theatre on a national and international scale It seeks to address how in-betweenness spatially temporally environmentally geographically and socially conceived has been emerging as the primary state for the unmoored individual of our time and how it might serve as catalyst for performing one's agency in modes more empathetic not only to other humans but also and equally to the non human world

Delgado,Bryce Lease,Dan Rebellato,2020-07-22 Contemporary European Playwrights presents and discusses a range of key writers that have radically reshaped European theatre by finding new ways to express the changing nature of the continent s society and culture and whose work is still in dialogue with Europe today Traversing borders and languages this

Social and Political Theatre in

21st-Century Britain Vicky Angelaki, 2017-02-23 In a context of financial crisis that has often produced a feeling of identity crisis for the individual the theatre has provided a unifying forum treating spectators as citizens This book critically deals with representative plays and playwrights who have stood out in the UK and internationally in the post recession era delivering theatre that in the process of being truthful to the contemporary experience has also redefined theatrical form and content Built around a series of case studies of seminal contemporary plays exploring issues of social and political crisis the volume is augmented by interviews with UK and international directors artistic directors and the playwrights whose work is examined As well as considering UK stage productions Angelaki analyses European North American and Australian productions of post 2000 plays by writers including Caryl Churchill Mike Bartlett Dennis Kelly Simon Stephens Martin Crimp debbie tucker green Duncan Macmillan Nick Payne and Lucy Prebble At the heart of the analysis and of the plays discussed is an appreciation of what interconnects artists and audiences enabling the kind of mutual recognition that fosters the feeling of collectivity As the book argues this is the state whereby the theatre meets its social imperative by eradicating the distance between stage and spectator and creating a genuinely shared space of ideas and dialogue taking on topics including the economy materialism debt culture the environment urban protest social media and mental health Social and Political Theatre in 21st Century Britain demonstrates that such contemporary playwriting invests in and engenders moments of performative reciprocity and spirituality so as to present the audience with a cohesive collective experience

Masculinities and Manhood in Contemporary Irish Drama Cormac O'Brien, 2021-12-10 This book charts the journey in terms of both stasis and change that masculinities and manhood have made in Irish drama and by extension in the broader culture and society from the 1960s to the present Examining a diverse corpus of drama and theatre events both mainstream and on the fringe this study critically elaborates a seismic shift in Irish masculinities This book argues then that Irish manhood has shifted from embodying and enacting post colonial concerns of nationalism and national identity to performing models of masculinity that are driven and moulded by the political and cultural practices of neoliberal capitalism Masculinities and Manhood in Contemporary Irish Drama charts this shift through chapters on performing masculinity in plays set in both the Irish Republic and Northern Ireland and through several chapters that focus on Women's and Queer drama It thus takes its readers on a journey a journey that begins with an overtly patriarchal nationalist manhood that often made direct comment on the state of the nation and ultimately arrives at several arguably regressive forms of globalised masculinity which are couched in misaligned notions of individualism and free choice and that frequently perceive themselves as being in crisis
