Contempt How The Right Is Wronging American Justice:

Dance, Human Rights, and Social Justice Naomi Jackson, Toni Shapiro-Phim, 2008-11-06 This contributed volume is a collection of international writings on dance human rights and social justice in the 20th and 21st centuries The book illuminates and analyzes dance in contexts of oppression and its subversion as well as in situations promoting access to dance and those encouraging healing from human rights abuses through movement Contempt Catherine Crier, 2005 Discusses how right wing groups have utilized their considerable political and financial resources to influence the appointments to the federal court system of judges who agree with their conservative agenda The View of the Courts from the Hill Mark C. Miller, 2009-04-28 The book concludes with a call for the protection of judicial independence in order to preserve the voice of the federal courts in the constitutional interpretation dialogue Away With All Gods! Bob Avakian, 2008-04-01 Is believing in gods actually harmful How has Christianity for centuries served as an ideology of conquest and subjugation Why is the Bible Belt in the U S also the lynching belt Why is there a rise of religious fundamentalism throughout the world In the intensifying conflict between U S imperialism and Islamic fundamentalism is the only choice to take one side or the other Why is patriarchy and the oppression of women foundational to so many religions Can people be good without god These are just some of the questions explored in this provocative work by Bob Avakian Bringing a unique revolutionary communist voice to the current discourse about god atheism and morality Avakian demystifies religious belief and examines how even in its most progressive interpretations religion stands in the way of the emancipation of humanity A thread deeply woven throughout Away With All Gods is the need to fully rupture with all forms of superstition and to take up instead a truly scientific approach to understanding and transforming reality Whether you believe in god or are an agnostic or an atheist Bob Avakian will challenge you with his powerful critique of long established traditions and his liberating vision of a radically different world In the Name of Education Jonas E. Alexis, 2007 Alexis convincingly examines the crisis in education from a Christian perspective The Good News Club Katherine Stewart, 2012-01-24 Traces the author's investigative visits to schools in dozens of cities after discovering that a fundamentalist group was recruiting children during sanctioned after school programs revealing the movement's agenda to reintegrate church and state Patriot Acts Catherine Crier, 2011-11-01 WHY WE NEED THE TRUTH THE WHOLE TRUTH AND NOTHING BUT THE TRUTH The noise from both Washington and the media is deafening the deeds of our lawmakers alarming America needs a break from the posturing and the politicking We need information how we got here and where we are headed Catherine Crier one of the most respected figures in television journalism presents an incisive unbiased analysis of America's political crisis delivering a message we cannot afford to ignore America must move beyond political parties to invest in our nation's future Not just with money but with vision wisdom and reason Looking back at the foundations of our country from Adam Smith to Alexander Hamilton from Jefferson to Roosevelt Crier cuts through the nonsense to show what really works and doesn't work for our nation today including The staggering disconnect between the financial health of corporations and the well being of consumers that defies everything Adam Smith wrote about free enterprise The role that government must play in regulations and job creation and how the Republican Party's anti government rhetoric would appall the founders of American conservatism Why our health care system is not the best in the world but the most mismanaged and bloated and how to change it How today's vitriolic partisan politics are in direct opposition to the very democracy on which our country is founded Americans love our country deeply and when told we're losing it nothing can stop us from fighting But there seems to be a lot of confusion these days about the mission What exactly did the Founders establish What is now at risk and what must be done to preserve the Republic Our Founders created a constitutional government that would protect and promote a free and diverse society Those who argue otherwise are misleading you intentionally or are ignorant of historical facts As a patriot I believe that our founding principles and system of governing are not negotiable We must recognize the difference between honest debate over policies and philosophy and those measures that skew or upend our extraordinary system for partisan advantage Such tactics may produce short term gains but in the end everyone loses From Patriot Acts

Judicature Society, 1927 The Defendant's Rights Today David Fellman, 1978-04-15 With this comprehensive study written in lay language David Fellman provides an up to date analysis of the rights of the accused certain to be welcomed by political scientists students of public law and all with an interest in due process of law Since Fellman's 1958 book The Defendant's Rights substantial changes in the criminal justice system have occurred The past few decades before the publication of The Defendant's Rights Today have been witness to a striking expansion of the central concept of due process of law as it relates to criminal justice The subject of defendants rights is broad and complex Fellman here explores its underlying concepts bringing together a comprehensive discussion of the effects of the criminal justice system on the accused from arrest through trial to post conviction remedies What's Wrong with Rights? Nigel Biggar, 2020-09-25 Are natural rights nonsense on stilts as Jeremy Bentham memorably put it Must the very notion of a right be individualistic subverting the common good Should the right against torture be absolute even though the heavens fall Are human rights universal or merely expressions of Western neo imperial arrogance Are rights ethically fundamental proudly impervious to changing circumstances Should judges strive to extend the reach of rights from civil Hamburg to anarchical Basra Should judicial oligarchies rather than legislatures decide controversial ethical issues by inventing novel rights Ought human rights advocates learn greater sympathy for the dilemmas facing those burdened with government These are the questions that What s Wrong with Rights addresses In doing so it draws upon resources in intellectual history legal philosophy moral philosophy moral theology human rights literature and the judgments of courts It ranges from debates about property in medieval Christendom through Confucian rights scepticism to contemporary discussions about the remedy for global hunger and the justification of killing And it straddles assisted dying in Canada the military occupation of Iraq and genocide in Rwanda What s Wrong with Rights concludes that much contemporary rights talk obscures the importance of fostering civic virtue corrodes military effectiveness subverts the democratic legitimacy of law proliferates publicly onerous rights and undermines their authority and credibility The solution to these problems lies in the abandonment of rights fundamentalism and the recovery of a richer public discourse about ethics one that includes talk about the duty and virtue of rights holders
