Contention The Multidisciplinary Journal Of Social Protest Vol 31:

Fragments of Solidarity Maria Giannoula,2023-06-02 How is solidarity understood by the people who practice it actively and daily What is the role of solidarity in reconciling the relationship of individuals with the collective demands of communities that fight for the rights of others Based on a variety of anthropological sociological and philosophical writings as well as ethnographic research Maria Giannoula takes an elaborated look at the emotional and spiritual aspects of political participation within an activist group in Greece in the 2010s This study is a valuable resource for those researching social movements and alternative communities focusing on the ways in which individuals organise their own forms of activism

Municipal Dreams John Boughton,2018-04-17 Traversing the nation Municipal Dreams offers an architectural tour of some of the best and most remarkable of our housing estates and in doing so offers an engrossing social history of housing in Britain John Boughton asks us to understand better their complex story and to rethink our prejudices His accounts include extraordinary planners and architects who wished to elevate working men and women through design and the politicians high and low who shaped their work the competing ideologies which have promoted state housing and condemned it the economics which has always constrained our housing ideals the crisis wrought by Right to Buy and the evolving controversies around regeneration He shows how the loss of the dream of good housing for all is a danger for the whole of society as was seen in the fire in Grenfell Tower

Gender Matters in Global Politics Laura J. Shepherd,2014-07-17 Fully revised and updated this second edition of Gender Matters in Global Politics is a comprehensive textbook for advanced undergraduates studying feminism War Terrorism and political violence Land food and water International legal institutions Peacebuilding institutions and post conflict reconstruction Citizenship Art aesthetics and emotionality and New social media and global resistance This text enables students to develop a sophisticated understanding of the work that gender does in policies and practices of global politics

Critical Methods for the Study of World Politics Shine Choi,Anna Selmeczi,Erzsébet Strausz,2019-12-05 This book develops an approach to both method and the socio political implications of knowledge production that embraces our embeddedness in the world that we study It seeks to enact the transformative potentials inherent in this relationship in how it engages readers It presents a creative survey of some of the newest developments in critical research methods and critical pedagogy that together go beyond the aims of knowledge transfer that often structure our practices Each contribution takes on a different shape tone and orientation and discusses a critical method or approach teasing out the ways in which it can also work as a transformative practice While the presentation of different methods is both rigorously practice based and specific contributors also offer reflections on the stakes of critical engagement and how it may play an important role in expanding and subverting existing regimes of intelligibility Contributions variously address the following key questions What makes your research method important How can others work with it How has research through this method and or the way you ended up deploying it transformed you and or your practice How did it matter for thinking about community academic collaboration and sharing knowledge This volume makes the case for re politicizing the importance of research and the transformative potentials of research methods not only in accessing the world as an object of study but as ways of acting and being in the world It will be of interest to students and scholars of international relations critical theory research methods and politics in general Contention: the Multidisciplinary Journal of Social Protest Contention Journal,2014-04-29 Contention The Multidisciplinary Journal of Social Protest is a scientific journal which aims to offer a novel contribution to the study of social protest The journal intends to advance knowledge about a comprehensive range of collective actions social movements and other forms of political and social contention Its main purposes are to offer a multidisciplinary forum to scholars from different fields and to bridge the gap between them within and across the social sciences and humanities Social protest emerges from a complexity of phenomena Different research traditions have developed dissimilar and sometimes divergent sets of analytical tools through which to explore social actions social movements social protest and other forms of contention These differences are often paralleled by a priori epistemological endeavours and ontological claims about the nature of the object of study the relevance of its proprieties and the appropriate level of analysis The aim of this special issue Volume 2 1 co edited by Giovanni A Travaglino and Brian Callan is to offer the reader a series of papers which explore problematize and account for the different methodologies empiricisms and theoretical claims of different approaches involved in the study of social protest

The Relationship between Rhetoric and Terrorist Violence Allison Smith,2016-05-06 Studies have demonstrated that choices in the use of language convey information that goes beyond the content of the words themselves In many cases how something is said matters as much as what is said Using techniques collectively referred to as linguistic content analysis researchers have studied topics ranging from how to identify if individuals are lying to whether there are particular characteristics associated with leaders who take their nations to war This book presents findings from a research effort funded by the U S Department of Homeland Security s Science and Technology Directorate which examined whether linguistic content analysis can indicate whether groups will engage in terrorist violence Specifically this project brought together several researchers who have developed manual and automated coding systems to analyse documents issued by Central al Qa ida and al Qa ida in the Arabian Peninsula and two non terrorist comparison groups The intention has been to test whether linguistic content analysis can first distinguish the language of terrorist groups from that of non terrorist groups and second provide indicators of specific terrorist attacks This book was originally published as a Special Issue of Dynamics of Asymmetric Conflict Sustainable Development and Environmental Stewardship Satinder Dhiman,2023-06-14 This book builds on recent advances in the theory of sustainable development and links it with environmental stewardship in a dialectical manner as envisioned by global scholars in this emerging field Environmental stewardship deals with practical issues of ecosystem management and governance to address changes in socio ecological systems to sustain the supply and availability of ecosystem services by society It means reducing our total footprint on the planet not just carbon footprint Truly global in scope this volume is a humble offering of more than 12 scholars and practitioners from around the world to the exciting adventure of sustainable development and eco stewardship Featuring topics such as climate change organizational sustainability green innovation and urban governance this book is useful for policy makers managers of NGOs and sustainability researchers in developing engaging strategies for a more sustainable planet Contention Contention Journal,2015-12-07 Contention is a social scientific journal which aims to offer a novel contribution to the study of social protest The journal intends to advance knowledge about a comprehensive range of collective actions social movements and other forms of political and social contention Its main purposes are to offer a multidisciplinary forum to scholars from different fields and to bridge the gap between them within and across the social sciences and humanities Vol 3 Issue 1 Dec 2015 features contributions from Communication Studies and Latin America Studies TABLE OF CONTENTS Jeong IM Hyun What Really Matters in Creating Mass Mobilization Classical Organization or New Social Media A Comparative Case Study of the Mass Mobilization Process in France and South Korea Michael Boyle A Tale of Two Sites Journalist Perspectives and Patterns in Coverage of Occupy Wall Street Heather Came Joey MacDonald Maria Humphries Enhancing Activist Scholarship in New Zealand and Beyond Marilyn J Matelski The Amazon s 10W40 Generations Ill Fated Beneficiaries of Texaco s Glorious Gamble Contention Contention Journal,2013-10-14 Contention A Multidisciplinary Journal of Social Protest is a scientific journal which aims to offer a novel contribution to the study of social protest The journal intends to advance knowledge about a comprehensive range of collective actions social movements and other forms of political and social contention Its main purposes are to offer a multidisciplinary forum to scholars from different fields and to bridge the gap between them within and across the social sciences and humanities Volume 1 Issue 1 comprises the following ARTICLES Emma A B ck Hanna B ck Gema Garcia Albacete Protest Activity Social Incentives and Rejection Sensitivity Results From a Survey Experiment About Tuition Fees Sophie Toupin An Open Air Self Managed Social Center Called Occupy Atalanti Evripidou John Drury This Is the Time of Tension Collective Action and Subjective Power in the Greek Anti Austerity Movement Wiktor Marzec The 1905 1907 Revolution in the Kingdom of Poland Articulation of Political Subjectivities Among Workers FAST TRACK REPORT Edgar Everardo Guerra Blanco Observing Protest Organizations as Social Systems The Popular Front Francisco Villa s Media Diffusion Articulation of Political Subjectivities that problems and solutions are never monolithic Neither Beyoncé's feminism nor Bella Abzug's is the right one for every time and place and only by embracing diversity within feminism can we hope to address the diverse types of gender based oppression still present in the world The authors in this volume have taken questions of gender very seriously but have also committed to intersectional analysis they have grounded their research practices and writing strategies in the specific contexts they examine and situated themselves within that context Their articles provide five concrete instances of engagement with feminist questions in disciplines ranging from literary analysis to social sciences Beyond emphasizing the need for a variety of strategies the present collection of essays also exemplifies guidelines for action which can be built upon in the future In other words the scholarship presented here does not seek only to bring attention to different instances of gender inequality but also to help us take the next step by demonstrating individual approaches to tackling these complex problems

English Riots but also as regards our understanding of the formation of social discontent and social movements elsewhere They indicate alternative readings and meanings for the riots revolving around the notions of social conflict and inequality
