Contesting Performance Global Sites Of Research Performance Interventions:

Contesting Performance J. McKenzie, H. Roms, C. Wee, 2009-11-18 Contesting Performance is a collection of essays by international scholars that addresses the global development of performance research in the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries The collection functions as a critical reader on diverse approaches to studying performance that contest dominant paradigms of performance studies

Performance: A Critical Introduction Marvin Carlson, 2017-10-25 Since its original publication in 1996 Marvin Carlson's Performance: A Critical Introduction has remained the definitive guide to understanding performance as a theatrical activity It is an unparalleled exploration of the myriad ways in which performance has been interpreted its importance to disciplines from anthropology to linguistics and how it underpins essential concepts of human society In this comprehensively revised and updated third edition Carlson tackles the pressing themes and theories of our age with expanded coverage of the growth and importance of racial and ethnic performance the emergence of performance concerned with age and disability the popularity and significance of participatory and immersive theatre the crucial relevance of identity politics and cultural performance in the twenty first century Also including a fully updated bibliography and glossary this classic text is an invaluable touchstone for any student of performance studies theatre history and the performing and visual arts

The Cambridge Guide to Mixed Methods Research for Theatre and Performance Studies Tracy C. Davis, Paul Rae, 2024-02-08 We often know performance when we see it but how should we investigate it And how should we interpret what we find out This book demonstrates why and how mixed methods research is necessary for investigating and explaining performance and advancing new critical agendas in cultural study The wide range of aesthetic forms cultural meanings and social functions found in theatre and performance globally invites a corresponding variety of research approaches The essays in this volume model reflective consideration of the means processes and choices for conducting performance research that is historical ethnographic aesthetic or computational An international set of contributors address what is meant by planning or designing a research project doing research locating and collecting primary sources or resources and the ensuing work of interpreting and communicating insights Providing illuminating and necessary guidance this volume is an essential resource for scholars and students of theatre performance and dance

Performance and the Global City D. Hopkins, K. Solga, 2013-10-15 Winner of the Association for Theatre in Higher Education Excellence in Editing Award 2016 Following the ground breaking Performance and the City this new volume explores what it means to create and experience urban performance as both an aesthetic and a political practice in the burgeoning world where cities are built by globalization and neoliberal capital

Performance Studies in Motion Atay Citron, Sharon Aronson-Lehavi, David Zerbib, 2014-02-27 Performance Studies in Motion offers multiple perspectives on the current field of performance studies and suggests its future directions Featuring new essays by pioneers Richard Schechner and Barbara Kirshenblatt Gimblett and by international scholars and practitioners it shows how performance can offer a new way of seeing the world and testifies to the dynamism of this discipline Beginning with an overview of the development of performance studies the essays offer new insights into contemporary experimental and postdramatic theatre participatory performance and museum exhibitions the performance of politicians political institutions and grassroots protest movements theatricality at war and in contemporary religious rituals and performative practices in therapy education and life sciences Employing original reflexive approaches to concrete case studies and situations contributors introduce a variety of applications of performance studies methodologies to contemporary culture art and society creating new interdisciplinary links between the arts humanities and social and natural sciences With studies from and about places as diverse as Austria Belgium China France Germany Israel Korea Palestine the Philippines Poland Rwanda and the USA Performance Studies in Motion showcases the vitality and breadth of the field today Tribes and Territories in the 21st Century Paul Trowler, Murray Saunders, Veronica Bamber, 2012-01-25 The tribes and territories metaphor for the cultures of academic disciplines and their roots in different knowledge characteristics has been used by those interested in university life and work since the early 1990s This book draws together research data and theory to show how higher education has gone through major change since then and how social theory has evolved in parallel Together these changes mean there is a need to re theorise academic life in a way which reflects changed contexts in universities in the twenty first century and so a need for new metaphors Using a social practice approach the editors and contributors argue that disciplines are alive and well but that in a turbulent environment where many other forces conditioning academic practices exist their influence is generally weaker than before However the social practice approach adopted in the book highlights how this influence is contextually contingent how disciplines are deployed in different ways for different purposes and with varying degrees of purchase This important book pulls together the latest thinking on the subject and offers a new framework for conceptualising the influences on academic practices in universities It brings together a distinguished group of scholars from across the world to address questions such as Have disciplines been displaced by inter disciplinarity having outlived their usefulness Have other forces acting on the academy pushed disciplines into the background as factors shaping the practices of academics and students there How significant are disciplinary differences in teaching and research practices What is their significance in other areas of work in universities This timely book addresses a pressing concern in modern education and will be of great interest to university professionals managers and policy makers in the field of higher education Histories, Practices, Interventions: A Reader In Singapore Contemporary Art Jeffrey Say, Yu Jin Seng, 2023-01-30 Histories Practices Interventions A Reader in Singapore Contemporary Art brings together key writings about ideas practices issues and art institutions that shape the understanding of contemporary art in Singapore This reader is conceived as an essential resource for advancing critical debates on post independence Singapore art and culture It comprises a total of thirty three texts by art historians art theorists art critics artists and curators In addition there is an introduction by the co editors Jeffrey Say and

Seng Yu Jin as well as three section introductions contributed by Seng Yu Jin artist curator and writer Susie Wong and art educator and writer Lim Kok Boon Bundle set A Reader in Singapore Modern and Contemporary Art Performance and Translation in a Global Age Avishek Ganguly, K  lina Gotman, 2023-06-29 This global overview of how translation is understood as a performative practice across genres media and disciplines illuminates the broad impact of the performance turn in the arts and humanities Combining key concepts in comparative literature performance studies and translation theory the volume provides readers with a dynamic account of the ways in which these fields fruitfully interact The chapters display interdisciplinary thinking in action across a wide spectrum of performance practices and media from around the world from poetry and manuscripts to theatre subtitles audio description archives installations dialects movement and dance Paying close attention to questions of race gender sexuality embodiment and accessibility the collection s rich array of methodological approaches and experiments with scholarly writing demonstrate how translation as a performative practice can enrich our understanding of language and politics Performance, Politics, and the War on Terror Sara Brady, 2012-01-17 Using a performance studies lens this book is a study of performance in the post 9 11 context of the so called war on terror It analyzes conventional theatre political protest performance art and other sites of performance to unpack the ways in which meaning has been made in the contemporary global sociopolitical environment Fair Play - Art, Performance and Neoliberalism J. Harvie, 2013-08-29 This book asks what is the quality of participation in contemporary art and performance Has it been damaged by cultural policies which have entrepreneurialized artists cut arts funding and cultivated corporate philanthropy Has it been fortified by crowdfunding pop ups and craftsmanship And how can it help us to understand social welfare Performing Site-Specific Theatre A. Birch, J. Tompkins, 2012-10-10 This book investigates the expanding parameters for site specific performance to account for the form s increasing popularity in the twenty first century Leading practitioners and theorists interrogate issues of performance and site to broaden our understanding of the role that place plays in performance and the ways that performance influences it Contemporary British Queer Performance S. Greer, 2016-02-02 This book examines queer performance in Britain since the early 1990s arguing for the significance of emerging collaborative modes of practice Using queer theory and the history of early lesbian and gay theatre to examine claims to representation among other things it interrogates the relationships through which recent works have been presented Refugees, Theatre and Crisis A. Jeffers, 2011-10-25 Using examples of refugee arts and theatrical activity since the 1990s this book examines how the refugee crisis has conditioned all arts and cultural activity with refugees in a world where globalization and migration go hand in hand A Good Night Out for the Girls E. Aston, G. Harris, 2012-11-29 Moving across the boundaries of mainstream and experimental circuits from the affective pleasures of commercially successful shows such as Calendar Girls and Mamma Mia to the feminist possibilities of new burlesque and stand up this book offers a lucid and accessible account of popular feminisms in contemporary theatre and performance Communities, Performance and

Practice Kerrie Schaefer, 2022-04-07 This book examines how a predominantly negative view of community has presented a challenge to critical analysis of community performance practice The concept of community as a form of class based solidarity has been hollowed out by postmodernism's questioning of grand narratives and poststructuralism's celebration of difference Alongside the critique of a notion of community has been a critical re-signification of community following the thinking of philosopher Jean Luc Nancy who conceives of community not as common being but as being in common The concept of community as being in common generates questions that have been taken up by feminist geographers J K Gibson Graham in theorising a post capitalist approach to community based development These questions and approaches guide the analyses in researched case studies of community performance practice The book revises theoretical debates that have defined the field of community theatre and performance It asks how the critical re-signification of community aligns with these debates and at the same time opens new modes of critical analysis of community theatre and performance practice

The Performance of International Courts and Tribunals Theresa Squatrito, Oran R. Young, Andreas Follesdal, Geir Ulfstein, 2018-04-05 Explores the contributions of international courts and tribunals in terms of performance by offering a comparative analysis of international courts Performance and Politics in a Digital Populist Age Cami Rowe, 2022-12-30 This book re-evaluates the role of performance in global politics in the face of populism and the digital mediatization of political interactions As political communications are increasingly conducted in online environments post truth performances become evermore central to democratic processes It is therefore essential to reconsider the political potency of performance and theatricality in order to effectively reinvigorate democracy in the 21st century Drawing on applied theatre practices this book shows that performance is inherently concerned with cooperative and collaborative encounters across difference and performance might therefore support effective responses to digital populism The analysis addresses the performative aspects of populist political movements in the United States and United Kingdom The chapters engage with aspects of performance and theatricality not commonly broached in IR scholarship including interpersonal engagement creative embodiment and interactive affect making the case for the importance of these features to democratic engagement This book resonates with recent debates regarding the relevance and treatment of Arts and Performance as IR subjects methodologies and practices and will be of interest to scholars and students of global politics international relations performance studies radical democracy and mass communication and culture 4th International Conference on Performance-Based Codes and

Fire Safety Design Methods, 2002 Research based reports on fire safety engineering and design of buildings and other structures Construction Dispute Research Expanded Sai On Cheung, 2021-08-30 As an expansion of the book Construction Dispute Research published in 2014 this book presents further contributions and breaks into three new research foci in construction dispute studies Part A discusses the conceptualization and minimization of biases in construction dispute decisions Part B examines other impediments against settlement such as inequity power asymmetry and loss aversion Part C focuses on reality check of construction dispute negotiation conditions such as market competition interdependence of contracting parties and dispute avoidance function of construction incentivization This book showcases new ideas in construction dispute research It offers research studies that are theory rich and conducted with robust methodologies The research implications are practical and implementable Handbook of Research on Human Performance and Instructional Technology Song, Holim, Kidd, Terry T., 2009-10-31 This book addresses the connection between human performance and instructional technology with teaching and learning offering innovative ideas for instructional technology applications and elearning Provided by publisher
