The background of the slide features a warm-toned map of the Americas, with North and South America visible in shades of orange and red. Overlaid on the right side of the map is a detailed, golden compass rose. The compass rose shows cardinal and intercardinal directions, with 'NW' (Northwest) clearly visible. The overall aesthetic is one of exploration and navigation.

Cultural and Theological Reflections on the Japanese Quest for Divinity John J. Keane, 2016-11-07 In Cultural and Theological Reflections on the Japanese Quest for Divinity John J Keane offers an explanation of Japanese divinity kami using sociology anthropology linguistics literature and history He presents an overview of how the Japanese have sought to love and serve their kami a quest that rivals the interest that the West gives to God The principles of interreligious dialogue are applied to the meaning of kami and a plea is made for a dialogue that respectfully accepts differences between the cultures and the theologies of Eastern and Western thought Important cultural themes are discussed as a part of this quest such as the emperors of Japan and the Japanese Tea Ceremony The work also challenges the understanding of kami as highlighted by Akutagawa Ryunosuke and Endo Shusaku

Hear Ye the Word of the Lord D. Brent Sandy, 2024-03-12 In today s reading culture it is easy to forget that we receive God s message far differently from how the original hearers would have heard it D Brent Sandy explores how oral communication shaped biblical writers and ancient hearers and provides constructive ways for modern readers to be better hearers and performers of Scripture

Apostolic Imagination J. D. Payne, 2022-02-08 A leading expert in the field of Christian missions encourages the church to recover the apostolic imagination that fueled the multiplication of disciples in the first century J D Payne examines the contemporary practice of Western missions and advocates a more central place for Scripture in defining missionary language identity purpose function and strategy He shows that an apostolic understanding of the church's disciple making commission requires rethinking every aspect of missionary engagement The book includes end of chapter discussion questions and action steps to help pastors and church leaders develop an apostolic imagination

Evangelical Christian Responses to Islam Richard McCallum, 2024-02-08 Do Christians and Muslims worship the same God Who was Muhammad How does the Israeli Palestinian conflict affect Christian Muslim relations This is a book about Evangelical Christians and how they are answering challenging questions about Islam Drawing on over 300 texts published by Evangelicals in the first two decades of the twenty first century this book explores what the Evangelical micro public sphere has to say about key issues in Christian Muslim relations today From the books they write the blogs they post and the videos they make it is clear that Evangelical Christians profoundly disagree with one another when discussing Islam Answers to the questions range from seeing Muslims as the enemy posing an existential threat to Christians through to welcoming them as good neighbours or even as close cousins

Allison, 2014-11-30 In this balanced volume Gregg Allison an evangelical theologian and church historian helps readers understand the nuances of Roman Catholic teaching Walking through the official Catechism of the Catholic Church Allison summarizes and assesses Catholic doctrine from the perspective of both Scripture and evangelical theology Noting prominent similarities without glossing over key differences this book will equip Christians on both sides of the ecclesiastical divide to fruitfully engage in honest dialogue with one another

Cultural Integration and the Gospel in Vietnamese Mission Theology KimSon Nguyen, 2019-11-14 Postcolonial Vietnam has an urgent need for contextualized theology of mission God Christ and the church that is rooted in indigenous cultural traditions and the dual Vietnamese spirit of resistance and assimilation Dr KimSon Nguyen navigates the religio cultural dimensions of Vietnamese spirituality and Daoism that have hindered the assimilation of the Christian faith in the Vietnamese context and explores a fresh approach to missiology in Vietnam Dr Nguyen draws upon his deep knowledge of Vietnamese evangelical history to analyze contextualization and mission theology in Vietnam He proposes an evangelical theology of God as a way the centrality of the Vietnamese home as the house of the Lord and ancestor veneration as a theological framework for an indigenous theology of the family Narrowing the gap between culturally removed evangelical missionary practice and widespread syncretistic spirituality in Vietnam Nguyen calls for a paradigm shift in Vietnamese mission theology that is both robustly evangelical and authentically Vietnamese

World Christianity Lalsangkima Pachuau, 2018-07-17 Christianity is vibrant and growing in the non western majority world and Christianity is changing as a result Pachuau surveys the current trending approaches to recognizing and investigating world Christianity and explores the salient features of the demographic changes that mark a measurable shift in the center of gravity from the northwest part of the globe to the southern continents This shift is not just geographical World Christianity is ultimately about the changing and diversifying character of Christianity and a renewed recognition of the dynamic universality of Christian faith itself Christianity is a shared religion in that people of different cultures and societies make it their own while being transformed by it Christianity is translatable and adaptable to all cultures while challenging each with its transformative power Pachau also charts the theological reestablishment of the missionary enterprise founded on understandings of God's mission in the world mission Dei a mission of cross cultural gospel diffusion for missionary advocates in the majority world but one of near neighbor missional engagement for the contagious Charismatic Christianity of the majority world This book is both a descriptive study and a thoughtful analysis of world Christianity's demographics life representation and thought The book also gives an account of the historical emergence of World Christianity and its theological characteristics using a methodology that stresses the productive tension between the universal and particular in understanding a fundamentally adaptable Christian faith

Participating in God's Mission Craig Van Gelder, Dwight Zscheile, 2018-01-11 Explores how the church has engaged and should engage the American context What might faithful and meaningful Christian witness look like within our changing contemporary American context After analyzing contemporary challenges and developing a missiological approach for the US church Craig Van Gelder and Dwight Zscheile reflect on the long complex and contested history of Christian mission in America Five distinct historical periods from the beginning of the colonial era to the dawn of the third millennium are reviewed and critiqued They then bring the story forward to the present day discussing current realities confronting the church discerning possibilities of where and how the Spirit of God might be at work today and imagining what participating in the triune God's mission may look like in an uncertain tomorrow

Cross-Cultural Missional Partnership Joshua Bowman, 2023-03-28 Cross cultural partnerships in today's global environment are both challenging and necessary Misunderstanding and miscommunication often lead to conflict between culturally diverse groups Christians must understand and evaluate their own culture the culture of others and the text of Scripture itself while remaining faithful to Scripture and relevant to culture Unmediated tensions combined with relational isolation lead to a myriad of problems This study proposes cross cultural missional partnership as a relationship that mediates these tensions thereby encouraging mutual faithful engagement in the mission of God Cross cultural tensions may never disappear but within a healthy partnership partners can assist one another in understanding and responding faithfully to Scripture Partners help one another more faithfully interpret and apply Scripture leading to obedience to God's will and engagement in God's mission within unique and diverse contexts

World Christianity Graham Joseph Hill, 2024-10-08 World Christianity An Introduction provides an accessible introduction to the discipline methodology and field of world Christianity In this book Graham Joseph Hill engages with more than one hundred high profile Majority World and First Nations Christian leaders to learn what they can teach the West about mission leadership hospitality creation care education

worship and more Hill challenges the Western church to move away from a Eurocentric and Americentric view of church and mission and he calls for the church to engage with crucial paradigm shifts in world Christianity The future of the global church including the churches in the West exists in these global exchanges World Christianity is an indispensable guide for the church as it navigates the unique global experiences of the twenty first century

Why Evangelical Theology Needs the Global Church Stephen T. Pardue, 2023-08-22 Christianity Today 2024 Award of Merit Missions Global Church Christian theologians and students are aware that evangelicals in the Majority World now outnumber those in North America and Europe and many want to know more about emerging voices in the global church At the same time these voices are largely absent from Western evangelical theology Stephen Pardue seeks to bridge this divide by arguing biblically and theologically that it is imperative for Western evangelical theology to engage with the global church and he provides examples of how this can be done Case studies throughout the book illustrate opportunities for fruitful engagement with non Western theology in various areas of Christian doctrine Readers will be given an introduction to the riches available within the worldwide body of Christ and learn how to engage productively with the global church
