contractors profits is important to ensure that their interests are aligned properly with that of the taxpayer But transparency over rewards that contractors make is at present limited Thirdly the report asks how we know that contractors are delivering services to the high standards expected In particular government needs to ensure that large companies with sprawling structures are not paying lip service to control and that they have the right culture and control environment across their group This requires transparency over contractors performance and the use of contractual entitlement to information audit and inspection This should be backed up by the threat of financial penalties and being barred from future competitions if things are found to be wrong A related report Managing government suppliers HC 811 session 2013 14 ISBN
