

Communication and Conflict Resolution

A Biblical Perspective

Handling communication and conflict resolution are two major hurdles in a marriage. Doing so biblically must be the mutual resolve of every husband and wife. Unless you truly desire to honor God in this aspect of your marriage, the relationship will never be what it could be.

Communicating and resolving conflicts in a God-honoring way involves having a heart that is humble and wants to please God, some good listening skills, and a willingness to die to self. Conflict is a greivous thing to God. He wants His children to have no part in it. Within these pages you will find biblical ways to resolve conflict and communicate effectively.

Dr. Stuart Scott serves full time as an Associate Professor at The Master's College in Sun Valley, CA. Stuart has been married to his wife, Zondra, for twenty-four years. They have two teenage children, Christa and Marc.
