Community Cohesion In Crisis New Dimensions Of Diversity And Difference:

Community Cohesion in Crisis? John Flint, Professor David Robinson, 2008 This book examines how new dimensions of diversity and difference so often debated in the national context are emerging at the neighbourhood level Promoting social cohesion Newman, Ines, Ratcliffe, Peter, 2011-05-11 This book makes a forthright case for a shift in policy focus from community cohesion to the broader notion of social cohesion and is distinctive and innovative in its focus on evaluation It constitutes an extremely valuable source both for practitioners involved in social cohesion interventions and for researchers and students studying theory based evaluation and the policy areas highlighted housing intergenerational issues the recession education communications community development Negotiating Cohesion, Inequality and Change Hannah Jones, 2015-01-14 This unique study explores how local bureaucrats and politicians negotiate diversity discrimination migration and class in the midst of many other issues that affect community cohesion Drawing on original empirical research Hannah Jones contends that local government workers must often occupy uncomfortable positions when managing ethical professional and political commitments Ultimately she reveals the surprising extent to which governmental power affects the lives and emotions of the people who wield it Religion and Civil Society in Europe Joep de Hart, Paul Dekker, Loek Halman, 2013-07-15 Religion is back again in Europe after never having been gone It is manifest in the revival of religious institutions and traditions in former communist countries in political controversies about the relationship between the church and the state and about the freedom of religion and the freedom to criticize religion and in public unease about religious minorities This book is about religion and civil society in Europe It moves from general theoretical and normative approaches of this relationship via the examination of national patterns of religion state relations to in depth analyses of the impact of religion and secularization on the values pro social attitudes and civic engagement of individuals It covers Europe from the Lutheran North to the Catholic South and from the secularized West to the Orthodox East and Islamic South East with comparative analyses and country studies concluding with an overall Europe USA comparison Integrating Immigrants in Europe Peter Scholten, Han Entzinger, Rinus Penninx, Stijn Verbeek, 2015-06-02 This open access book explores how research and policymaking in the field of migrant integration have developed historically and how this interrelationship plays out in the strongly politicised climate of opinions on migration in Europe It features interdisciplinary theoretical contributions as well as original empirical studies on research policy dialogues at both the EU and country level The chapters study not only how the dialogue between research and policy is structured such as advisory bodies research agencies and ad hoc committees but also how these dialogues affect policymaking and the development of migrant integration research itself as well The analysis reveals profound changes in the dialogue structures associated with the research policy nexus in the domain of migrant integration On the one hand dialogue structures have become more ad hoc often established in response to distinct political events or to specific problems On the other politicisation has not thwarted all efforts to develop more institutionalised dialogue structures between producers and users of knowledge In addition research has contributed to policymaking in very different ways in various European countries This edited volume is unique in this effort to reflect on the impact of research policy dialogues both on the development of migrant integration policies as well as on migrant integration research It will be of importance to scholars in this field as well as to policymakers and other stakeholders involved in migrant integration policymaking

Foreigners, minorities and integration Sarah Hackett, 2015-11-01 This book explores the arrival and development of Muslim immigrant communities in Britain and Germany during the post 1945 period through the case studies of Newcastle upon Tyne and Bremen It traces Newcastle s South Asian Muslims and Bremen s Turkish Muslims from their initial settlement through to the end of the twentieth century and investigates their behaviour and performance in the areas of employment housing and education At a time at when Islam is sometimes seen as a barrier to integration and harmony in Europe this study demonstrates that this need not be the case In what is the first comparison of Muslim ethnic minorities in Britain and Germany at a local level this book reveals that instances of integration have been frequent It is essential reading for both academics and students with an interest in migration studies modern Britain and Germany and the place of Islam in contemporary Europe

The Right to an Age-Friendly City Meghan Joy, 2020-12-03 A context of aging populations and urbanization has sparked a global movement to make urban spaces age friendly The Age Friendly City program developed by the World Health Organization aims to improve local environments for all population groups promote a positive aging identity and empower local policy actors to support senior citizens Despite growing enthusiasm and policy work by local governments worldwide considerable gaps remain These lacunae have led scholars and activists alike to align age friendly city work with the concept of the right to the city In The Right to an Age Friendly City Meghan Joy zeroes in on the intricacies of developing an environment that promotes social and spatial justice for the elderly in Toronto Weaving together the stories struggles and victories of local activists government staff and frontline service providers Joy maps this complex policy area and examines the ways in which age friendly work successfully enhances senior citizens access to services and support in the local environment recognizes the diverse needs of senior citizens in the city and empowers policy actors from local government and the non profit sector to support senior citizens A detailed and timely examination The Right to an Age Friendly City offers both broad and tangible insights into the intermingled political economic cultural and administrative changes needed to protect the rights of senior citizens to access urban space in Toronto and beyond

Why We Believe Alister McGrath, 2025-01-23 Belief surely it s a relic from the past a hangover from a superstitious age that is totally out of sync with today s rational science led culture A timely often bracing and always highly stimulating book Tom Holland author of Dominion and co host of The Rest is History In today s science driven rational world belief is dismissed as an artefact of a bygone era something absurd at best harmful at worst The prevailing narratives paint belief as primitive weird even dangerous But as life grows ever more confusing and our societies more atomised contemplating something bigger than ourselves has never been more vital Alister McGrath offers a fresh perspective on belief presenting it not as a weakness of rational thought but as an essential tool for navigating uncertainty Elegant and thought provoking Why We Believe reveals how belief provides meaning in the face of existential despair how it fosters community and offers solace As society moves beyond the dismissive rhetoric surrounding people of faith here is a powerful manifesto for the re enchantment of the Western mind Scholarly compulsively readable and with gems of information on every page a must read Revd Fergus Butler Gallie author of A Field Guide to the English Clergy Practices of Freedom Steven Griggs,Aletta J. Norval,Hendrik Wagenaar,2014-04-07 The shift from government to governance has become a starting point for many studies of contemporary policy making and democracy Practices of Freedom takes a different approach calling into question this dominant narrative and taking the variety hybridity and dispersion of social and political practices as its focus of analysis Bringing together leading scholars in democratic theory and critical policy studies it draws upon new understandings of radical democracy practice and interpretative analysis to emphasise the productive role of actors and political conflict in the formation and reproduction of contemporary forms of democratic governance Integrating theoretical dialogues with detailed empirical studies this book examines spaces for democratisation institutional design democratic criteria and learning whilst mobilising the frameworks of agonistic and aversive democracy informality and decentred legitimacy in cases from youth engagement to the Israeli Palestinian conflict Hold Your Friends Close Sarah Logan,2023 In Hold Your Friends Close Sarah Logan provides the first exploration of counter radicalization policy and homegrown extremism through a theoretical and historical lens While there are some basic similarities in approach across countries there are important divergences too Logan argues that this stems from different ideas about the nature of citizenship and national belonging Providing the first detailed policy history of counter radicalization in the US and the UK as well as a detailed overview of counter radicalization policies globally Hold Your Friends Close is an essential read for scholars and policymakers who work on terrorism and its sources Understanding housing policy (third edition) Brian Lund,2011-04-13 What are the major housing problems in contemporary Britain How effective are the policies designed to tackle these problems These are the central questions this book sets out to answer using a critical approach to identifying housing problems and the formation of policy Understanding housing policy is an up to date text on a rapidly changing policy field written by an author with extensive experience in implementing housing policy The second edition of this best selling text has been completely revised and includes a new chapter on the political processes involved in the construction and delivery of housing policies In addition the new edition reviews theoretical perspectives helpful in understanding the normative dimensions of housing policy examines explanations of policy development and implementation processes explores the development of housing policy in the United Kingdom contains a chapter on comparative housing policy examines a number of contemporary housing problems affordability homelessness low demand and neighbourhood deprivation overcrowding multi occupation decent homes and sustainable housing devotes a chapter to the relationship between housing and social justice includes an assessment of the impact of New Labour s housing policies and the policy orientation of the Conservative Liberal Democrat Coalition For more detailed information on this title please go to the author s website <http://housingpolicy.moonfruit.com>      The British Growth Crisis J. Green,C. Hay,P. Taylor-Gooby,2015-02-10 Britain remains mired in the most severe and prolonged economic crisis that it has faced since the 1930s What would it take to find a new more stable and more sustainable growth model for Britain in the years ahead This important volume written by a number of influential commentators seeks to provide some answers      Condo Conquest Randy K. Lippert,2019-01-15 When condominiums first emerged in North American cities in the 1960s they were a new kind of housing governed by boards of resident owners volunteering in a community Condo Conquest shows how the condo and its inner governance have since become something else entirely taken over or conquered by an assemblage of firms specializing in condo law real estate security and property management as well as growing numbers of non resident investors who purchase condo units as commodities Drawing on the accounts of residents and board directors in Toronto and New York and myriad other sources Randy Lippert takes a close look at the inner workings of condoization He shows how condo governance increasingly involves a complex set of legal social and spatial relationships among various elements assembled together including commercial agents forms of knowledge and technologies The first major study of condominium governance in North America Condo Conquest questions assumptions about the condo and its governance By illuminating the complex set of agents processes and forms of knowledge that have taken over the condo world Lippert discerns a number of troubling trends that imperil the condo s future and undermine the integrity of urban communities      Key Concepts in Migration David Bartram,Maritsa V Poros,Pierre Monforte,2014-04-14 Demonstrates that the study of international migration has really come of age From acculturation to undocumented immigration the authors consider more than three dozen concepts at the heart of migration studies Clearly written in a highly readable style the book is a valuable resource for students and scholars alike Nancy Foner City University of New York This very useful and authoritative compendium explicates thirty eight concepts central to analysis of international migration It is accessible to undergraduate students and even can enrich graduate courses It nicely complements books like The Age of Migration or Exceptional People Concision is a virtue Mark J Miller University of Delaware This book provides lucid and intuitive explanations of the most important migration concepts as used in classrooms among policymakers and in popular and academic discourse Arguing that there is a clear need for a better public understanding of migration it sets out to clarify the field by exploring relevant concepts in a direct and engaging way Each concept Includes an easy to understand definition Provides real world examples Gives suggestions for further reading Is carefully cross referenced to other related concepts It is an ideal resource for undergraduate and post graduate students studying migration in sociology politics development and throughout the social sciences as well as scholars in the field and practitioners in governmental and non governmental organizations      Black Handsworth Kieran Connell,2019-01-15 In 1980s Britain while the country failed to reckon with the legacies of its empire a black transnational sensibility was emerging in its urban areas In Handsworth an inner city neighborhood of Birmingham black residents looked across the Atlantic toward African and Afro Caribbean social and political cultures and drew upon them while navigating the inequalities of their locale For those of the Windrush generation and their British born children this diasporic inheritance became a core influence on cultural and political life Through rich case studies including photographic representations of the neighborhood Black Handsworth takes readers inside pubs churches political organizations domestic spaces and social clubs to shed light on the experiences and everyday lives of black residents during this time The result is a compelling and sophisticated study of black globality in the making of post colonial Britain      Developing Professional Practice 7-14 Viv Wilson,Sue Kendall-Seatter,2013-11-04 Developing Professional Practice 7 14 provides a thoroughly comprehensive and cutting edge guide to developing the necessary knowledge skills and understanding for teaching within the 7 14 age range This book is designed to guide you through your initial teacher training programme and on into the early stages of your career with the aim of stimulating and supporting you in the process of developing your practice A range of pedagogical features are provided in each chapter to encourage reflection interaction and debate Over to you features pose questions that will encourage you to examine your own knowledge understanding and practical skills Working in the Classroom features will help you to envisage how the material covered might impact on your classroom practice Case studies offer extended examples that help illustrate core concepts and theories in action Controversy features provide in depth discussion of issues that are ongoing causes for debate Research briefing boxes explore recent research studies and explain their bearing on day to day practice Additional resources and support are provided via the Developing Professional Practice companion website www.pearsoned.co.uk/714 where you can access additional self study questions case studies interactive chapter by chapter tutorials interviews with practitioners and students and a glossary of key terms Developing Professional Practice 7 14 is essential reading for anyone training to teach in primary or secondary schools as well as those specialising in the middle years specifically It will also prove an invaluable resource for all those already in the early stages of their careers      Public Space Design and Social Cohesion Patricia Aelbrecht,Quentin Stevens,2019-01-22 Social cohesion is often perceived as being under threat from the increasing cultural and economic differences in contemporary cities and the increasing intensity of urban life Public space in its role as the main stage for social interactions between strangers clearly plays a role in facilitating or limiting opportunities for social cohesion But what exactly is social cohesion how is it experienced in the public realm and what role can the design of city spaces have in supporting or promoting it There are significant knowledge gaps between the social sciences and design disciplines and between academia and practice and thus a dispersed knowledge base that currently lacks nuanced insight into how urban design contributes to social integration or segregation This book brings together scholarly knowledge at the intersection of public space design and social cohesion It is based on original scholarly research and a depth of urban design practice and analyses case studies from a variety of cities and cultures across the Global North and Global South Its interdisciplinary cross cultural analysis will be of interest to academics students policymakers and practitioners engaged with a range of subject areas including urban design urban planning architecture landscape cultural studies human geography social policy sociology and anthropology It will also have significant appeal to a wider non academic readership given its topical subject matter

Working the Spaces of Power Janet

Newman,2012-08-07 This book highlights the way in which contemporary forms of governance policy and politics have been reframed by women working the spaces of power It shows how links between activism and work have generated innovations that have since become common sense forms of policy and practice Janet Newman draws on interviews with a wide variety of women in positions of power some at the highest levels of government some who have led major voluntary bodies others who are entrepreneurs philanthropists community activists and campaigners All of their work has been informed by a range of social movements and activist commitments Newman uses these interviews to interrogate develop and challenge existing approaches to understanding social and political change

Aging in Comparative Perspective Ian Gillespie Cook, Jamie

Halsall,2012-02-03 This book examines the key aging processes in seven countries United States United Kingdom Sweden Japan China Nepal and South Africa and the main policies that have been and are being developed to deal with this rapid change in the demographic profile It addresses the problems that are identified as well as the positive aspects of aging within each of these contrasting societies Thus it makes a significant contribution to the major debates about growing old across the globe

Inside High-Rise Housing Megan Nethercote,2022-06-30 EPDF and EPUB available Open Access under CC BY

NC ND licence Condominium and comparable legal architectures make vertical urban growth possible but do we really understand the social implications of restructuring city land ownership in this way Geographer and architect Megan Nethercote enters the condo tower to explore the hidden social and territorial dynamics of private vertical communities Informed by residents accounts of Australian high rise living this book shows how legal and physical architectures fuse in ways that jeopardize residents experience of home and stigmatize renters As cities sprawl skywards and private renting expands this compelling geographic analysis of property identifies high rise development s overlooked hand in social segregation and urban fragmentation and raises bold questions about the condominium s prospects
