Comparative Poetics Earl Roy Miner,1990-10-23 Comparative literature Earl Miner writes clearly involves something more than comparing two great German poets and something different from a Chinese studying French literature or a Russian studying Italian literature But what would a true intercultural poetics be This work proposes various ways to study something other than what are all things considered the short and simple annals of one cultural parish at one historic moment The first developed account of theories of literature from an intercultural standpoint the book shows that an originative or foundational poetics develops in cultures with explicit poetics when critics define the nature and conditions of literature in terms of the then most esteemed genres drama lyric or narrative Earl Miner demonstrates that these definitions and inferences from them constitute useful bases for comparative poetics Configurations of Comparative Poetics Zong-qi Cai,2001-12-30 This comprehensive comparative study of Western and Chinese poetics begins with broad examinations of the two traditions over more than two and a half millennia From these parallel surveys a series of important theoretical questions arises How do Western and Chinese critics conceptualize the nature origin and function of literature What are the fundamental differences if any in their ways of thinking about literature Can we account for these differences by examining Western truth based and Chinese process based cosmological paradigms What are the major distinctive concepts of literature developed within Western and Chinese poetics How have these concepts impacted the development of the two traditions at various times After considering a wide range of major critical texts Configurations of Comparative Poetics presents bold and cogent answers to these questions while shedding light on the distinctive orientations of Western and Chinese poetics The second half of the book features four comparative case studies Plato and Confucius on poetry Wordsworth and Liu Xie on the creative process the twentieth century Imagists and their earlier Chinese counterparts on the relationship of the Chinese written character to poetics and Derrida and the Madhyamika Buddhists on language and onto theology The author not only identifies an array of critical concerns shared by Western and Chinese critics but also differentiates the conceptual models used by each and traces them to cosmological paradigms Comparative Poetics International Comparative Literature Association. blocks of literary worlds are their oral visual and written modes and three themes challenge perception and relation They are blended and inflected in different ways by combinations of narratives and figures indirection thwarted aspirations meta usages hypothetical action as well as hierarchies and blends of genres and text types Moreover literary worlds are not only constructed by humans but also shape their lives and reinforce their sense of wonder Finally ten reasons are given in order to show how this comparative view can be of use in literary studies In sum How Literary Worlds Are Shaped is the first study to present a wide ranging and detailed comparative account of the makings of literary worlds New Comparative Poetics,2001 Comparative Poetics,1996 Language and Interpretation Longxi Zhang,1989 Comparative poetics Douwe Wessel Fokkema,Elrud Ibsch,A.
