Story #1: Aisha's Kite

James and Aisha were running through the park with their kites flying behind them in the wind. The wind changed suddenly and Aisha's kite flew into the branches of a tree. No matter how hard Aisha pulled the kite string, it would not budge. "Give me a boost," Aisha said to James, and he held his hands for her to use as a step. With his help, she climbed up to the first branch and pulled the kite down!

Story #2: Max Gets Lost

Kylie was at the park with her dog, Max. She threw a ball for him to fetch, when suddenly a rabbit ran by. Max chased after the rabbit, and when it ran into some bushes, Max followed. Kylie called after Max, but he didn't return. She looked through the bushes and couldn't see him or the rabbit anywhere! After looking all over, she heard laughter and shouting from a baseball field where she could see a large black dog chasing after a baseball in the middle of the game. It was Max!

The classroom reality is that many students are not ready or motivated to immerse themselves in an entire novel. In order to reach and engage all students, teachers need to look beyond novels alone and embrace a richer variety of literature. In Less Is More, Kimberly Hill Campbell draws on research as well as her own classroom experiences to show how short texts engage a wide range of middle and high school students. She shares her discovery of the power of short texts to support her students' skills as readers, writers, and students of literature. Kimberly shows how short texts can be integrated into the curriculum without sacrificing required novels. Chapters examine different genres of short text, such as short stories, essays, memoir, and graphic novels. Each chapter provides reading, writing, and response strategies as well as a broad selection of short text resources that have proven effective with a wide range of students. Parent's Guide to the Common Core: 5th Grade Kaplan Test Prep, 2014-07-01 Helping Your Child Succeed in Fifth Grade. A Parent's Guide to the Common Core. You can expect to see a number of changes in your child's fifth grade class. In English, students will now read more Informational Texts. In Mathematics, students will spend more time developing their understanding of specific and important math concepts. Students will be expected to both demonstrate understanding of each topic and apply their mathematical skills to real-world situations. As a parent, it is important not only to understand the new standards but also to have the tools to help your child do his or her best in school. This book is designed to provide you with the guidance and resources to support
