A Comparison of Financial Literacy Levels in Countries of Europe Libena Kantnerová et. al.,2015-12-08 This book provides a detailed comparison of financial literacy levels in Europe PISA 2012 Results: Students and Money

(Volume VI) Financial Literacy Skills for the 21st Century OECD,2014-07-09 This sixth volume of PISA 2012 results examines 15 year old students performance in financial literacy in the 18 countries and economies that participated in this optional assessment Behavioral Finance in the Digital Era Elżbieta Kubińska,Magdalena Adamczyk-Kowalczyk,Anna Macko,2023-12-18

Due to swift technological changes and the resultant digital revolution a wide range of new digital financial products and services have emerged in the financial markets as witnessed in the context of the fintech sector the economics of blockchain and NFT issuance This book takes an in depth look at the challenges faced by individuals who make investment decisions in a rapidly changing financial world and presents a concise and thorough overview of the multifaceted approach to investment and savings behavior It explores behavioral digital finance referencing the latest theories in economic psychology and financial markets and provides an analysis of the process of saving and investing in the context of our new digital reality where an understanding of human AI interaction and its benefits and threats is extremely important It combines an accessible overview of classical and new behavioral theories models of financial decision making as well as an analysis of the new trends in financial decision making Special attention is given to financial decision support systems and the role of financial advice services which are of growing importance due to their increasing complexity and difficulty The book combines theoretical considerations and wide reaching empirical analyses from a representative sample of international respondents It deals with the individual approach to human risk taking and human AI interaction and its benefits and threats The book explores how people react to algorithms what drives algorithm aversion and appreciation and how understanding of those mechanisms can be employed to improve financial advisory systems and also considers the impact of the Covid 19 pandemic on financial behavior Chapter 4 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at www.taylorfrancis.com under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 International license PISA 2022 Results (Volume IV) How Financially Smart Are Students? OECD,2024-06-27 This volume presents the financial literacy results of the OECD Programme for International Student Assessment PISA 2022 and examines 15 year old students understanding of money matters in 20 countries and economies It explores the links between their financial literacy and their competencies in mathematics and reading and differences across socio demographic groups It also offers an overview of their experiences with money their financial behaviour and attitudes and their exposure to financial literacy at home and in school PISA 2018 Assessment and Analytical Framework OECD,2019-04-26 This report presents the conceptual foundations of the OECD Programme for International Student Assessment PISA now in its seventh cycle of comprehensive and rigorous international surveys of student knowledge skills and well being Like previous cycles the 2018 assessment covered reading mathematics and science with the major focus this cycle on reading literacy plus an evaluation of students global competence their ability to understand and appreciate the perspectives and world views of others Financial literacy was also offered as an optional assessment Financial education Kristof De Witte, Oliver Holz, Kenneth De Beckker, 2020

In a world where individuals become increasingly responsible for their financial well being and where the complexity of financial markets and products is growing financial education becomes crucial Although it is well accepted to introduce financial education in compulsory education there is no consensus on the optimal way to implement financial education This book explores the current state and the future challenges of financial education in five European countries Belgium Estonia Italy Slovakia and the Netherlands Moreover it provides a comprehensive review of the academic literature on financial literacy The book is a product of a strategic partnership with professionals from 14 partners including universities secondary schools and intermediary organisations dealing with financial literacy promotion The EUFin project supported by this partnership aims to develop evidence based didactical material for financial literacy education for tertiary and secondary education levels and exchange best practices PISA 2012 Assessment and Analytical Framework

Mathematics, Reading, Science, Problem Solving and Financial Literacy OECD, 2013-02-11 This book presents the conceptual framework underlying the fifth cycle of PISA which covers reading science and this year s focus mathematical literacy along with problem solving and financial literacy Financial Literacy in Europe Gianni Nicolini, 2019-01-23 Are people ready to take pivotal financial decisions like choosing a mortgage saving for retirement or investing their savings How does the degree of knowledge about financial products and services affect the quality of their choices Can financial fraud be prevented by increasing consumer financial knowledge Financial Literacy in Europe addresses these important questions and more In the first part the author investigates the concept of financial literacy by analyzing its components and comparing different definitions from previous studies This then forms a comprehensive measure of financial literacy to be applied in empirical studies that analyze the role of financial literacy in explaining consumers financial behaviors In the second part of the study the author uses brand new data collected by the Consumer Finance Research Center CFRC from several European countries the UK Germany France Italy Sweden and Spain to assess financial literacy in Europe and highlight similarities and differences across countries Filling an important gap in previous research the author develops a rigorous approach in the measurement of financial literacy in order to examine European financial literacy issues in great detail This book therefore is a useful resource for assessing the effectiveness of single financial education programs or planning national strategies on financial education It can also support policy makers in developing financial regulation and consumer protection strategies considering the consumer perspective and their ability to deal with financial markets and institutions Financial and Economic Tools Used in the World Hospitality Industry Ford Lumban Gaol, Natalia Filimonova, Vladimir

Maslennikov, 2018-06-18 The 2017 Fifth International Conference on Management and Technology in Knowledge Service

Tourism Hospitality SERVE 2017 was held on 21-22 October 2017 and on 30 November 2017 in Bali Indonesia and at the Financial University under the Government of the Russian Federation Moscow Russia. The theme of the conference was Financial and Economic Tools Used in the World Hospitality Industry. Conference contributions dealt with various interdisciplinary research topics particularly in the fields of social sciences, economics, business management, education and finance. Through this conference proceedings volume we propose to launch a renewed discussion of how financial and economic tools can be used in the world hospitality service and tourism industries. The purpose of this volume is to develop new theoretical and empirical knowledge that explores the possibilities of developing tourism hospitality service industries in sharing economy. These proceedings should be of interest to academics and professionals in the wider field of social sciences including disciplines such as education, psychology, tourism and knowledge management.

Contemporary Approaches in Businesses Süleyman Uyar, 2019-03-15. Developments in information and communication technology, human-centered philosophies, globalization and increasingly complex organizational and labor structure have forced to change the management thought. It became impossible to survive for businesses which can not attune the changes. Businesses are re-questioning their traditional marketing approaches, reviewing their methods and priorities and showing more interest in productivity, profitability, control, measurement and evaluation topics. Globalization and developments in information and communication technologies have influenced the business manners of businesses. Especially accounting, finance, marketing and management functions are highly influenced by this process. In this context, in this study, the possible effects of contemporary approaches in business administration on each of the business function.

PISA 2015 Results (Volume IV) Students' Financial Literacy OECD, 2017-05-24. The OECD Programme for International Student Assessment (PISA) examines not just what students know in science, reading and mathematics but what they can do with what they know. Results from PISA show educators and policy makers the quality and equity of learning outcomes achieved elsewhere.

PISA 2018 Results (Volume IV) Are Students Smart about Money? OECD, 2020-05-07. The OECD Programme for International Student Assessment (PISA) examines what students know in reading, mathematics and science and what they can do with what they know. This is one of six volumes that present the results of the PISA 2018 survey, the seventh round of the triennial assessment. Volume IV, Are Students Smart about Money, examines 15-year-old students' understanding about money matters in the 20 countries and economies that participated in this optional assessment.

The Relevance of Financial Literacy Edoardo Lanciano, 2025-07-21. This book provides a general overview on the topic of financial literacy.
