Consuming Passions Philippa Pullar,1977 Elizabeth: Renaissance Prince Lisa Hilton,2015-11-10 This surprising portrait of the Tudor queen offers an ambitious re examination of the intersection of gender and monarchy The New York Times Book Review Queen Elizabeth I was all too happy to play on courtly conventions of gender when it suited her weak and feeble woman s body to do so for political gain But in Elizabeth historian Lisa Hilton offers ample evidence why those famous words should not be taken at face value With new research out of France Italy Russia and Turkey Hilton s fresh interpretation is of a queen who saw herself primarily as a Renaissance prince an expert in Machiavellian statecraft Elizabeth depicts a sovereign less constrained by her femininity than most accounts claim challenging readers to reassess Elizabeth s reign and the colorful drama and intrigue to which it is always linked It s a fascinating journey that shows how a marginalized newly crowned monarch whose European contemporaries considered her to be the illegitimate ruler of a pariah nation ultimately adapted to become England s first recognizably modern head of state Mrs Beeton's Book of Household Management Isabella Beeton,2008-06-12 Alternately fashionable and frugal anxious and self confident this text highlights the concerns of the Victorian middle class at a key point in its history Food Warren Belasco,2008-09-01 Food The Key Concepts presents an exciting coherent and interdisciplinary introduction to food studies for the beginning reader Food Studies is an increasingly complex field drawing on disciplines as diverse as Sociology Anthropology and Cultural Studies at one end and Economics Politics and Agricultural Science at the other In order to clarify the issues Food The Key Concepts distills food choices down to three competing considerations consumer identity matters of convenience and price and an awareness of the consequences of what is consumed The book concludes with an examination of two very different future scenarios for feeding the world s population the technological fix which looks to science to provide the solution to our future food needs and the anthropological fix which hopes to change our expectations and behaviors Throughout the analysis is illustrated with lively case studies Bulleted chapter summaries questions and guides to further reading are also provided
