Contemporary Arab American Women Writers Hyphenated Identities And Border Crossings:

Contemporary Arab American Women Writers: Hyphenated Identities and Border Crossings, Contemporary Arab American Women Writers Amal Talaat Abdelrazek, 2014-05-14 This is a profound study of how contemporary Arab American women writers who have been marginalized and silenced especially after 9 11 are pointing out the racism oppression and marginalization they experience in the United States and are beginning to uncover the particularities of their own ethnic histories The book focuses mainly on four works by contemporary Arab American women writers A Border Passage 1999 by Leila Ahmed Emails from Scheherazad by Mohja Khaf West of the Jordan 2003 by Laila Halaby and Crescent 2003 by Diana Abu Jaber examining how each of these works uniquely tackles the idea of having a hyphenated identity an identity that has been complicated by living in a hostile environment and living in a borderzone In this book the author articulately examines how Leila Ahmed Mohja Khaf Laila Halaby and Diana Abu Jaber explore what it means to belong to a nation as it wages war in their Arab homelands supports the elimination of Palestine and racializes Arab men as terrorists and Arab women as oppressed victims while investigating the themes of exile doubleness split vision and difference Using postcolonial and feminist literary theories the author insightfully investigates how these Arab American women writers critique intellectual tendencies that might be understood as making concessions to Western and Orientalist fundamentalist regimes and movements that in effect abandon Arab women to their iron rule Contemporary Arab-American

Literature Carol Fadda-Conrey, 2014 The last couple of decades have witnessed a flourishing of Arab American literature across multiple genres Yet increased interest in this literature is ironically paralleled by a prevalent bias against Arabs and Muslims that portrays their long presence in the US as a recent and unwelcome phenomenon Spanning the 1990s to the present Carol Fadda Conrey takes in the sweep of literary and cultural texts by Arab American writers in order to understand the ways in which their depictions of Arab homelands whether actual or imagined play a crucial role in shaping cultural articulations of US citizenship and belonging By asserting themselves within a US framework while maintaining connections to their homelands Arab Americans contest the blanket representations of themselves as dictated by the US nation state Deploying a multidisciplinary framework at the intersection of Middle Eastern studies US ethnic studies and diaspora studies Fadda Conrey argues for a transnational discourse that overturns the often rigid affiliations embedded in ethnic labels Tracing the shifts in transnational perspectives from the founders of Arab American literature like Gibran Kahlil Gibran and Ameen Rihani to modern writers such as Naomi Shihab Nye Joseph Geha Randa Jarrar and Suheir Hammad Fadda Conrey finds that contemporary Arab American writers depict strong yet complex attachments to the US landscape She explores how the idea of home is negotiated between immigrant parents and subsequent generations alongside analyses of texts that work toward fostering more nuanced understandings of Arab and Muslim identities in the wake of post 9 11 anti Arab sentiments

The Migrant in Arab Literature Martina Censi, Maria Elena Paniconi, 2022-12-20 This edited book offers a collection of fresh and critical essays that explore the representation of the migrant subject in modern and contemporary Arabic literature and discuss its role in shaping new forms of transcultural and transnational identities The selection of essays in this volume offers a set of new insights on a cluster of tropes self discovery alienation nostalgia transmission and translation of knowledge sense of exile reconfiguration of the relationship with the past and the identity and the building of transnational identity A coherent yet multi faceted narrative of micro stories and of transcultural and transnational Arab identities will emerge from the essays the volume aims at reversing the traditional perspective according to which a migrant subject is a non political actor In contrast to many books about migration and literature this one explores how the migrant subject becomes a specific literary trope a catalyst of modern alienation displacement and uncertain identity suggesting new forms of subjectification Multiple representations of the migrant subject inform and perform the possibility of new post national and transcultural individual and group identities and actively contribute to rewriting and decolonizing history

American Novel of the Twentieth and Twenty-First Centuries Timo Müller, 2017-01-11 Increasing specialization within the discipline of English and American Studies has shifted the focus of scholarly discussion toward theoretical reflection and cultural contexts. These developments have benefitted the discipline in more ways than one but they have also resulted in a certain neglect of close reading. As a result, students and researchers interested in such material are forced to turn to scholarship from the 1960s and 1970s, much of which relies on dated methodological and ideological presuppositions. The handbook aims to fill this gap by providing new readings of texts that figure prominently in the literature classroom and in scholarly debate, from James's The Ambassadors to McCarthy's The Road. These readings do not revert naively to a time before theory. Instead, they distill the insights of literary and cultural theory into concise introductions to the historical background, the themes, the formal strategies, and the reception of influential literary texts, and they do so in a jargon-free language accessible to readers on all levels of qualification.

Art and the Artist in Society Jane Elizabeth Alberdeston, Elsa Luciano Feal, José Jiménez-Justiniano, 2013-07-16 Art and Artist in Society is a compilation of essays that examine the nexus between artists, the art they create, and society. These essays consider how art has changed its form and role both to accommodate newer trends and to fully participate in society. Divided into six thematic sections, the book examines the works of a diverse group of artists working in a range of art forms, such as writers Milan Kundera and Judith Ortiz Cofer, filmmakers Humberto Solís and Walter Salles, performers, photographer Daniel Joseph Martinez, and feminist activists Suzanne Lacy and Leslie Labowitz. The analyses of the work of these artists and other artists offer readers an opportunity to explore a number of important issues in art today, such as the representation of the Other, the exploration of alternative sources of knowledge, and the construction of the self. For the array of works it analyzes, this book offers fascinating insights into the art and the artists of the 20th and 21st centuries.

It discusses their achievements and their tactics, bringing together international scholars to draw on intersectionality as an important methodological tool in the analysis of the work of many outstanding women from diverse countries, such as Yemen, Nigeria, Russia, India, and the USA. The focus of this volume is the impact of women successfully building peace through nonviolent means. It also provides a study of how and why gender matters in the contemporary world and will serve the needs of students and scholars in peace and conflict resolution studies, women's studies, international development, political science, history, and sociology.
