Mitchell, 2011-03-03 Dedicated to the renowned Safavid historian Roger Savory this book brings together a collection of studies on the Safavid state of Iran 1501-1722 from the perspectives of political social literary and artistic history Savory a doyen of Safavid studies in the 1960s and 1970s was responsible for expanding and popularizing the study of Iran in the 16th and 17th century To celebrate this legacy well established scholars of medieval and early modern Iran have contributed specific studies reflecting an array of research interests and specializations which include critical re-examinations of issues of gender literature art and architecture cultural and linguistic currents illustrated historical chronicles and courtly and administrative practices under the Safavid dynasty This unique compilation is indicative of a growing interest in Iran and Iranian studies in both the academic and public spheres and as such contains a number of new perspectives which will serve to supplement and re-interpret the existing corpus of Safavid scholarly literature to date It will be an important text for scholars of world history and Middle East studies as well as to historians in general Contemporary Art from the Middle East Hamid Keshmirshakan, 2015-02-06 How is home grown contemporary art viewed within the Middle East And is it understood differently outside the region What is liable to be lost when contemporary art from the Middle East is transferred to international contexts and how can it be reclaimed This timely book tackles ongoing questions about how local perspectives on contemporary art from the Middle East are defined and how these perspectives intersect with global art discourses Inside leading figures from the Middle Eastern art world western art historians art theorists and museum curators discuss the historical and cultural circumstances which have shaped contemporary art from the Middle East reflecting on recent exhibitions and curatorial projects and revealing how artists have struggled with the label of Middle Eastern Artist Chapters reflect on the fundamental methodologies of art history and cultural studies considering how relevant they are when studying contemporary art from the Middle East and investigate the ways in which contemporary so called global theories impact on the making of art in the region Drawing on their unique expertise the book s contributors offer completely new perspectives on the most recent cultural intellectual and socio political developments of contemporary art from the Middle East

A Companion to Contemporary Art in a Global Framework Jane Chin Davidson, Amelia Jones, 2023-10-16

A Companion to Contemporary Art in a Global Framework explores the ways specialists and institutions in the fine arts curation cultural studies and art history have attempted to situate art in a more global framework since the 1980s Offering analyses of the successes and setbacks of these efforts to globalize the art world this innovative volume presents a new and exciting way of considering art in its global contexts Essays by an international panel of leading scholars and practicing artists assert that what we talk about as art is essentially a Western concept thus any attempts at understanding art in a global framework require a revising of established conceptual definitions Organized into three sections this work first reviews the history and theory of the visual arts since 1980 and introduces readers to the emerging area of scholarship that seeks to place contemporary art in a global framework The second section traces the progression of recent developments in the art world focusing on the historical and cultural contexts surrounding efforts to globalize the art world and the visual arts in particular global and transnational frameworks The final section addresses a wide range of key themes in contemporary art such as the fundamental institutions and ontologies of art practice and the interactions among art politics and the public sphere A Companion to Contemporary Art in a Global Framework is essential reading for undergraduate and graduate students scholars researchers and general readers interested in exploring global art beyond the traditional Euro American context

The Cultural Politics of Art in Iran Katrin Nahidi, 2023-09-21

Modernist Iranian art represents a highly diverse field of cultural production deeply involved in discussing questions of modernity and modernization as practiced in Iran This book investigates how artistic production and art criticism reflected upon the discourse about gharbzadegi westoxification the most substantial critique of Iran s adaptation of Western modernity and ultimately proved to be a laboratory for the negotiation of an anti colonial concept of an Iranian artistic modernity which artists and critics envisioned as a significant other to Western colonial modernity In this book Katrin Nahidi revisits Iranian modernist art aiming to explore a political and contextualized interpretation of modernism Based on extensive fieldwork interviews and archival research Nahidi provides a history of modernist art production since the 1950s and reveals the complex political agency underlying art historiographical processes Offering a key contribution to postcolonial art history Nahidi shows how Iranian artistic modernity was used to flesh out anti colonial concepts and ideas around Iranian national identity Precarious Lives Shahram Khosravi,2017-01-25 In Precarious Lives Shahram Khosravi attempts to reconcile the paradoxes of Iranians everyday life in the first decade of the twenty first century On the one hand multiple circumstances of precarity give rise to a sense of hopelessness shared visions of a futureless tomorrow widespread home land lessness intense individualism and a growth of incivilities On the other daydreaming and hope as well as civility and solidarity in political protests street carnivals and social movements continue to persist Young Iranians describe themselves as being stuck in purposelessness and forced to endure endless waiting and they are also aware that they are perceived as unproductive and a burden on their society Despite the aspirations and inspiration they possess they find themselves forced into petrifying social and spatial immobility Uncertainty in the present a seemingly futureless tomorrow these are the circumstances that Khosravi explores in Precarious Lives Creating an intricate and moving portrait of contemporary Iranian life Khosravi weaves together individual stories government reports statistics and cultural analysis of art and literature to depict how Iranians react to the experience of precarity and the possibility of hope Drawing on extensive ethnographic engagement with youth in Tehran and Isfahan as well as with migrant workers in rural areas Khosravi examines the complexities and contradictions of everyday life in Iran Precarious Lives is a vital work of contemporary anthropology that serves as a testament to the shared hardship and hope of the Iranian people Alternative Iran Pamela Karimi,2022-09-27 Alternative Iran offers a unique contribution to the field of contemporary art investigating how Iranian artists engage with space and site amid the pressures of the art market and the state s regulatory regimes Since the 1980s political economic and intellectual forces have driven Iran s creative class toward increasingly original forms of artmaking not meant for official venues Instead these art forms appear in private homes with trusted audiences derelict buildings leftover urban zones and remote natural sites While many of these venues operate independently others are fully sanctioned by the state Drawing on interviews with over a hundred artists gallerists theater experts musicians and designers Pamela Karimi throws into sharp relief the extraordinary art and performance activities that have received little attention outside Iran Attending to nonconforming curatorial projects independent guerrilla installations escapist practices and tacitly subversive performances Karimi discloses the push and pull between the art community and the authorities and discusses myriad instances of tentative coalition as opposed to outright partnership or uncompromising resistance Illustrated with more than 120 full color images this book provides entry into unique artistic experiences without catering to voyeuristic curiosity around Iran s often perceived underground culture Getty Research Journal No. 3 Thomas W. Gaehtgens,Katja Zelljadt,2011-03 The Getty Research Journal showcases the remarkable original research underway at the Getty Articles explore the rich collections of the J Paul Getty Museum and Research Institute as well as the Research Institute s research projects and annual theme of its scholar program Shorter texts highlight new acquisitions and
