a family that had fired ceramics in cooperative kilns for generations but he rejected traditional modes and went on to be the first artist in Japan to make truly abstract ceramic sculpture In the late 1960s another artist Mishima Kimiyo developed a technique of silkscreening on clay and began making ceramic newspapers to comment on the proliferation of the media She became fascinated with trash recreating it out of clay and worked in relative obscurity for decades until she had a major exhibition in Tokyo in 2015 Featuring a preface by curator writer and historian Glenn Adamson and a foreword by Monika Bincsik the Associate Curator for Japanese Decorative Arts at The Metropolitan Museum of Art Listening to Clay has been a project more than fifteen years in the making for authors Alice and Halsey North respected and knowledgeable collectors and patrons of contemporary Japanese ceramics and Louise Allison Cort Curator Emerita of Ceramics National Museum of Asian Art Smithsonian Institution The book also includes conversations with five important dealers of contemporary Japanese ceramics who have played and are playing a critical role in introducing the work of these artists to the world several detailed appendices and a glossary of terms relevant people and relationships Listening to Clay is a long overdue and insightful book that for the first time spotlights some of Japan s most celebrated contemporary ceramic artists through personal idiosyncratic accounts of their day to day lives giving special access to their creative process and artistic development Library
