The Worldview of the Word of Faith Movement: Eden Redeemed Mikael Stenhammar, 2021-12-16 This volume approaches the Word of Faith as a worldview and analyses the movement through N T Wright's model for worldview analysis in order to provide necessary nuance and complexity to scholarly interpretations of the Word of Faith The reader receives insights into the movement's narrative semiotic practical and propositional dimensions which cumulatively offer a multifaceted understanding of how the Word of Faith interprets reality and engages with the world The analysis shows that there is a narrative core to Word of Faith beliefs in the form of a unique theological story with focus set on the present restoration of Eden's authority and blessings This study demonstrates how the Word of Faith operates as a distinct worldview that parses the world through the lens of faith's causative power to affect a direct correspondence between present reality and Eden's perfection The findings advance a critical and therapeutic approach that acknowledges how the worldview both strengthens and subverts Pentecostalism

Theologies of the Gospel in Context David Schnasa Jacobsen, 2017-08-25 Many preachers and teachers of preaching talk about the gospel few name it Theologies of the Gospel in Context assembles a gifted group of homileticians who think that preachers need to be able to articulate the gospel not in general but in a certain time and place in context They consider what gospel sounds like for people under oppression in capitalist economies in neocolonial contexts for survivors of trauma and for disestablished mainline churches marred by racism Preachers will appreciate these preacher scholars desire to articulate the gospel with clarity especially since the term is so often left unexplained Homileticians will see a new genre of doing their work as teachers and researchers in preaching a vision that helps preaching see itself not just as an adjunct to exegesis or communication but a place of doing theology In these pages homiletics is more than technique it is a truly theological discipline

Faith in the Realm of Reality Lester Boyd, 2020-09-03 Many teach name it and claim it and God has to respond Although the works of Christ alone have completed all the requirements needed for one to be saved and to hear from God man still has the responsibility to allow God to establish a relationship with him In doing so one will not want to live just a standard life but live a life that truly pleases God And the only way to uphold that life is to acknowledge one's own faults and ask God for restoration Understanding faith isn't just for things or healings but also for peace of mind One has to learn to walk with a deeper trust of the Father which is truly amazing when it is experienced Although things may be good in context the reality of His thoughts via His Word should show in reality how much man needs Him This can only be achieved by seeing faith in reality

Wednesday, December 15, and Eight Following Days, (Sunday Excepted). ,1841 Sacred Classics, Or, Cabinet Library of Divinity: Fourteen sermons on the divinity and operations of the Holy Spirit Richard Cattermole, Henry Stebbing, 1835 Christianity in Crisis Hank Hanegraaff, 2012-06-18 Nearly two decades ago Hank Hanegraaff's award winning Christianity in Crisis alerted the world to the dangers of a cultic movement within Christianity that threatened to undermine the very foundation of biblical faith. But in the 21st century there are new dangers: new teachers who threaten to do more damage than the last. These are not obscure teachers that Hanegraaff unmasks. We know their names. We have seen their faces, sat in their churches, and heard them shamelessly preach and promote the false pretexts of a give to get gospel. They are virtual rock stars who command the attention of presidential candidates and media moguls. Through make believe miracles, urban legends, counterfeit Christs, and twisted theological reasoning, they peddle an occult brand of metaphysics that continues to shipwreck the faith of millions around the globe. God cannot do anything in this earthly realm unless we give Him permission. Keep saying it: I have equality with God. Talk yourself into it. Being poor is a sin. The Jews were not rejecting Jesus as Messiah; it was Jesus who was refusing to be the Messiah to the Jews. You create your own world the same way God creates His. He speaks and things happen; you speak and they happen. Christianity in Crisis: 21st Century exposes darkness to light, pointing us back to a Christianity centered in Christ. From the Preface: Having lost the ability to think biblically, postmodern Christians are being transformed from cultural change agents and initiators into cultural conformists and imitators. Pop culture beckons, and postmodern Christians have taken the bait. As a result, the biblical model of faith has given way to an increasingly bizarre array of fads and formulas. Didn't God give humans dominion over other creatures? Didn't Jesus eat lamb? These are the kinds of questions that Christians who advocate compassion toward other animals regularly face. Yet Christians who have a faith-based commitment to care for other animals through what they eat, what they wear, and how they live with other creatures are often unsure how to address these biblically and theologically based challenges. In A Faith Embracing All Creatures, authors from various denominational, national, ethnic, and cultural backgrounds wrestle with the text, theology, and tradition to explain the roots of their desire to live peaceably with their nonhuman kin. Together, they show that there are no easy answers on what the Bible says about animals Instead there are nuances and complexities which even those asking these questions may be unaware of Editors Andy Alexis Baker and Tripp York have gathered a collection of essays that wrestle with these nuances and tensions in Scripture around nonhuman animals In so doing they expand the discussion of nonviolence peacemaking and reconciliation to include the oft forgotten other members of God s good creation Faith and Fabric Nigel Yates,Paul A. Welsby,1996 The cathedrals at Rochester and Canterbury founded in the early 7th century are the two oldest ecclesiastical buildings with a continuous history in Britain but Rochester cathedral is comparatively unknown and research on its history limited This book is the first authoritative study of the cathedral covering its history architecture and worship and its archives and library more briefly importantly it sets Rochester in the wider context of the development of cathedrals in Britain and their significant role in the history of British Christianity Contributors MARTIN BRETT ANNE OAKLEY CHARLES KNIGHTON PATRICK MUSSETT PAUL A WELSBY NIGEL YATES PHILIP McALEER DIANA HOLBROOK The late NIGEL YATES was a consultant on historical and other matters to Kent County Council the Museum of Kent Life the Dioceses of Canterbury and Rochester and several other national and local bodies Within His Wounds Dave Hamer,2013-02-20 Within His Wounds contrasts the redemptive treasures of Jesus with popular doctrines that circumvent the message of His cross From many prominent platforms the absolute truths of atonement are no longer primary Humanism is ascending where Christ centered preaching has been abandoned Worldly philosophers are filling our sacred pulpits Cross depleted sermons are giving counterfeit comfort to vast audiences Hollow professions of faith are many but genuine conversions to Christ are few Fans are multiplying disciples are vanishing and lost souls are perishing Within His Wounds is a clarion call back to Calvary where Jesus suffered and died in our place The wounds that led to His death are the wounds that lead us to His life Catalogue of the Books in the Manchester Public Free Library, Reference Department. Library,1874 Faith Healers and the Bible Stephen J. Pullum,2015-04-14 An insightful read for anyone who is interested in religion this book offers fresh biblical insight into the preaching of faith healing from a Christian perspective Faith healing has been a popular religious phenomenon in this country for well over a hundred years gaining thousands of followers and raking in millions of dollars annually What faith healers teach however often goes unchallenged Faith Healers and the Bible What Scripture Really Says offers an informed critique of many of the themes found in faith healers preaching that documents that much of what they teach is not biblically based contrary to what they would like their listeners to believe Drawing on a lifetime of study and nearly two decades of teaching a university course titled The Rhetoric of Faith Healing Stephen J Pullum PhD provides scriptural insight into the false claims frequently found in the preaching of healing revivalists After an introductory chapter that explains why faith healers have been so persuasive the author addresses a breadth of topics including the miraculous the providential demon possession the call of God the indwelling of the Holy Spirit and the health and wealth gospel Meeting faith healers on their own turf the Bible Pullum clearly demonstrates that much of what faith healers preach cannot be scripturally supported
