West, 2012-07-26 Apologetic methodology has been the subject of intense debate in Reformed circles This book argues that we can test Reformed apologetic methods for consistency using two linchpin theological topics the doctrine of the resurrection and the doctrine of Scripture Should apologetics move from establishing theism to the resurrection and then to Scripture Or should theism the resurrection and the doctrine of Scripture be accepted on the testimony of the Holy Spirit as basic beliefs Alternatively do these doctrines need to be presupposed and incorporated into a transcendental defense of the faith After analyzing classical apologetics historical evidentialism Reformed epistemology and presuppositionalism for their apologetic cogency Steven D West contends that any method used by Reformed apologists should be able to argue successfully for a high view of Scripture the source of the doctrine of the resurrection The book will be useful to everyone interested in the relationship between theology philosophy and apologetics

The End of Apologetics Myron Bradley Penner, 2013-07-01 The modern apologetic enterprise according to Myron Penner is no longer valid. It tends toward an unbiblical and unchristian form of Christian witness and does not have the ability to attest truthfully to Christ in our postmodern context. In fact, Christians need an entirely new way of conceiving the apologetic task. This provocative text critiques modern apologetic efforts and offers a concept of faithful Christian witness that is characterized by love and grounded in God's revelation. Penner seeks to reorient the discussion of Christian belief, change a well-entrenched vocabulary that no longer works, and contextualize the enterprise of apologetics for a postmodern generation.

Reasons for Faith (Foreword by Lee Strobel) Norman L. Geisler, Chad V. Meister, 2007-10-26 Many Christians want to witness for their faith but they are afraid they will not be able to answer questions that others may ask of them. First Peter 3:15 reminds believers to always be prepared to make a defense to anyone who asks you for a reason for the hope that is in you. Norman Geisler and Chad Meister realize the fear of facing questions about the Christian faith. Their book Reasons for Faith gives believers grounded biblical apologetics to help them defend their faith. By covering the importance of apologetics and then applying apologetics to popular culture and theological issues, these authors give all Christians the tools they need to stand firm in their faith and to be able to share that faith in today's society.

Christian Apologetics Norman L. Geisler, 1988-03 The standard for Christian apologetics, this systematic approach presents both the methods and reasons for defending Christianity.

Christian Apologetics as Cross-Cultural Dialogue Benno van den Toren, 2011-10-27 A call for a new understanding of apologetics moving away from appeals to transcultural rationality, arguing for a new form of cross-cultural dialogue.
