record possible of texts from the early periods that have been translated into English and published between 1929 and 2008. It lists works from all genres and subjects and includes translations wherever they have appeared across the globe. In this annotated bibliography Robin Healey covers over 5 200 distinct editions of pre 1900 Italian writings. Most entries are accompanied by useful notes providing information on authors works translators and how the translations were received. Among the works by over 1 500 authors represented in this volume are hundreds of editions by Italy's most translated authors Dante Alighieri Machiavelli and Boccaccio and other hundreds which represent the author's only English translation. A significant number of entries describe works originally published in Latin. Together with Healey's Twentieth Century Italian Literature in English Translation this volume makes comprehensive information on translations accessible for schools libraries and those interested in comparative literature.

The Classics in Modernist Translation Lynn Kozak, Miranda Hickman, 2019-02-07. This volume sheds new light on a wealth of early 20th century engagement with literature of Graeco Roman antiquity that significantly shaped the work of anglophone literary modernism. The essays spotlight translation a concept the modernists themselves used to reckon with the Classics and to denote a range of different kinds of reception from more literal to more liberal translation work as well as forms of what contemporary reception studies would term adaptation refiguration and intervention. As the volume's essays reveal modernist translations of Classical texts crucially informed the innovations of many modernists and often themselves constituted modernist literary projects. Thus the volume responds to gaps in both Classical reception and Modernist studies essays treat a comparatively understudied area in Classical reception by reviving work in a subfield of Modernist studies relatively inactive in recent decades but enjoying renewed attention through the recent work of contributors to this volume. The volume's essays address work significantly informed by Classical materials including Homer Sophocles Euripides Sappho Ovid and Propertius and approach a range of modernist writers Pound and H D among the modernists best known for work engaging the Classics as well as Cummings Eliot Joyce Laura Riding and Yeats.

Translation and the Classic Paul F. Bandia, James Hadley, Siobhán McElduff, 2024-02-08. Through a range of accessible and innovative chapters dealing with a spectrum of genres authors and periods this volume seeks to examine the complex relationship between translation and the classic and how translation makes and remakes and sometimes invents classic works for new audiences across space and time. Translation and the Classic is the first volume in a two volume series examining how classic works fare in translation how translation is different when it engages with classic texts and how classic texts can be shaped understood in new ways or even created through the process of translation. Although other collections have covered some of this territory they have done so in partial ways or with a focus on Greek Roman and Arabic texts or translations. This collection alone takes the reader from 1000 BCE up to the digital age in a sequence of chapters that encompass areas including philosophy children's literature and pseudotranslation. It asks us to consider translation not just as a mechanism of distribution but as one of the primary ways that the classic is created and understood by multiple audiences This book is essential reading for those taking Translation Studies courses at the senior undergraduate and postgraduate level as well as courses outside Translation Studies such as Comparative Literature and Literary Studies    Descriptive Catalogue of Books Contained in the Lending Library Bishopsgate Institute, London,1901    Catalogue of All Books in the Circulating and Reference Departments of the Public School Library, Columbus ... Columbus (Ohio).
