Agnes Sanford and Her Companions William L. De Arteaga, 2015-08-17 Agnes Sanford was arguably the most original and spiritually fruitful theologians of the twentieth century Among her achievements were the discovery and development of the inner healing ministry the development of a theology of the light of God missing in Western theology and the first ever theology of nature prayers as in stilling storms She and her husband developed a school to teach ministers and lay leaders healing and deliverance prayer and the gifts of the Spirit a decade before the charismatic renewal made such things acceptable in mainline churches In spite of these achievements she is largely ignored and unrecognized today This work examines her career and shows why her theology though deeply biblical was unacceptable to orthodox critics Sanford was part of a group who worked from the 1900s through the 1960s to make healing and deliverance prayer as normal in church They had to confront the erroneous established theology of cessationism which affirmed that the healing ministry of the church was past

Foundational Faith John Koessler, 2003-04-01 At various times some within the Protestant community have compromised core Christian principles to fit the times. Challenging these truths, many members of the evangelical community have stood up for the key doctrines that in their view remain essential to the Christian faith. In Foundational Faith, John Koessler, a professor at Moody Bible Institute, joins several of his colleagues in introducing fundamental truths of the Christian faith to a generation increasingly unfamiliar with the original and true essence of Christianity.

Education for Adults Malcolm Tight, 2014-06-17 The nature of adult education at individual, group and community levels is the concern of this book. Definitions and patterns of adult learning are critically assessed in both this country and abroad, and the processes involved considered in detail. Both case studies and thematic articles have been included and are selected to illustrate the breadth of the field along a number of areas: formal, non-formal and informal education; face-to-face and distance education; from basic levels of education to higher education; from highly deterministic to more open or self-directed forms of education. It is felt that the study and practice of the education of adults can be best advanced by the adoption of such a broad view.
