Climate Trauma Foreseeing Dystopian Fiction:

Climate Trauma E. Ann Kaplan, 2016 Utilizing the concept of pre trauma to describe various forms of media that anticipate disaster this book discusses apocalyptic film and literature as manifestations of collective fears about the environment New Perspectives on Dystopian Fiction in Literature and Other Media Saija Isomaa, Jyrki Korpua, Jouni Teittinen, 2020-08-27 This collection of essays examines various forms of dystopian fiction in literature television and digital games It frames the timely trend of dystopian fiction as a thematic field that accommodates several genres from societal dystopia to apocalyptic narratives and climate fiction many of them examining the hazards of science and technology to human societies and the ecosystem These are genres of the Anthropocene par excellence capturing the dilemmas of the human condition in the current increasingly precarious epoch The essays offer new interpretations of classical and contemporary works including the canonised prose of Orwell Atwood and Cormac McCarthy modern pop culture classics like Battlestar Galactica Fallout and Hunger Games and the work of Johanna Sinisalo a pioneer of Finnish speculative fiction From Thomas Pynchon to Watership Down the volume's multifaceted approach offers fresh perspectives to those already familiar with existing research but it is no less accessible for newcomers to the ever expanding field of dystopian studies

Trauma and the Discourse of Climate Change Lee Zimmerman, 2020-03-24 The more the global north has learned about the existential threat of climate change the faster it has emitted greenhouse gases into the atmosphere In Trauma and the Discourse of Climate Change Lee Zimmerman thinks about why this is by examining how climate change has been discursively constructed tracing how the ways we talk and write about climate change have worked to normalize a generalized bipartisan denialism more profound than that of the overt denialists Suggesting that we understand that normalized denial as a form of cultural trauma the book explores how the dominant ways of figuring knowledge about global warming disarticulate that knowledge from the trauma those figurations both represent and reproduce and by which they remain inhabited and haunted Its early chapters consider that process in representations of climate change across a range of disciplines and throughout the public sphere including Al Gore's An Inconvenient Truth Barack Obama's speeches and climate plans and the 2015 Paris Agreement Later chapters focus on how literary representations especially for the most part participate in such disarticulations and on how in grappling with the representational difficulties at the climate crisis's heart some works of fiction among them Cormac McCarthy's The Road and Russell Hoban's Riddley Walker work against that normalized rhetorical violence The book closes with a meditation centered on the dream of the burning child Freud sketches in The Interpretation of Dreams Highlighting the existential stakes of the ways we think and write about the climate Trauma and the Discourse of Climate Change aims to offer an unfamiliar place from which to engage the astonishing quiescence of our ecocidal present This book will be essential reading for academics and students of psychoanalysis environmental humanities trauma studies literature and environmental studies as well as activists and others drawn to thinking about the climate crisis      Music and the Environment in Dystopian Narrative Heidi Hart, 2018-10-31 Music and the Environment in Dystopian Narrative Sounding the Disaster investigates the active role of music in film and fiction portraying climate crisis From contemporary science fiction and environmental film to Anthropocene opera the most arresting eco narratives draw less on background music than on the power of sound to move fictional action and those who receive it Beginning with a reflection on a Mozart recording on the 1970s Voyager Golden Record this book explores links between music and violence in Lidia Yuknavitch's 2017 novel The Book of Joan songless speech in the opera Persephone in the Late Anthropocene interrupted lyricism in the eco documentary Expedition to the End of the World and dread inducing hurricane music in the Brecht Weill opera Rise and Fall of the City of Mahagonny In all of these works music allows for a state of critical vulnerability in its hearers communicating planetary crisis in an embodied way      The Postworld In-Between Utopia and Dystopia Katarzyna Ostalska, Tomasz Fisiak, 2021-12-29 This collection of essays offers global perspectives on feminist utopia and dystopia in speculative literature film and art working from a range of intersectional approaches to examine key works and genres in both their specific cultural context and a wider global epistemological critical background The international diverse contributions including a Foreword by Gregory Claeys draw upon posthumanism speculative realism speculative feminism object oriented ontology new materialisms and post Anthropocene studies to propose alternative perspectives on gender environment as well as alternate futures and pasts rendered in fiction Instead of binary divisions into utopia vs dystopia the collection explores genres transcending this dichotomy scrutinising the oeuvre of both established and emerging writers directors and critics This is a rich and unique collection suitable for scholars and students studying feminist literature media cultural studies and women's and gender studies      Climate Change Fiction and Ecocultural Crisis Tatiana Konrad, 2024-09-24 Concentrating on a powerful emerging genre Tatiana Konrad's Climate Change Fiction and Ecocultural Crisis provides a survey of popular narratives that further our understanding of climate change in contemporary fiction Konrad advocates for the expansion and redefinition of the cli fi genre and argues that industrial fiction from the nineteenth century is the first example of climate change fiction Tracing the ways through which cli fi outlines a history of our modern ecocultural crisis this book demonstrates how the genre employs four major thematic clusters to achieve this narrative weather science religion and place Focusing on a diverse range of issues including fossil fuels cheap energy the intricacies of human more than human relationships and postcolonial geographies Konrad illustrates how cli fi transcends mere storytelling The genre ultimately emerges as an important means to forecast imagine and contemplate climatic events The book invites a broadening of the environmental humanities discourse asking readers not only to deepen their understanding of the current climate crisis but also to consider how cli fi culture can be viewed as an effective method to address climate change      Law, Fiction and Activism in a Time of Climate Change Nicole Rogers, 2019-08-14 The book examines the narratives of climate change which have developed and which are currently evolving in three areas law fiction and activism

Narratives of climate change generated by litigants judges writers of fiction and activists are having and will have a profound effect on the way we respond to the climate change crisis Acknowledging the prevalence of unreliable narrators this book explores the reliability and significance of different forms of climate narrative The author analyses overlapping themes and points of intersection considering the recurrent motif of the trickster the prominence of the child the significance and ongoing viability of the rights discourse and the increasingly prevalent emergency framing with its multiple implications for law s empire She asks how law fiction and activism measure up as textual and performative fora for telling the story of climate change and anticipating a climate changed future And in addition how can they help foster transformative narratives which empower us to confront the climate change crisis This highly topical cross disciplinary work will be of interest to anyone concerned about the growing climate emergency and makes a valuable contribution to climate law environmental law the environmental humanities and ecocriticism

Postcolonial Literatures of Climate Change, 2022-07-04 Postcolonial Literatures of Climate Change investigates the evolving nature of postcolonial literary criticism in response to global regional and local environmental transformations brought about by climate change It builds upon and extends previous studies in postcolonial ecocriticism to demonstrate how the growing awareness of human caused global warming has begun to permeate literary consciousness praxis and analysis The breadth of the volume s coverage the diversity of its focal locations cultures genres and texts serves as a salient reminder that while climate change is global its impacts vary effecting peoples from place to place unequally and often in accordance with their particular historical experience of colonialism and neo colonialism as well as their ongoing marginalisations Demonstrating the urgency of invoking novel epistemological approaches combining the scientific and the imaginative this book is a must read for those concerned about the present and potential impacts of climate change on formerly colonised areas of the world The comprehensive and illuminating Introduction offers a crucial history and current state of postcolonial ecocriticism as it has been and is addressing climate crises Helen Tiffin University of Wollongong The broad focus on the polar regions the Pacific and the Caribbean with added essays on environmental justice activism in India and Egypt opens up rich terrain for examination under the rubric of postcolonial and ecocritical analysis not only expanding recent studies in this field but also enabling new comparisons and conceptual linkages Helen Gilbert Royal Holloway University of London The subject is topical and vital and will become even more so as the problem of how to reconcile the demands of climate change with the effects on regions and individual nations already damaged by the economic effects of colonisation and the subsequent inequalities resulting from neo colonialism continues to grow Gareth Griffiths Em Prof University of Western Australia

The Routledge Companion to Literature and Trauma Colin Davis, Hanna Meretoja, 2020-05-11 Literary trauma studies is a rapidly developing field which examines how literature deals with the personal and cultural aspects of trauma and engages with such historical and current phenomena as the Holocaust and other genocides 9 11 climate catastrophe or the still unsettled legacy of colonialism The

Routledge Companion to Literature and Trauma is a comprehensive guide to the history and theory of trauma studies including key concepts consideration of critical perspectives and discussion of future developments It also explores different genres and media such as poetry life writing graphic narratives photography and post apocalyptic fiction and analyses how literature engages with particular traumatic situations and events such as the Holocaust the Occupation of France the Rwandan genocide Hurricane Katrina and transgenerational nuclear trauma Forty essays from top thinkers in the field demonstrate the range and vitality of trauma studies as it has been used to further the understanding of literature and other cultural forms across the world Chapter 2 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

extended study to specifically focus on character in dystopia Through the lens of the last man figure Character and Dystopia The Last Men examines character development in Yevgeny Zamyatin's We Anthony Burgess's A Clockwork Orange Kazuo Ishiguro's Never Let Me Go Fyodor Dostoevsky's Notes from Underground George Orwell's Nineteen Eighty-Four Nathanael West's A Cool Million David Mamet's Glengarry Glen Ross Octavia Butler's Parable of the Sower Lois Lowry's The Giver Michel Houellebecq's Submission Chan Koonchung's The Fat Years and Maggie Shen King's An Excess Male showing how in the 20th and 21st centuries dystopian nostalgia shades into reactionary humanism a last stand mounted in defense of forms of subjectivity no longer supported by modernity Unlike most work on dystopia that emphasizes dystopia's politics this book's approach grows out of questions of poetics What are the formal structures by which dystopian character is constructed How do dystopian characters operate differently than other characters within texts and upon the reader What is the relation between this character and other forms of literary character such as are found in romantic and modernist texts By reading character as crucial to the dystopian project the book makes a case for dystopia as a sensitive register of modern anxieties about subjectivity and its portrayal in literary works

The New Routledge Companion to Science Fiction Mark Bould, Andrew M. Butler, Sherryl Vint, 2024-06-13 The New Routledge Companion to Science Fiction provides an overview of the study of science fiction across multiple academic fields It offers a new conceptualisation of the field today marking the significant changes that have taken place in sf studies over the past 15 years Building on the pioneering research in the first edition the collection reorganises historical coverage of the genre to emphasise new geographical areas of cultural production and the growing importance of media beyond print It also updates and expands the range of frameworks that are relevant to the study of science fiction The periodisation has been reframed to include new chapters focusing on science fiction produced outside the Anglophone context including South Asian Latin American Chinese and African diasporic science fiction The contributors use both well established critical and theoretical approaches and embrace a range of new ones including biopolitics climate crisis critical ethnic studies disability studies energy humanities game studies medical humanities new materialisms and sonic studies This book is an invaluable resource for students and established scholars seeking to understand the vast range of engagements with science fiction in scholarship today

Nordic Utopias and Dystopias Pia Maria Ahlbäck, Jouni Teittinen, Maria Lassén-Seger, 2022-11-24 The Nordic countries have long been subject to certain idealised even utopian imaginaries particularly with regard to images of pristine nature and the societal ideals of democracy equality and education On the other hand such projections inevitably invite dissent irony and intimations of the utopia's dark underside Things may yet take or may have already taken a dystopic course The present volume offers twelve contributions on utopias and dystopias in Nordic literature and culture Geographically the articles cover the Nordic countries of Denmark Finland Norway and Sweden as well as the autonomous area of Greenland Through the articles varied subjects ranging from avant garde literature and long poems to noir TV series young adult fiction popular historiography and political discourse in literature outside of Norden the volume brings forth a historically rich multi layered picture of social cultural and environmental imagination in the Nordic countries Nordic Utopias and Dystopias is thus of interest not only to specialists in dystopian and utopian research but more broadly to scholars of literature and culture and the political and social sciences especially but not exclusively in the Nordic context

Decolonial Imaginaries in Palestinian Experimental Film and Video Kristin Lené Hole, 2024-04-24 Decolonial Imaginaries in Palestinian Experimental Film and Video focuses on an underexamined group of female Palestinian filmmakers highlighting their relevance for thinking through a diverse set of issues relating to decolonial aesthetics post nationalism and gender non Western ecologies trauma and memory diasporic experiences of space biopolitics feminist historiography and decolonial temporalities Positing that these filmmaker artists radically counter dominant media images of Palestinians deessentializing Palestinian identity while opening up history and the present to new potentialities and ways of imagining Palestinian futures Decolonial Imaginaries in Palestinian Experimental Film and Video argues that Palestinian experience is urgently relevant to all of us As the works address issues of food availability and land use environmental collapse and forced displacement Hole explores how such films generate hope imagine impossible possibilities and offer inspiration and wisdom when it comes to losing and rebuilding Addressing a fundamentally transnational and understudied area this book will resonate with readers working in the areas of film and media studies Palestinian cultural studies historiography Middle East studies and experimental film

Rewatching on the Point of the Cinematic Index Allen H. Redmon, 2022-08-24 Rewatching on the Point of the Cinematic Index offers a reassessment of the cinematic index as it sits at the intersection of film studies trauma studies and adaptation studies Author Allen H Redmon argues that far too often scholars imagine the cinematic index to be nothing more than an acknowledgment that the lens based camera captures and brings to the screen a reality that existed before the camera When cinema s indexicality is so narrowly defined the entire nature of film is called into question the moment film no longer relies on a lens based camera The presence of digital technologies seemingly strips cinema of its indexical standing This volume pushes for a broader understanding of the cinematic index by returning to the early discussions of the index in film studies and the more recent discussions of the index in other digital arts Bolstered by the insights these discussions can offer the volume looks to replace what might be best deemed a diminished concept of the cinematic index with a series of more complex cinematic indices the impoverished index the indefinite index the intertextual index and the imaginative index The central argument of this book is that these more complex indices encourage spectators to enter a process of ongoing adaptation of the reality they see on the screen and that it is on the point of these indices that the most significant instances of rewatching movies occur Examining such films as John Lee Hancock s Saving Mr Banks 2013 Richard Linklater s oeuvre Paul Greengrass s United 93 2006 Oliver Stone s World Trade Center 2006 Stephen Daldry s Extremely Loud and Incredibly Close 2011 and Christopher Nolan s Dunkirk 2017 Inception 2010 and Memento 2000 Redmon demonstrates that the cinematic index invites spectators to enter a process of ongoing adaptation      Kierkegaard and Climate Catastrophe Isak Winkel Holm, 2023 This volume argues for the relevance of Kierkegaard's employment of the prophetic noir modelled after the prophetic books of the Hebrew Bible to understanding how to live in a time of climate change      Mental Health in English Language Education Christian Ludwig, Theresa Summer, Maria Eisenmann, Daniel Becker, Nadine Krüger, 2024-04-08 Mental health has become a growing concern in today's society with schools emerging as focal points for addressing this topic The present volume takes this as a starting point to explore the relevance of curricula and competencies texts and materials digital culture and communication and teacher education in the context of mental health and English language education This for instance includes insights into interrelated topics such as gender climate change stress and conspiracy theories A variety of texts including multimodal novels video games and songs provides practical impulses for integrating mental health related topics into English lessons As such this volume brings together scholars from various fields who discuss the relationship between mental health issues and English as a foreign language learning from a variety of theoretical empirical and practice oriented perspectives      Climate Change and the New Polar Aesthetics Lisa E. Bloom, 2022-08-08 Lisa E Bloom considers the way artists filmmakers and activists in the Arctic and Antarctic use their art to illustrate our current environmental crises and to reconstruct public understanding of them      Uncanny Perspectives in Literature and Culture Gabriele Biotti, I. Vinitha Chandra, Nacera Haouchine, 2024-09-30 This collection of essays aims to analyse the uncanny as a concept developed in the field of the arts from a variety of perspectives axed in the literary field in the media context and in film studies with references to contemporary thought The book aims to provide readers with a methodological updating on this psychoanalytic concept starting from its basic rethinking under the light of the different cultural backgrounds of the authors whose essays are collected The book's specific focus is in the research on the many faces the uncanny took in different experiences forms of writing ideas of art theories discourses and experiences in creation This shows still today not only the concept's richness in defining our contemporary cultural context but also its plasticity and its identity of notion hinge between eras ideas of representation and forms of writing of various types
