Crisis Contradiction Marxist Perspectives Political:

Crisis and Contradiction, 2014-12-11 Since the late 1990s much of Latin America has experienced an uneven and contradictory turn to the Left in the electoral arena At the same time there has been a rejuvenation of Marxist critiques of political economy Drawing on the expertise of Latin American North American and European scholars this volume offers cutting edge theoretical explorations of trends in the region as well as in depth case studies of Argentina Bolivia Brazil and Venezuela Essays in the volume focus on changes to class formation in Latin America and offer new insights into the state form exploring the complex relationship between state and market in contexts of late capitalist development particularly in countries endowed with incredible natural resource wealth Contributors are Dario Azzellini Emilia Castorina Mariano F liz Juan Grigera Nicolas Grinberg Gabriel Hetland Claudio Katz Thomas Purcell Ben Selwyn Susan J Spronk Guido Starosta Leandro Vergara Camus and Jeffery R Webber Key Thinkers from Critical Theory to Post-Marxism Simon Tormey, Jules Townshend, 2006-06-19 Tormey and Townshend have succeeded not only in making accessible the notoriously evasive ideas of Post Marxist thinkers they have begun the vital work of critically examining their contribution to Marx s project of overcoming capitalism James Martin Goldsmiths University of London Excellent textbook critical challenging and thoroughly engaging Richard White Sheffield Hallam University In language which is clear without being simplistic Tormey and Townshend help readers think about ways to live with and without Marx in the wake of Marxism s historical failures as well as its continuing relevance to life under globalizing capitalism Mark Rupert Syracuse University Key Thinkers in Critical Theory to Post Marxism is a comprehensive introduction to perhaps the most key intellectual trend in contemporary critical theory In jargon free language it seeks to unpack explain and review many of the key figures behind the rethinking of the legacy of Marxism in theory and practice Key thinkers covered include Cornelius Castoriadis Jean Francois Lyotard Deleuze and Guattari Laclau and Mouffe Agnes Heller Jacques Derrida J rgen Habermas and post Marxist feminism Each chapter covers a key thinker or contribution and thus can be read as a stand alone introduction to the principal aspects of their approach Each chapter is followed by a summary of key points with a guide to further reading Underlying the text is also the central question What is Post Marxism Instead of viewing Post Marxism as an ideology movement or tradition of theorizing the authors advocate Post Marxism as a loose appellation describing those who have problematised Marx s approach to understanding and challenging contemporary capitalism As such the book also offers an engaging commentary on some of the key political developments of our time including for example the anti globalisation movement Key Thinkers in Critical Theory to Post Marxism provides an ideal introduction to a hitherto complex subject and will be essential reading for students of contemporary social and political inquiry The Necromantic State Irina R Troconis, 2025-02-21 In the spring of 2013 televisions across Venezuela announced the death of then president Hugo Ch vez leader of the Bolivarian Revolution and key political actor in Latin America s turn to the left Ch vez s death however was not the end of Ch vez s life In The

Necromantic State Irina R Troconis examines how Ch vez as a specter has lingered in Venezuela s public private and digital spaces Focusing on contemporary Venezuela and drawing from a diverse corpus that includes tattoos toys memes graffiti and a hologram haunting the streets of downtown Caracas Troconis contends that in moments of failed transitions political tensions and crises of legitimacy the state brings the dead back to life to negotiate the terms of its survival By showing how this necromantic performance enables the state s material and visual manifestations in public and private spaces Troconis untangles a sociopolitical moment in which the ghostly acts as the affective social and political force that grounds state authority and ensures the preservation of the status quo as it circumscribes acts of political imagination and limits popular resistance

Marxism and Social Science Andrew Gamble,David Marsh,Parthasarathi Sensarma,1999-04-28 This major reassessment of the relevance of Marxism in the social sciences decisively rebuts claims that it has been consigned to the dustbin of history by the collapse of communism and apparent triumph of capitalism and liberal democracy The book first considers how Marxism has engaged with various critiques including Postmodernism New Right theory and Feminism before assessing its continuing utility as a framework for analysis of a range of substantive issues from class and the state to culture ecology and globalization

The Cambridge Handbook of Environmental Sociology: Volume 2 Katharine Legun,Julie C. Keller,Michael Carolan,Michael M. Bell,2020-12-03 The Cambridge Handbook of Environmental Sociology is a go to resource for cutting edge research in the field This two volume work covers the rich theoretic foundations of the sub discipline as well as novel approaches and emerging areas of research that add vitality and momentum to the discipline Over the course of sixty chapters the authors featured in this work reach new levels of theoretical depth incorporating a global scope and diversity of cases This book explores the broad scope of crucial disciplinary ideas and areas of research extending its investigation to the trajectories of thought that led to their unfolding This unique work serves as an invaluable tool for all those working in the nexus of environment and society

The Impasse of the Latin American Left Franck Gaudichaud,Massimo Modonesi,Jeffery R. Webber,2022-04-04 In The Impasse of the Latin American Left Franck Gaudichaud Massimo Modonesi and Jeffery R Webber explore the region s Pink Tide as a political economic and cultural phenomenon At the turn of the twenty first century Latin American politics experienced an upsurge in progressive movements as popular uprisings for land and autonomy led to the election of left and center left governments across Latin America These progressive parties institutionalized social movements and established forms of state capitalism that sought to redistribute resources and challenge neoliberalism Yet as the authors demonstrate these governments failed to transform the underlying class structures of their societies or challenge the imperial strategies of the United States and China Now as the Pink Tide has largely receded the authors offer a portrait of this watershed period in Latin American history in order to evaluate the successes and failures of the left and to offer a clear eyed account of the conditions that allowed for a right wing resurgence

Constructing Marxist Ethics ,2015-02-04 Does Marxism possess an ethical impulse Is there a moral foundation that underpins the Marxist critique of capitalism and the vision for social progress The essays collected in Constructing Marxist Ethics Critique Normativity Praxis argue that there is such an ethical grounding for Marxist theory The essays each from different vantage points construct what a Marxian ethics should look like what kind of values should be at the heart of the Marxian enterprise Contributors are Dan Albanese Paul Blackledge Bob Cannon Tony Burns Ian Fraser Ruth Groff Wadood Hamad Christoph Henning Peter Hudis Lauren Langman George E McCarthy Sean Sayers Michael J Thompson and Lawrence Wilde

The New International Division of Labour Guido Starosta, 2016-06-02 This book revisits the debate over the new international division of labour NIDL that dominated discussions in international political economy and development studies until the early 1990s It submits that a revised NIDL thesis can shed light on the specificities of capitalist development in various parts of the world today Taken together the contributions amount to a novel value theoretical approach to understanding the NIDL This rests upon the distinction between the global economic content that determines the constitution and dynamics of the NIDL and the evolving national political forms that mediate its development More specifically the authors argue that uneven development is an expression of the underlying essential unity of the production of relative surplus value on a world scale They substantiate and illustrate this argument through several international case studies including Argentina Brazil Ecuador Ireland South Korea Spain and Venezuela

The Politics of Ecosocialism Kajsa Borgnäs, Teppo Eskelinen, Johanna Perkiö, Rikard Warlenius, 2015-07-24 As the global economy seeks to recover from the financial crisis and warnings about the consequences of climate change abound it is clear that we need a fundamentally new approach to tackle these issues This innovative book offers a unique perspective stressing the necessity of both ecological and social change as it discusses how to create a red green or eco socialist society Examining the current crises of welfare capitalism as well as the challenges and conflicts of an eco socialist society the book proposes a new social order that would combine the ideals of egalitarianism and of environmental sustainability It analyses the key social and ecological issues related to the welfare state including green Keynesianism ecological Marxism the limits of growth and no growth capitalist barriers to a renewable energy transition proposals for a universal basic income and the role of technology Finally the book outlines possible paths of transformation towards creating an eco socialist society drawing out lessons that can be applied internationally This book will be of great interest to students and researchers in economics environmental studies and political science

Natural Causes James R. O'Connor, 1998-01-01 This work shows how the policies and imperatives of business and government influence and are influenced by environment and social change It examines the power of ecological Marxist analysis for grounding economic behaviour in the real world and for formulating political strategies

The Labor of Extraction in Latin America Kristin Ciupa, Jeffery R. Webber, 2024-01-04 Natural resource extraction and primary commodity export remain persistent features of the Latin American economy This edited volume traces the power of labor in extractive sectors in Latin America starting in the 1980s and shows how labor shapes national export sectors economies politics and societies more broadly Kristin Ciupa and Jeffery R Webber bring together a team of international experts who look at labor in several extractive sectors including oil and gas mining and agriculture and migrant labor They present a variety of viewpoints and case studies exploring themes of the strategic organizing potential of extractive workers the rise of informal labor and its impact on organizing and worker solidarity and migrant labor power as extraction The book analyzes relationships between workers extractive companies states political parties national social sectors and global commodity markets The Labor of Extraction in Latin America puts the question of labor organizing to the forefront of discussions on Latin America s ongoing history of extractive capitalism its effects on nature and resistance against it Contributions by Fernando Caz n Kristin Ciupa Aleida Hern ndez Cervantes Phillip A Hough Christopher Little Omar Manky Andrea Marston Viviana Patroni Guido Starosta Jeffery R Webber Anna Zalik

Now We Are in Power

Angus McNelly,2023-06-06 During the first decade of the century Evo Morales and other leftists took control of governments across Latin America In the case of Bolivia Morales was that country s first Indigenous president and was elected following five years of popular insurrection after decades of neoliberal governance Now We Are in Power makes the argument that the so called Pink Tide should be understood as a passive revolution a process that has two phases a period of subaltern struggle from average citizens strong enough to culminate in a political crisis which is followed by a time of reconciliation and transformation Angus McNelly examines this movement as it unfolded and evaluates how passive revolution plays out over a prolonged crisis ultimately demonstrating the inherent contradictions and complications of the process

The Palgrave Handbook of International Development and privatization in development the challenges and opportunities of migration and mobility emerging issues of insecurity and concerns with people trafficking the drugs trade and gang violence the role of rights and activism in promoting democracy and development the threats posed by and responses to global environmental change and the role of technology and innovation in promoting development

Authoritarian Populism and the Rural World Ian Scoones, Marc Edelman, Saturnino M. Borrás Jr., Lyda Fernanda Forero, Ruth Hall, Wendy Welford, Ben White, 2021-06-29 The rise of authoritarian nationalist forms of populism and the implications for rural actors and settings is one of the most crucial foci for critical agrarian studies today with many consequences for political action Authoritarian Populism and the Rural World reflects on the rural origins and consequences of the emergence of authoritarian and populist leaders across the world as well as on the rise of multi class mobilisation and resistance alongside wider counter movements and alternative practices which together confront authoritarianism and nationalist populism The book includes 20 chapters written by contributors to the Emancipatory Rural Politics Initiative ERPI a global network of academics and activists committed to both reflective analysis and political engagement Debates about populism nationalism authoritarianism and more have exploded recently but relatively little of this has focused on the rural dimensions Yet wherever one looks the rural aspects are key not just in electoral calculus but in understanding underlying drivers of authoritarianism and populism and potential counter movements to these Whether because of land grabs voracious extractivism infrastructural neglect or lack of services rural peoples disillusionment with the status quo has had deeply troubling consequences and occasionally hopeful ones as the chapters in this book show The chapters in this book were originally published in The Journal of Peasant Studies

Environment and Social Theory John Barry, 2007-01-24 Written in an engaging and accessible manner by one of the leading scholars in his field Environment and Social Theory completed revised and updated with two new chapters is an indispensable guide to the way in which the environment and social theory relate to one another This popular text outlines the complex interlinking of the environment nature and social theory from ancient and pre modern thinking to contemporary social theorizing John Barry examines the ways major religions such as Judaeo Christianity have and continue to conceptualize the environment analyzes the way the non human environment features in Western thinking from Marx and Darwin to Freud and Horkheimer explores the relationship between gender and the environment postmodernism and risk society schools of thought and the contemporary ideology of orthodox economic thinking in social theorising about the environment How humans value use and think about the environment is an increasingly central and important aspect of recent social theory It has become clear that the present generation is faced with a series of unique environmental dilemmas largely unprecedented in human history With summary points illustrative examples glossary and further reading sections this invaluable resource will benefit anyone with an interest in environmentalism politics sociology geography development studies and environmental and ecological economics

The Reconfiguration of Twenty-first Century Latin American

Regionalism Rowan Lubbock, Ernesto Vivares, 2022-11-28 This cutting edge volume brings together a diverse roster of scholars to shed light on the reconfiguration of twenty first century Latin American regionalism Reflecting on both the multiplicity of regional integration across Latin America LA and the theoretically pluralist turn in contemporary scholarship on LA politics and International Relations this edited volume proposes an integrative pluralist methodology to deciphering the complexity of regionalisation projects from both above and below The book charts the contemporary evolution of older regionalisation schemes such as the Common Market of the South MERCOSUR as well as more recent twenty first century regional innovations including the Bolivarian Alliance for the Peoples of Our America Peoples Trade Treaty ALBA TCP Pacific Alliance AP and the Union of South American Nations UNASUR Complementing this more traditional institutional perspective the book also charts the underexplored dynamics of regionalism from below in the context of region wide networks of political organisation among indigenous and peasant movements Set against the backdrop of a more critical reading of the historical origins of regionalism this volume aims to contribute to the ever growing conversation among scholars within and beyond Latin America on the actors processes contradictions and prospects for regional cooperation In offering a more holistic perspective on Latin American regionalism from above and below this volume will be of interest to both newcomers to the field and more seasoned scholars working within across disciplinary boundaries from International Relations and International Political Economy to Historical Sociology and Institutionalism The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Globalizations

Feminism, Capitalism, and Critique Banu Bargu, Chiara Bottici, 2017-07-24 This edited collection examines the relationship between three central terms capitalism feminism and critique while critically celebrating the work and life of a thinker who has done the most to address this nexus Nancy Fraser In honor of her seventieth birthday and in the spirit of her work in the tradition of critical theory this collection brings together scholars from different disciplines and theoretical approaches to address this conjunction and evaluate Fraser s lifelong contributions to theorizing it Scholars from philosophy political science sociology gender studies race theory and economics come together to think through the vicissitudes of capitalism and feminism while also responding to different elements of Nancy Fraser s work which weaves together a strong feminist standpoint with a vibrant and complex critique of capitalism Going beyond conventional disciplinary distinctions and narrow debates all the contributors to this project share a commitment to critically understanding the connection between capitalism exploitation and the viable roads for emancipation They recover insights provided by classical traditions of political and social thought but they also open new research directions adapted to the global challenges of our time

A Marxist Critique of the Ruined University Krystian Szadkowski, Jakub Krzeski, 2025-04-21 This book revitalizes the Marxian concept of critique for research into the transformation of universities It consists of a set of comprehensive and interconnected theoretical tools starting from the reflection on the political ontology of higher education through the critique of political economy of the sector to the analysis of activist struggles within the universities and back to the ontological concept of the common a foundation for the university alternative design The tools offered and discussed in context throughout the book allow for a productive use in overcoming the current crisis of the university as well as to avoid the pitfalls present in contemporary debates around it Unlike the dominant discussions on the university in crisis the authors argue that to grasp its nature one has to reach more profound than the level of appearances such as marketization and commodification Szadkowski and Krzeski offer a compelling reappraisal of critique as a mechanism to liberate intellectual work By linking critique to how knowledge is structured and commodified they help us transcend reductionist narratives of a crisis ridden University Prioritising ontological renewal they embrace the political and the common enriching our collective ways of knowing the world as a movement Pivoting around academic and student protests in Poland the book enables us to imagine spaces and times of critical hope that resist the capitalist subjugation of intellectual activity to knowledge production Richard Hall Professor of Education and Technology De Montfort University Leicester UK In the century since Antonio Gramsci new works in the Marxist tradition have made only modest contributions to social thought the combined result of the savage repression in the West of the dangerous revolutionary ideas plus the collapse in the East into jacobin conspiracy and dogmatism If a living vibrant Marxism had been part of the twentieth century mainstream then much catastrophe would have been averted Now the drive for capital accumulation sovereign individualism and rampant nationalism have brought us to the brink of ecological disaster and World War III Into the void step two emerging scholars Krystian Szadkowski and Jakub Krzeski with an original Marxist critique of higher education and the common good There is hope in this development vital resources for reflection discussion and action Simon Marginson Professor of Higher Education at the Universities of Bristol and Oxford UK Honorary Professor at Tsinghua University in China and Joint Editor in Chief of the journal Higher Education
