The New Apologetics Ian S. Markham, 2020-03-27 Skepticism about Christianity abounds Building on the work of Charles Taylor Ian S Markham argues that contemporary skepticism is more a mood than an intellectual repudiation of Christian theology In its attempt to accommodate science the church too often opts for deistic responses that take the spiritual out of the material Against this response Markham argues for a rich imaginative account of the world that is grounded in Christian revelation and affirms spiritual causation angels and the reality of the saints It is a clarion call for the Western church to learn from the church in the Global South and create a rich theology that lives up to its professed values as a genuinely inclusive church

Horror and Hope Dominic Kirkham, 2021-07-28 Christianity is a global phenomenon that has affected the lives of millions of people and expressed itself in many ways over the centuries Often these expressions have been at odds with the core values of the gospel and teachings of Jesus Imperialism colonization anti-Semitism racism misogyny to name but some issues have all been associated with this religion almost from the outset They are part of a legacy that we can no longer evade in the face of the many questioning voices of the modern world But how has this curious and conflicted situation come about And did Jesus even intend to found a new religion Drawing on modern scriptural studies current academic thinking and several decades of personal religious and monastic life the writer seeks to find answers examining the historical record of the past two millennia In a world that is increasingly secular and skeptical of religious claims the answer to how the Christian legacy is to be presented in a post-Christian world is crucial for the future and the challenge this book seeks to address

Inspiring Faith in Schools Marius Felderhof, 2016-05-23 Inspiring Faith in Schools addresses the privileging of secularism that appears to affect RE in countries influenced by modern western thought The authors argue that a more engaging form of RE would emerge if religious life were to inhabit centre stage Currently religious faith is made to hover in the wings awaiting the call to face the inquisitorial challenge of the modern day enquirer The consequent relationship between pupil and the Divine as the purpose of study is then already intrinsically irreligious as indicated in the Book of Job by putting God in the dock whereas it is the pupil who should be cross examining his or her life What are the ways of exciting and engaging the young so that they begin to entertain the possibility of religious life as a genuine option for themselves Leading scholars in philosophy and theology from the UK Australia Canada and the USA come together to address these questions together with RE experts Marius Felderhof writes an Afterword summing up the challenges faced by such a re visioning of RE

The Habits of Race and Faith in a Religiously Diverse World Mara Brecht, 2024-07-08 Religious diversity cultural pluralism and interreligious encounter are widely viewed in modern life as socially and for many people of faith spiritually enriching One of the most significant but frequently overlooked benefits of interreligious encounter is that it empowers us to see ourselves and particularly our racialized identities in new and revealing ways In The Habits of Race and Faith in a Religiously Diverse World Mara Brecht places whiteness under particular scrutiny its tangled and entwined relationship with religious identity as well as strategic associations with dominance and privilege The analysis of whiteness gives way to fresh perspectives on Christian ideas about salvation both in connection to religious faith and racial embodiment

Modern Jewish Worldmaking Through Yiddish Children's Literature Miriam Udel, 2025-10-14 How modern Yiddish children's literature gave expression to emerging forms of Jewish identity As migration carried Yiddish to several continents during the long twentieth century an increasingly global community of speakers and readers clung to Jewish heritage while striving to help their children make sense of their lives as Jews in the modern world Miriam Udel traces how the stories and poems written for these Yiddish speaking children underpinned new formulations of secular Jewishness Udel provides the most comprehensive study to date of this corpus of nearly a thousand picture books chapter books story and poetry collections and anthologies Moving geographically from Europe to the Americas and chronologically through the twentieth century she considers this emerging canon in relation to the deep Jewish past and imagined Jewish futures before reckoning with the tragedy of the Holocaust Udel discusses how Yiddish children s literature espoused political ideologies ranging from socialism to Zionism and constituted a project of Jewish cultural nationalism one shaped equally by the utopianism of the Jewish left and important shifts in the Western understanding of children childhood and family life Modern Jewish Worldmaking Through Yiddish Children s Literature shows how Yiddish authors educators and cultural leaders confronting practical limits on their ability to forge a fully realized nation of their own focused instead on making a symbolic and conceptual world for Jewish children to inhabit with dignity justice and joy and the humanities but defends the humanities as a whole from the current scepticism inspired by deconstruction and post structuralism Taking Gadamer s language ontology as its cue this pioneering volume not only addresses certain weaknesses that Davey observes in Gadamer s thought but further takes Gadamerian thinking beyond Gadamer himself In particular Davey investigates the productive value of negativity that is central to hermeneutics and to wider spheres of creative learning Advocating a renewed confidence in hermeneutics and the humanities Negative Hermeneutics and the Question of Practice reveals how hermeneutical thinking provides a map of the dynamics within creative practice eliminating the need for an externally imposed theory of the arts
