Islamic and Ethical Finance in the United Kingdom Elaine Housby, 2013-07-31 What exactly is ethical finance Is Islamic finance ethical Is ethical finance Islamic Islamic finance is routinely described as ethical This reflects the fact that self described ethical finance is a large and growing sector of the market It has a very positive image with which Islamic financial services seek to associate themselves Yet the claim that Islamic and ethical are synonymous is rarely seriously examined and nor is the claim that there exists a consistent and generally understood definition of ethical practice This book examines a wide range of financial institutions in the UK which fall broadly within the ethical sector considering the nature of their principles and practices and how they relate to Islamic models and to Muslim communities

Decoding Mammon Peter Dominy, 2012-10-22 Decoding Mammon is an exposition of the negative assessment of money implied in Jesus statement You cannot serve God and Mammon On the basis of the theology enshrined in the Old and New Testaments and in the long term tradition of the church it is claimed that problems associated with money do not arise simply from the way it is used but from the nature of money itself Despite the fact that money has enabled great economic development and in contrast with the general consensus of governments economists and many theologians that money is either a positive or neutral instrument the book seeks to show that money is a deeply flawed instrument created by fallen human beings and fashioned over the years to suit the interests of those in power rather than the needs of people in general It is argued that money should only be allowed to operate within severe restrictions and that any reformulation of the global economy as a result of the recent financial crisis needs to be based on this understanding

Sharing Friendship John B. Thomson, 2016-03-03 Sharing Friendship represents a post liberal approach to ecclesiology and theology generated out of the history practices and traditions of the Anglican Church

Drawing on the theological ethics of Stanley Hauerwas this book explores the way friendship for the stranger emerges from contextually grounded reflection and conversations with contemporary Anglican theologians within the English tradition including John Milbank Oliver O Donovan Rowan Williams Daniel Hardy and Anthony Thiselton Avoiding abstract definitions of character mission or friendship John Thomson explores how the history of the English Church reflects a theology of friendship and how discipleship in the New Testament the performance of worship and the shape of Anglican ecclesiology are congruent with such a theology The book concludes by rooting the theme of sharing friendship within the self emptying kenotic performance of Jesus mission and looks at challenges to the character of contemporary Anglican ecclesiology represented by secularization and globalization as well as by arguments over appropriate new initiatives such as Fresh Expressions
