Speaking in Context M. Rafael Salaberry,Alfred Rue Burch,2021-07-23 This edited volume investigates the nature and possible applications of an expanded and reconceptualized theoretical construct of speaking as a dynamic socially constructed endeavour It addresses both theoretical perspectives and methodological procedures to define and circumscribe the assessment of contextualized speaking The chapters focus on the complexity brought about by actual interactional competence in speaking tasks and discuss how testing and assessment models and practices can incorporate recent research findings on the inherently dynamic and situated nature of language use The volume presents research on language assessment in a variety of languages other than English including French Chinese and Japanese It also examines the role that embodied action gaze gesture orientation to materials and texts in the environment plays in assessment practices an area that has heretofore remained under explored Chapter 6 is free to download as an open access publication under a CC BY NC ND licence You can access it here <https://zenodo.org/record/5163340/files/YQvJ0lhKjcs> English-Medium Instruction in European Higher Education Slobodanka Dimova,Anna Kristina Hultgren,Christian Jensen,2015-07-24 This volume provides a focused account of English Medium Instruction EMI in European higher education considering issues of ideologies policies and practices This is an essential book for academics students policy makers and educators directly or indirectly implicated in the internationalization of European higher education Assessing L2 Listening Gary J. Ockey,Elvis Wagner,2018-08-08 This book is relevant for language testers listening researchers and oral proficiency teachers in that it explores four broad themes related to the assessment of L2 listening ability the use of authentic real world spoken texts the effects of different speech varieties of listening inputs the use of audio visual texts and assessing listening as part of an interactive speaking listening construct Each theme is introduced with a review of the relevant literature and then is examined through either two or three empirical studies The notion of authenticity underlies each of these four themes By creating more authentic test tasks that are similar to real world language tasks test developers can create listening assessments that not only more effectively assess test takers communicative competence but can also have a positive washback effect on educational systems
