The Alpha Kappa Alpha Presence in Southwest Mississippi Lorraine Banks Gayden, 2014-03-07 This book chronicles the timeless service of Phi Mu Omega chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha from its humble beginnings as Ivy Omega Interest Group in 1998 to its chartering on January 15, 2000 to its present status as a thriving chapter living out the sorority's motto to be Supreme in Service to All Mankind. This history book was a time-intensive and labor-intensive assignment for women who are already busy, career-minded and community service-oriented, but it truly became a labor of love which International President Carolyn House Stewart requested of each chapter of the sorority. Without her directive, this book in all certainty would never have been written. The project has indelibly etched valuable lessons in the minds of the historian and chapter members: the need for archiving and documenting the chapter's programs, activities, events, and projects. The assignment also refocused attention on previous and current international initiatives issued by each international president. According to historian Earnestine Green McNealey, Ph.D., author of the sorority's definitive history book The Pearls of Alpha Kappa Alpha: A History of America's First Black Sorority, until the lion tells its own story, the story will always glorify the hunter This project forced chapters across the United States and in other countries to tell our own stories from their perspectives and in the context of historical events and social issues facing the communities we serve Hopefully it also reinforced the raison d'être for every member every chapter every region and the international sisterhood The beginning and evolving history of Phi Mu Omega is captured for generations of young women yet to come so that it might inspire and motivate them to become women with a desire to serve all mankind Good Works! ceremonies were spectacular performances and technological accomplishments by the People's Republic of China. However, the audience in Beijing was only the most overt element of a global audience receiving the message of the Games. For this global audience, the Beijing performances were a harbinger of wider regional and international ambitions, a message of intent that pointed to a larger Chinese plan to a degree not seen since the Ming dynasty. New Chinese ambitions embrace both soft power and hard power. The actor in this political drama of international scope is the Chinese state and its political ambitions on the world stage. The Beijing Olympics can be seen as its opening act and the audience as global. Rather than the kind of morality play that is typically used in China to educate the people in politics, this new production, a production on many levels, was one aimed at audiences all around the world and one that was a calculated expression of realpolitik.
