De Neui, 2020-01-05 Mistakes are inevitable but repeating them isn t In non Western contexts Christianity has often been viewed as the religion of foreigners with a hidden political agenda Sharing the gospel in non imperialistic ways can be challenging particularly in Asia Every location to which God calls his messengers has its own rich history that should be shared with gospel workers and local people Those desiring to serve interculturally must learn as much as possible about the past before joining that history Are we learning from the past or are we simply repeating the same mistakes in our own times and places No culture in the world is a blank slate rather we can look for the initiating inviting work of the missio Dei already emerging from within every surprising source This book showcases the writings of sixteen reflective practitioners who offer insights based on their study and experience of history These women and men come from a wide variety of cultural and theological backgrounds Their stories include An American who brought Protestant Buddhism to Sri Lanka A Norwegian Lutheran who started a Christian monastic community in Hong Kong A local scholar who led a faith movement in China that nearly overthrew the government A Thai villager who became an evangelist and a silent film star Highlighting key people and places Emerging Faith surveys several Christian movements found in the mission history of Asia If you wish to challenge your thinking and respond to God s invitation to participate in the global context look here for encouragement and guidance Political Handbook of the World 2024-2025 Tom Lansford, 2025-04-15 The Political Handbook of the World 2024 2025 is the most authoritative and comprehensive reference guide available for understanding the political landscape of every nation and territory across the globe This updated edition features more than 200 entries offering detailed coverage of governmental structures political parties and current leadership Known for its unmatched depth the volume provides in depth analysis of both major and minor political parties and movements and delivers timely insights into recent controversies political crises and key events from the past two years This edition also includes up to date listings of ambassadors international organization memberships and expanded profiles of over 30 intergovernmental organizations and UN agencies Trusted by researchers analysts journalists and students this resource continues to deliver essential reliable political data and analysis Framing Asian Studies Albert Tzeng, 2018-05-24 This book explores the interconnection between geopolitical context and the ways this context frames our knowledge about Asia highlighting previously neglected cause effect relations It also examines how various knowledge institutions promote and shape Asian Studies The authors seek to explain why Asian Studies and its subfields developed in the way they did and what the implications of these transformations might be on intellectual and political understandings of Asia The book not only builds on the current debates on the decolonization and de imperialization of knowledge about Asia it also proposes a more multifaceted view rather than just examining the impact of the West on the framing of Asian Studies

Overcoming Obstacles to Peace James Dobbins, Laurel E. Miller, Stephanie Pezard, Christopher S. Chivvis, Julie E. Taylor, 2013 This volume analyzes the impediments that local conditions pose to successful outcomes of nation building interventions in conflict affected areas Previous RAND studies of nation building focused on external interveners activities. This volume shifts the focus to internal circumstances first identifying the conditions that gave rise to conflicts or threatened to perpetuate them and then determining how external and local actors were able to modify or work around them to promote enduring peace It examines in depth six varied societies Cambodia El Salvador Bosnia and Herzegovina East Timor Sierra Leone and the Democratic Republic of the Congo It then analyzes a larger set of 20 major post Cold War nation building interventions. The authors assess the risk of renewed conflict at the onset of the interventions and subsequent progress along five dimensions security democratization government effectiveness economic growth and human development They find that transformation of many of the specific conditions that gave rise to or fueled conflict often is not feasible in the time frame of nation building operations but that such transformation has not proven essential to achieving the primary goal of nation building establishing peace Most interventions in the past 25 years have led to enduring peace as well as some degree of improvement in the other dimensions assessed The findings suggest the importance of setting realistic expectations neither expecting nation building operations to guickly lift countries out of poverty and create liberal democracies nor being swayed by a negative stereotype of nation building that does not recognize its signal achievements in the great majority of cases Page 4 of cover Democracy in Eastern Asia Edmund S. Mead, 2019-04-23 Burdens of Freedom presents a new and radical interpretation of America and its challenges The United States is an individualist society where most people seek to realize personal goals and values out in the world This unusual inner driven culture was the chief reason why first Europe then Britain and finally America came to lead the world But today our deepest problems derive from groups and nations that reflect the more passive deferential temperament of the non West The long term poor and many immigrants have difficulties assimilating in America mainly because they are less inner driven than the norm Abroad the United States faces challenges from Asia which is collective minded and also from many poorly governed countries in the developing world The chief threat to American leadership is no longer foreign rivals like China but the decay of individualism within our own society The great divide is between the individualist West for which life is a project and the rest of the world in which most people seek to survive rather than achieve This difference although clear in research on world cultures has been ignored in virtually all previous scholarship on American power and public policy both at home and abroad Burdens of Freedom is the first book to recognize that difference It casts new light on America's greatest struggles It re evaluates the entire Western tradition which took individualism for granted How to respond to cultural difference is the greatest test of our times The Worst of the Worst William N. Spencer, 2021-12-01 A look back at some of the worst despotic tyrants in our world's history Perhaps by reading about their great egotistical mistakes we can prevent abominable history from repeating itself Archiving the Unspeakable Michelle Caswell, 2014-04 Roughly 1 7 million people died in Cambodia from untreated disease starvation and execution during the Khmer Rouge reign of less than four years in the late 1970s The regime's brutality has come to be symbolized by the multitude of black and white mug shots of prisoners taken at the notorious Tuol Sleng prison where thousands of enemies of the state were tortured before being sent to the Killing Fields In Archiving the Unspeakable Michelle Caswell traces the social life of these photographic records through the lens of archival studies and elucidates how paradoxically they have become agents of silence and witnessing human rights and injustice as they are deployed at various moments in time and space From their creation as Khmer Rouge administrative records to their transformation beginning in 1979 into museum displays archival collections and databases the mug shots are key components in an ongoing drama of unimaginable human suffering Winner Waldo Gifford Leland Award Society of American Archivists Longlist ICAS Book Prize International Convention of Asia Scholars Development Naivety and Emergent Insecurities in a Monopolised World Munyaradzi Mawere, 2018-09-17 It is common knowledge that development without security is like a runaway horse Yet development in Africa has been plagued by insecurities since the extractive periods of slave trade and colonialism In spite of political independence and the euphoria of sovereignty as states Africa has failed to address insecurity which continues to loom large and to threaten aspirations towards truly inclusive and sustainable development A consequence has been Africas development naivety vis vis the monopolisation of development by the predatory elite actors of the global North and their local facilitators To salvage the continent from such predation and the insecurities engendered requires novel and innovative imagination and praxis This book draws from both the haunted landscapes and bitter memories of past exploitations and from the feeding of the insatiable North with African resources and humanity It brings together essays by a concerned generation of scholars driven by the urgent need for radical decolonisation of African development and its legacies of insecurities It is handy to students and practitioners in economics policy studies political science development studies global and African studies
