Garcilazo, 2007 This book focuses on the controversy recorded in 1 Corinthians 15 regarding the denial of the resurrection of the dead Many attempts and proposals have been made to understand the background of Paul's opponents By focusing on the possible impact of Stoicism Albert V Garcilazo argues that the internal evidence of the letter indicates that some of the Corinthians had adopted a realized eschatology as well as an antisomatic view of the resurrection which in turn prompted them to reject the future resurrection of the dead Garcilazo suggests that the higher status members of the congregation were influenced by the cosmological anthropological and ethical teachings of the Stoa especially the tenets of the Roman Stoics He demonstrates this possibility by first considering the similarities between the doctrines of the Corinthian dissenters and the teachings of the Stoic philosophers particularly the teachings of Seneca Following a brief overview of Stoicism the author concentrates on some of the theological issues revealed in the letter and examines how other scholars have interpreted 1 Corinthians 15 Finally he provides a detailed analysis of 1 Corinthians 15:12-49 In short Garcilazo argues that the philosophy of the Stoics seemingly contributed to the resurrection controversy recorded in 1 Corinthians 15      Biblical Exegesis, Fourth Edition John H. The Wisdom of the Wise H. Drake Williams, III, 2018-06-19 Paul's Jewish background and his use of Scripture have been enduring interest within New Testament scholarship This study contributes to this discussion by examining the presence and function of Scripture in I Cor 1 18 3 23 The author examines the presence and function of Scripture in the form of six citations two allusions and seven echoes within I Cor 1 19 3 23 From the examination of the function of these texts this work concludes that Paul's use of Scripture agrees with its original context and stands in line with a majority of early Jewish tradition Moreover this study suggests that Paul's use of Scripture also helps to chart a way through a difficult section of his writing

The Figure of Hagar in Ancient Judaism and

Galatians Ryan Heinsch,2022-10-11 In this study Ryan Heinsch considers Paul s portrayal of Hagar in Gal 4 21 31 and argues that Paul stands in continuity with ancient Judaism in that he portrays Hagar and her descendants as non Jews As a result the author demonstrates that the passage in Galatians is an allegory Paul develops about the experience of gentiles in general and the once pagan Galatian gentiles in particular

The Beginnings of Christianity Howard Clark Kee,2005-11-22 To understand the historical beginnings of Christianity requires one not only to examine the documents that the movement produced but also to scrutinize other evidence historical literary and archaeological that can illumine the socio cultural context in which Christianity began and how it responded to the influences that derived from that setting This involves not only analysis of the readily accessible content of the relevant literary evidence but also attention to the world views and assumptions about reality that are inherent in these documents and other phenomena that have survived from this period Attention to the roles of leadership and the modes of formation of social identity in Judaism and the continuing influence of these developments as Christianity began to take shape is important for historical analysis Distinguished New Testament scholar Kee performs such readings of the texts and communities in this dazzling study of early Christian origins In methodological terms the historical study of Christian Origins in all its diversity must involve three different modes of analysis 1 epistemological 2 sociological and 3 eschatological The first concerns the way in which knowledge and communication of it were perceived The second seeks to discern the way in which the community or tradition preserving and conveying this information defined its group identity and its shared values and aims The third focuses on the way in which the group understood and affirmed its ultimate destiny and that of its members in the purpose of God These factors are interrelated and features of one mode of perception strongly influence details of the others but it is useful to consider each of them in its own category in order to discern with greater precision the specific historical features of the spectrum of facets which appear in the evidence that has survived concerning the origins of Christianity

The Curse of the Law and the Crisis in Galatia Todd A. Wilson,2018-09-12 Todd Wilson assesses Paul s references to the Law in the so called ethical section of Galatians in light of a fresh appraisal of the Galatian crisis He contributes to the continuing debate over the relevance of this section of the letter for the rest of Galatians and for the situation in Galatia

Chaos and the Son of Man Andrew Angel,2006-08-27 Andrew Angel briefly reviews the work of Old Testament scholars on the mythological motif of God s battle with the dragon and the chaos waters He also reviews works that touch on the existence of the motif in the period 515 BCE to 200 CE noting the need for thorough survey of the motif in Hebrew literature of this period There follows a study of forty two Jewish and Christian texts in Hebrew Aramaic Greek and Latin which establishes the fact that this mythological motif was well known in this period Angel makes suggestions as to how this might offer fresh insights into the meaning of apocalyptic visions and texts that appear to refer to a son of man figure in this period

Did Jesus Teach Salvation by Works? Alan P. Stanley, 2006-09-20 Jesus teaches that regardless of one's profession if one does not demonstrate a changed life produced by God one will not enter into heaven Such a judgment will be made when Jesus returns and judges every person according to his or her works While this may seem contradictory to some more well known passages ruling out the role of works in salvation e.g. Rom 3:21-4:25 Gal 2:16-21 Eph 2:8-9 there is every good reason to understand that Jesus' teachings complement such passages The works that admit one into heaven are not works produced by the flesh before conversion but works produced by God after conversion They will fundamentally be characterized by a life of discipleship love for others and endurance in faith and obedience and will therefore serve to confirm that one indeed did have a relationship with God during one's life
