Cambridge Walter Monckton Keeseey,1935      Cambridge Walter M. Recto Verso: Redefining the Sketchbook Angela Bartram, Nader El-Bizri, Douglas Gittens, 2016-04-08 Bringing together a broad range of contributors including art architecture and design academic theorists and historians in addition to practicing artists architects and designers this volume explores the place of the sketchbook in contemporary art and architecture Drawing upon a diverse range of theories practices and reflections common to the contemporary conceptualisation of the sketchbook and its associated environments it offers a dialogue in which the sketchbook can be understood as a pivotal working tool that contributes to the creative process and the formulation and production of visual ideas Along with exploring the theoretical philosophical psychological and curatorial implications of the sketchbook the book addresses emergent digital practices by way of examining contemporary developments in sketchbook productions and pedagogical applications Consequently these more recent developments question the validity of the sketchbook as both an instrument of practice and creativity and as an educational device International in scope it not only explores European intellectual and artistic traditions but also intercultural and cross cultural perspectives including reviews of practices in Chinese artworks or Islamic calligraphy and situational contexts that deal with historical examples such as Roman art or modern practices in geographical cultural regions like Pakistan Unearthing the Past Leonard Barkan, 1999-01-01 The rediscovery of some of the most famous artworks of all time statues lying underground beneath Rome launched a thrilling archaeological adventure in the 15th century In this remarkable book Barkan probes the impact of these magnificent finds on Renaissance consciousness 206 illustrations The Roman sketchbook of Girolamo da Carpi Norman W. Fieldnotes and Sketchbooks Wendy Gunn, 2009 Every description of the world we inhabit embodies certain processes of describing In Fieldnotes and Sketchbooks researchers from the fields of anthropology architecture and fine art reflect on the descriptive practices characteristic of their respective disciplines and the potential of alternative modalities of description to challenge the boundaries that divide them Contributors focus on the interconnections between writing imaging drawing and reading exploring the many ways in which different media and notational systems can be used in contexts of learning to facilitate the movement of knowledge across the three disciplines Book jacket Cambridge Walker Monckton Keesey,1926

Illustrators' Sketchbooks Martin Salsbury,2023-11-09 Intimate and often unseen the sketchbook means something different to each illustrator It might be a beautiful object a work of art in its own right where every line is painstakingly considered It might be a pictorial playground where mistakes can make art The boundaries between sketchbooks notebooks and visual journals are often blurred lending to the creativity that fills their pages It is likely that you will recognize many of the illustrators featured including classic childhood favourites Beatrix Potter Jean de Brunhoff Edward Ardizzone and Tove Jansson and established names such as Beatrice Alemagna Oliver Jeffers and Shaun Tan Others are up and coming for example Charlotte Ager and Leah Yang Martin Salsbury draws on decades of experience as an illustrator and educator to shed light on the lives and work of each artist He even reveals pages from his own sketchbooks exposing the rawness of his ideas and the narratives that surround them As the reader will discover sketchbooks are often a fascinating and surprising window into the mind of the illustrator Architecture, Power and National Identity Lawrence Vale,2014-05-01 The first edition of Architecture Power and National Identity published in 1992 has become a classic winning the prestigious Spiro Kostof award for the best book in architecture and urbanism Lawrence Vale fully has fully updated the book which focuses on the relationship between the design of national capitals across the world and the formation of national identity in modernity Tied to this it explains the role that architecture and planning play in the forceful assertion of state power The book is truly international in scope looking at capital cities in the United States India Brazil Sri Lanka Kuwait Bangladesh and Papua New Guinea Drawing Investigations Sarah Casey,Gerry Davies,2020-06-11 Using close visual analysis of drawings artist interviews critical analysis and exegesis Drawing Investigations examines how artists use drawing as an investigative tool to reveal information that would otherwise remain unseen and unnoticed How does drawing add shape to ideas How does the artist accommodate to challenges and restraints of a particular environment To what extent is a drawing complementary and continuous with its subject and where is it disruptive and provocative Casey and Davies address these questions while focusing on artists working collaboratively and the use of drawing in challenging or unexpected environments Drawing Investigations evaluates the emergence of a way of thinking among an otherwise disconnected group of artists by exploring commonalities in the application of analytical drawing to the natural world urban environment social forces and lived experience Examples represent a spectrum of research in international contexts an oceanographic Institute in California the archives of Amsterdam s Rijksmuseum the Antarctic Survey geothermal research in Japan and the Kurdish diaspora in Iraq

Issues are situated in the contemporary theory and practice of drawing including relationships to historical precedents By exploring drawing s capacity to capture and describe experience to sharpen visual faculties and to bridge embodied and conceptual knowledge Drawing Investigations offers a fresh critical perspective on contemporary drawing practice The String Quartets of Beethoven William Kinderman,2010-10-01 We do not understand music it understands us This aphorism by Theodor W Adorno expresses the quandary and the fascination many listeners have felt in approaching Beethoven s late quartets No group of compositions occupies a more central position in chamber music yet the meaning of these works continues to stimulate debate William Kinderman s The String Quartets of Beethoven stands as the most detailed and comprehensive exploration of the subject It collects new work by leading international scholars who draw on a variety of historical sources and analytical approaches to offer fresh insights into the aesthetics of the quartets probing expressive and structural features that have hitherto received little attention This volume also includes an appendix with updated information on the chronology and sources of the quartets and a detailed bibliography Julian Trevelyan Philip Trevelyan,2013 Julian Trevelyan Picture Language follows the trail of a painter s visual language and motivation The working life of Julian Trevelyan 1910-88 spanned more than 65 years In that time he exhibited alongside Picasso Mir and Dali was a member of the British Surrealist group an active participant in the Mass Observation Movement taught both at Chelsea School of Art and the Royal College of Art and wrote a number of books After the Second World War his work was mainly concerned with depicting scenes around his Hammersmith home and the River Thames where he lived with his wife Mary Fedden as well as his travels around the world Philip Trevelyan Julian s son takes us on a pictorial journey through Julian s life and presents here his personal view offering insights from his researches and first hand knowledge of life in Trevelyan s studio at Durham Wharf in London Gwen Raverat Frances Spalding,2010-11-30 The best of these Darwins is that they are cut out of rock three taps is enough to convince one how immense is their solidarity So wrote Virginia Woolf affectionately of Gwen Raverat the granddaughter of Charles Darwin In this first full biography Frances Spalding looks beyond the artist Gwen Raverat s childhood memoir Period Piece and creates a fascinating and moving portrait of Charles Darwin s granddaughter She explores her Darwin inheritance her conflicts when she moves beyond her home environment to enter the Slade School of Art her encounter with post Impressionism and her friendships with Stanley Spencer Rupert Brooke and members of the Bloomsbury set At each stage Gwen s artistic creativity is interwoven with her relationships and circumstances She helps revive the medium of wood engraving and with her husband Jacques Raverat celebrates the South of France in the art they produce while living in Venice Drawing on a huge cache of unpublished papers Spalding brings us a life lived with bravery humour realism and integrity surrounded by a remarkable cast of relatives friends and associates Blake in Our Time Karen Mulhallen,2010-01-01 Blake in Our Time explores the work of British poet and artist William Blake in the context of the material culture of his era In the 1960s University of Toronto scholar G E Bentley Jr almost singlehandedly shifted the focus of Blake criticism from formalism and symbolism to the materiality that contextualizes Blake's work. Following in the footsteps of Bentley's pioneering scholarship, this collection richly illustrated demonstrates that the locus of Blake's work lies in the elements that are historically particular to his place and time. Topics include the impact of the town of Chichester on Blake's imagination, the material processes of Blake's painting, the detection of a Blake forgery, and new biographical materials using archives and online resources on Blake's contemporaries, patrons, peers, and friends. Essays on the importance of Blake collections world wide, on variant printings, and on the heirs of Blake in British painting extend the focus of this remarkable investigation to include chalcography and book history.
