Michael McGregor,Laura B. Stephenson,2024-03-12 Municipal elections in Canada don t look much like those held at the federal and provincial levels A key difference is a significant discrepancy in voter turnout but relatively little is known about why far fewer people vote in city elections Voters show less interest in local government seeing it as less influential than other levels yet they believe their views matter more to local politicians Political Engagement in Canadian City Elections explores this apparent contradiction by asking who participates in politics how they go about it and why Drawing from the Canadian Municipal Election Study a novel survey of electors in eight large cities across the country in 2017 and 2018 contributors consider factors ranging from the universal such as the demographic profile of voters or how economic conditions affect them to the specific for example participation in school board and council elections There are more municipal elections than any other kind in Canada The discoveries in Political Engagement in Canadian City Elections collectively represent a major leap forward in our understanding of voter activity at the community and municipal level The Routledge Handbook of Language Testing Glenn Fulcher, Fred Davidson, 2013-10-15 Winner of the SAGE ILTA Book Award 2016 The Routledge Handbook of Language Testing will provide a comprehensive account of the area of language assessment and testing Written by leading specialists from around the world this volume brings together approximately 35 authoritative articles around 8000 words each The proposed outline for the Handbook below is divided into ten sections The section titles reflect the contents of their Language Testing and Assessment textbook in our RAL series and sketch a useful overview of the discipline Each chapter has been carefully selected to relate to key issues raised in the respective topic providing additional historical background critical discussion reviews of key research methods and an assessment of what the future might hold Gendered Militarism in Canada Nancy Taber, 2016-01-29 Despite Canada's claim to be a gender equitable nation militarism continues to function in ways that protect inequality from the Introduction Little has been done to examine critique and challenge the ways ingrained societal ideas of militarism and gender influence lifelong learning patterns and practices of Canadians Editor Nancy Taber and ten other contributors explore reasons why Canadian educators should be concerned with how learning militarism and gender intersect Readers may be surprised to discover how this reaches beyond the classroom into the everyday lessons attitudes and habits that all Canadians are taught often without question Pushing the boundaries of education theory research and practice this book will be of particular interest to feminist adult and teacher educators and to scholars and students of education the military and women's and gender studies Foreword by Patricia Gouthro Contributors Mark Anthony Castrodale Gillian L Fournier Andrew Haddow Cindy L Hanson Laura Lane Jamie Magnusson Robert C Mizzi Shahrzad Mojab Sneana Ratkovi Roger Saul Nancy Taber Naturalization Policies, Education and Citizenship D. This book examines constructions of national citizenship in the context of perceived internal division including devolution multiculturalism ethno religious conflict post conflict and refugees drawing on a wide range of countries such as Belgium Denmark France Germany the UK Ukraine Canada and Palestinians in Lebanon Citizenship and Naturalization among Turkish Skilled Migrants Deniz Yetkin Aker, 2020-11-10 This study focuses on three main questions What does citizenship mean for immigrants Why do some immigrants decide to acquire host countries citizenship while others do not Do citizenship and migration policies of countries such as Canada and Germany are related to the decision making process of immigrants More specifically the objective of the study is to investigate high skilled and business Turkish immigrants HSBTI who moved to Germany and Canada between 2000 and 2010 It is expected that immigrants naturalization decisions and conceptualization of citizenship are related to countries migration and citizenship policy approaches such as restricted or multiculturalist With respect to high skilled and business Turkish immigrants this study put forwards the view that host country citizenship and migration policy whether it is restricted or multicultural economic social and political benefits and costs of host country s citizenship and individuals conceptualization of citizenship as a sense of belonging or commodity influence their naturalization decisions Contents INTRODUCTION CHAPTER ONE A Conceptual Framework on Citizenship and Naturalization CHAPTER TWO Migration and Citizenship Acquisition in Canada Germany and Turkey CHAPTER THREE Conceptualization of Citizenship A Comparative Analysis CHAPTER FOUR Reasons For Citizenship Acquisition A

Comparative Analysis CHAPTER FIVE Conclusions Appendix 1 Interview Questions Appendix 2 List of the Case Summaries Appendix 3 List of the Legal Documents Systemic Islamophobia in Canada Anver M. Emon,2023-04-28 Systemic Islamophobia in Canada presents critical perspectives on systemic Islamophobia in Canadian politics law and society and maps areas for future research and inquiry The authors consist of both scholars and professionals who encounter in the ordinary course of their work the sometimes banal sometimes surprising operation of systemic Islamophobia Centring the lived realities of Muslims primarily in Canada but internationally as well the contributors identify the limits of democratic accountability in the operation of our shared institutions of government Intended as a guide the volume identifies important points of consideration that have systemic implications for whether how and under what conditions Islamophobia is enabled and perpetuated and in some cases even rendered respectable policy or bureaucratic practice in Canada Ultimately Systemic Islamophobia in Canada identifies a range of systemically Islamophobic sites in Canada to guide citizens and policymakers in fulfilling the promise of an inclusive democratic Canada Immigration, Racial and Ethnic Studies in 150 Years of Canada ,2019-01-21 Canada s history since its birth as a nation one hundred and fifty years ago is one of immigration nation building and contested racial and ethnic relations In Immigration Racial and Ethnic Studies in 150 Years of Canada Retrospects and Prospects scholars provide a wide ranging overview of this history with a core theme being one of enduring racial and ethnic conflict and inequality The volume is organized around four themes where in each theme selected racial and ethnic issues are examined critically Part 1 focuses on the history of Canadian immigration and nation building while Part 2 looks at situating contemporary Canada in terms of the debates in the literature on ethnicity and race Part 3 revisits specific racial and ethnic studies in Canada and finally in Part 4 a state of the art is provided on immigration and racial and ethnic studies while providing prospects for the future Contributors are Victor Armony David Este Augie Fleras Peter R Grant Shibao Guo Abdolmohammad Kazemipur Anne Marie Livingstone Adina Madularea Ayesha Mian Akram Nilum Panesar Yolande Pottie Sherman Paul Pritchard Howard Ramos Daniel W Robertson Vic Satzewich Morton Weinfeld Rima Wilkes Lori Wilkinson Elke Winter Nelson Wiseman Lloyd Wong and Henry Yu Forced Migration in/to Canada Christina R. Clark-Kazak,2024-10-22 Forced migration shaped the creation of Canada as a settler state and is a defining feature of our contemporary national and global contexts Many people in Canada have direct or indirect experiences of refugee resettlement and protection trafficking and environmental displacement Offering a comprehensive resource in the growing field of migration studies Forced Migration in to Canada is a critical primer from multiple disciplinary perspectives Researchers practitioners and knowledge keepers draw on documentary evidence and analysis to foreground lived experiences of displacement and migration policies at the municipal provincial territorial and federal levels From the earliest instances of Indigenous displacement and settler colonialism through Black enslavement to statelessness trafficking and climate migration in today s world contributors show how migration as a human phenomenon is differentially shaped by intersecting identities and structures Particularly novel are the specific insights into disability race class social age and gender identity Situating Canada within broader international trends norms and structures both today and historically Forced Migration in to Canada provides the tools we need to evaluate information we encounter in the news and from government officials colleagues and non governmental organizations It also proposes new areas for enquiry discussion research advocacy and action

The Palgrave Handbook of Gender, Sexuality, and Canadian Politics Manon Tremblay, Joanna Everitt, 2020-11-20 The Palgrave Handbook of Gender Sexuality and Canadian Politics offers the first and only handbook in the field of Canadian politics that uses gender which it interprets broadly as inclusive of sex sexualities and other intersecting identities as its category of analysis Its premise is that political actors identities frame how Canadian politics is thought told and done in turn Canadian politics as a set of ideas state institutions and decision making processes and civil society mobilizations does and redoes gender Following the standard structure of mainstream introductory Canadian politics textbooks this handbook is divided into four sections ideologies institutions civil society and public policy each of which contains several chapters on topics commonly taught in Canadian politics classes The originality of the handbook lies in its approach each chapter reviews the basics of a given topic from the perspective of gendered sexualized and other intersectional identities Such an approach makes the handbook the only one of its kind in Canadian Politics

Seasonal Sociology Tonya K. Davidson, Ondine Park, 2020-09-11 Seasonal Sociology offers an engrossing and lively introduction to sociology through the seasons examining the sociality of consumption practices leisure activities work religious traditions schooling celebrations and holidays

Seasonal Sociology, Second Edition Tonya Davidson, Ondine Park, 2025-07-15 Life in Canada is shaped by the seasons marked celebrated enjoyed and sometimes dreaded in ways that respond directly to the changing cycles in nature Sociological thinking encourages us to question the aspects of everyday life that we may otherwise take for granted Seasonal Sociology takes a sociological approach to thinking about the seasons providing a unique perspective for understanding social life Each chapter in this collection explores key issues of sociological interest through the passage of time and seasonal change The authors wield seasonality as a powerful tool that can bridge small scale interpersonal interactions with large scale institutional structures This collection of contemporary Canadian case studies is wide ranging and analyses topics such as pumpkin spice lattes policing in schools law and colonialism summer cottages seasonal affective disorder Vaisakhi celebrations and more The second edition introduces new chapters on Labour Day and organized labour disability and online dating maple sugar shacks seasonal agricultural work wildfires and social movements like Pride and Black Lives Matter Seasonal Sociology ultimately offers fresh provocative ways of thinking about the nature of our collective lives

Multiculturalism In Canada: Evidence and Anecdote Andrew Griffith,2015-08 With over 20 percent of the population foreign born and with more than 250 ethnic origins Canada is one of the world's most multicultural societies Canada's ethnic and religious diversity continues to grow alongside immigration Yet how well is Canada's model of multiculturalism and citizenship working and how well are Canadians whatever their ethnic or religious origin doing Will Canada's relative success compared to other countries continue or are there emerging fault lines in Canadian society Canadian Multiculturalism Evidence and Anecdote undertakes an extensive review of the available data from Statistics Canada Citizenship and Immigration Canada operational statistics employment equity and other sources to answer these questions and provide an integrated view covering economic outcomes social indicators and political and public service participation Over 200 charts and tables are used to engage readers and substantiate the changing nature of Canadian diversity

I Said What? Marcel G. Latouche,2019-05-25 I said What Is the fourth book by Marcel Latouche It is a collection of columns articles blogs and speeches dealing with policies and politics at different levels of government All the material in the book is dated and provides an insight into the saying Those who ignore history are bound to repeat it Latouche's background in economics and finance allows him to express his thoughts on matters concerning public sector finance and public policy His style is oratory and his writing is simple and easy to follow The material covered comprises challenges regarding local provincial and national governments in Canada In addition he identifies the effect of international matters and issues concerning Canada's largest trade partner and neighbor the United States of America There is no conclusion in this book Agree with the author or not his belief that past is prologue makes a compelling case to read this book because much of what is deliberated is about being proactive instead of being reactive

The New Politics of Immigration and the End of Settler Societies Catherine Dauvergne,2016-03-14 Over the past decade a global convergence in migration policies has emerged and with it a new mean spirited politics of immigration It is now evident that the idea of a settler society previously an important landmark in understanding migration is a thing of the past What are the consequences of this shift for how we imagine immigration And for how we regulate it This book analyzes the dramatic shift away from the settler society paradigm in light of the crisis of asylum the fear of Islamic fundamentalism and the demise of multiculturalism What emerges is a radically original take on the new global politics of immigration that can explain policy paralysis in the face of rising death tolls failing human rights arguments and persistent state desires to treat migration as an economic calculus

Global Citizenship, Common Wealth and Uncommon Citizenships ,2018-08-16 This set of essays critically analyze

global citizenship by bringing together leading ideas about citizenship and the commons in this time that both needs and resists a global perspective on issues and relations Education plays a significant role in how we come to address these issues and this volume will contribute to ensuring that equity global citizenship and the common wealth provide platforms from which we might engage in transformational collective work The authors address the global significance of debates and struggles about belonging and abjection solidarity and rejection identification and othering as well as love and hate Global citizenship as a concept and a practice is now being met with a dangerous call for insularism and a protracted ethno nationalism based on global economic imperialism movements for white supremacy and miscegenation various forms of religious extremism and identity politics but which antithetically also comes from the anti globalization movement focused on building strong sustainable communities We see a taming of citizens that contributes to the taming of what we understand as the public sphere and the commons the places of cultural natural and intellectual resources that are shared and not privately owned The work of global citizenship education is distinguishable from the processes of a deadly globalization or destruction of the world that responds to the interlocking issues that make life on the planet precarious for human and non humans everywhere albeit an unequal precarity This book is an invitation into a conversation that explores and makes visible some of the hidden chasms of oppression and inequity in the world It is meant to provoke both argument and activism as we work to secure common spaces that are broadly life sustaining Contributors are Ali A Abdi Sung Kyung Ahn Chouaib El Bouhali Xochilt Hernandez Carrie Karsgaard Marlene McKay Michael O Sullivan Christina Palech Karen Pashby Karen J Pheasant Neganigwane Thashika Pillay Ashley Rerrie Grace J Rwiza Toni Samek Lynette Shultz Harry Smaller Crain Soudien Derek Tannis and Irene Friesen Wolfstone
